

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Fellow-citizens of the Senate, and House of Representatives.

Being suddenly called, in the midst of the last session of Congress, by a painful dispensation of Providence, to the responsible station which I now hold, I have had much opportunity to reflect upon the duties of the office.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1850.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Pennsylvania, in the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. By Wm. F. Johnston, Governor of said Commonwealth.

A PROCLAMATION.

Another revolution of the seasons has been almost completed. Peace with all nations has been vouchsafed to our country by the Supreme Disposition of national blessing.

Among the acknowledged rights of nations is that which each possesses of establishing that form of government which it may deem most conducive to the happiness and prosperity of its own citizens.

I am indebted to the courteous attention of A. J. Jones, Esq. Post-Master at Harrisburg, for an early copy of the President's Message.

The President's Message.

The second session of the present Congress commenced on Monday last, and there being a quorum of members present, the first annual message of President Fillmore was read on the same day.

In reference to the Tariff, he recommends the substitution of specific for ad valorem duties, and if this cannot be accomplished, that at all events a home valuation shall be adopted.

The Postmaster General in his report recommends that a uniform rate of postage for letters shall be adopted, viz: three cents when prepaid, and five cents when not prepaid.

MAMMOTH CABBAGE.—One of the largest and finest heads of cabbage ever sown was presented to us by day or twice by Maj. Joseph W. Patton, "mine host" of the Mansion House.

A TRAMP FROM BARNUM.—In view of Henry Lind, as will be seen by an advertisement, Mr. Barnum, the great caterer to the amusement and enjoyment of the public, has provided for our community a novel entertainment in the performances of the Lancers, Bill Kingers and the Chinese Family.

Gov. QUINMAN.—A despatch from the South, says, the warrant for the arrest of Gov. Quitman, for being implicated in the Cuban invasion, has been received at Jackson, Miss., from New Orleans.

A CHURCH WITHOUT A BISHOP.—The Special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, which was held in New York last week adjourned this day, after a three days session, in which it was found impossible to elect a provisional bishop for the New York diocese.

Scott and Crittenden.—A correspondent of the Wilmington Herald, suggests the names of Hon. John F. Crittenden, of Kentucky, for the Vice Presidency.

The trial of the Virginians charged with riot in connection with the slave difficulties at Harrisburg some months since, came off last week and resulted in their acquittal.

Joseph Milligan, the lad charged with burning the Clark's Ferry bridge, was tried last week at Harrisburg and found guilty. He is but 16 years of age.

with all nations, and we enjoy in our eminent degree the blessings of that peace, in its progress and growing commerce, and in all the forms of amicable intercourse.

First, the recognition and establishment of a free and independent trade system, with all its rights and duties, and the protection thereof.

Second, an agreement fixing the distance from the shore within which belligerent maritime operations shall be carried on.

Third, the recognition and establishment of a free and independent trade system, with all its rights and duties, and the protection thereof.

Fourth, the recognition and establishment of a free and independent trade system, with all its rights and duties, and the protection thereof.

Fifth, the recognition and establishment of a free and independent trade system, with all its rights and duties, and the protection thereof.

Sixth, the recognition and establishment of a free and independent trade system, with all its rights and duties, and the protection thereof.

Seventh, the recognition and establishment of a free and independent trade system, with all its rights and duties, and the protection thereof.

Eighth, the recognition and establishment of a free and independent trade system, with all its rights and duties, and the protection thereof.

Ninth, the recognition and establishment of a free and independent trade system, with all its rights and duties, and the protection thereof.

Tenth, the recognition and establishment of a free and independent trade system, with all its rights and duties, and the protection thereof.

portion of the public debt, amounting to eight millions of dollars, in California is a subject which demands your early consideration.

All experience has demonstrated the wisdom and policy of raising a large portion of revenue, for the support of Government from duties upon imports.

A duty laid upon an article which cannot be produced in this country—such as tea, coffee, sugar, &c.—is a duty which is not paid by the consumer.

It is a duty which is not paid by the consumer, but is paid by the importer, and is a duty which is not paid by the consumer, but is paid by the importer.

It is a duty which is not paid by the consumer, but is paid by the importer, and is a duty which is not paid by the consumer, but is paid by the importer.

It is a duty which is not paid by the consumer, but is paid by the importer, and is a duty which is not paid by the consumer, but is paid by the importer.

It is a duty which is not paid by the consumer, but is paid by the importer, and is a duty which is not paid by the consumer, but is paid by the importer.

The uncertainty which exists in regard to the validity of land titles in California is a subject which demands your early consideration.

Large bodies of land in that State are claimed by the United States, and the title thereto is a subject which demands your early consideration.

Many of these have not been perfected, and have been sold, and some are believed to be the property of the United States.
