WINCHESTER, March 14th, 1851. This is to certify that I have had in use two of Porter's Patent Twyeres in my shop for near three years, and I am certain that they have benefited me at least twenty dollers a year over the old Twyere. If I could not get the same Twyere I would no: part with these for fifty dollars.

WHEELING, Sept 27, 1850.

MH. ROBERT D. PORTER—Dear Sir.—We have had in use on trial in our establishment two of your Twyeres, and are determined to use them in all our fires, as we regard them as a very great improvement.

The advantages are—less time in taking a heat, and also a considerable saving of Coal—The smith is more certain of a good heat, and heat, and also a considerable saving of Coal—The smith is more certain of a good heat, and so less trouble in producing it. We think your Twyere the best we have ever used. We have been using the Water Twyere and find yours much more advantageous in many ways, and take pleasure in recommending its use.—Yours respectfully BUSBY & LITTLE.

We have one in our Shop, and cerroborate the above. Persons wishing to examine the above twyere
