Sanday Reading. The Bible.

A nation must be truly blessed, if it were governed by no other laws than those of this blessed book ; it is so complete a system that nothing can be added to it or taken from it ; it contains everything needful to be known or done; it affords a copy for the king, and a rule for a subject ; it gives instruction and council to a senate, authority and direction to a magistrate; it cautions a witness, requires an impartial verdict from a jury, and furnishes a judge with his sentence; it sets the husband as lord of the household, and wife as mistress of the 'table : tells him how to rule and how to manage. It entails honor to parents, and enjoins obedience upon children; it prescribes and limits the sway of sovereigns, the rule of the ruler, and author. ity of the master; commands the subject to honor and the servant to obey; and promises the protection of its author to all who walk by its rules. It gives directions for weddings and for burials; it promises food and raiment, and limits the use of both ; it points out a faithful and eternal guardian to the departed husband and father; tells him with whomto leave his fatherless children, and in whom his widow is to trust, and promises a father to the former and a husband to the latter. It teaches a man how he ought to set his house in order, and how to make his will; it appoints a dowry for his wife, and entails a right of the first-born ; and shows how the younger branches shall be left. It defends the right of all and reveals vengence to the defrauder, over-reacher and oppressor. It is the first book and the oldest book in the world .- It contains the choicest matter, gives the best instruction, and affords the greatest pleasure and satisfaction that ever were revealed. It contains the best laws and profoundest mysteries that ever-were perined .-- It-brings the best.

tidings, and affords the best comforts to the enquiring and the disconsolate. It exhibits life and immortality, and shows the way to everlasting glory. It is a brief recital of all that is to come. It settles all matters in debate, resolves al doubts, and eases the mind and conscience of all their scruples. It reveals the only living and true Godf and shows the tway to him; and sets aside all other gods, and describes the vanity of them, and of and their trust on them.

BEAUTIFUL INCIDENT .--- A military officer being at sea in a dredful storm. his lady who was sutting, in the cabin near him and filled with alarms for the safety of the vessel was so suprised at his composure and serenity, that she cried out, "My dear are you not afraid ?? How is it possible that you can be so calm in such a storm ?" He arose from his chair lashed to the deck, and supporting himself by the pillar of a bed-place, he drew his sword, and pointing it to the breast of his wife, he exclaimed, "Are you not afraid ?" She instantly repli d, "No, certainly not." "Why," said the officer .. "Because," rejonned the lady, "I know the sword is in the hand of my husband, and he loves me too well to ing the parents of 359. In all but four of these examined cases, it-was, found hat one parent or the other, or both, had in some way departed from the laws of life and health, being either scrofulous, predisposed to brain affections, grossly sensual, or unnaturally intermarried with blood relations. The lesson taught by uch disclosures should prove a war aing.

A GOD-A MOMENT-AN ETERNI TY .- How sad it is that an elernity so solemn and so near us should impress us so slightly and should be so much forgotten ! A Christian traveller tells us. that he saw the following religious admonition on the subject of eternity, printed on a folio sheet, and hanging in a public room of an inn in Savoy ; and it was placed he understood, in every house in the parish :

"Understand well the force of the words-a God, a moment, an eternity. A God who sees thee, a moment which flies from thee, an eternity which awarts thee. A God whom you serve so ill, a moment which you so little profit, an eternity which you hazard so rashly!"

Put a single Bible in a townnay, in a nation, and it shall prove like leaven., pervading gradually the entire mass, and setting them all to require Bibles. As our opportunity enlarges, the demand increases, and it is our glorious privilege to meet and supply that evergrowing demand. It is the greatest work on earth, and with the greatest prospect of success that is enjoyed by any moral enterprise. It is the greatest honor God ever entrusted to man. Our Society stands upon a rock, whose base is the providence and promise of God, and round whose top culminates and shines the glory of Christian truth,----Speech before a Bible Society.

TREASURE IN HEAVEN .- Every one who rightly considers it, may know, that eminence and opulence in the world are not real divine blessings, not withstanding man, from the pleasure he finds in them, calls them so ; for they pass away, and also seduce many, and turn them away from heaven; but that eternal life, and its happiness, are real blessings, which are from the Divine : this the Lord also teaches in Luke : "Make to yourselves a treasure that faileth not in the heavens, where the thief cometh not, nor the moth corrupteth; for where your treasure is. there will your heart be also.".

Intocy .- A careful exploration of one Aundred towns in Massachussets, brought to light 575 cases of idiocy. Of these, .420 were idiots from birth, and of this number they obtained information respec-
