DAGUERREOTYPES!

JACOB BATES respectfully announces to the citizens of Carlisle that he has taken rooms in the house of Mr. Gutshall, on South Hano-Werstreet, nearly opposite the public house of Mr. Scott, for the purpose of delineating the "human face divine" by means of the new and "human face divine" by means of the new and beautiful art of the Daguerrectype. Having a thorough scientific and practical knowledge of this truly wonderful discovery, he feels confident of producing a style of pictures superior to any over before offered in this place. These truly beautiful mementoes of relatives and friends can now be obtained at an expense so trifling as to place them within the reach of all. He has just received from New York and Philadelphia a large stock of the very hest Daguerrectype materials, purchased at reduced prices, and is therefore enabled to offer truthful, life like, expressive and lasting likenesses at exceedingly low prices.

An opportunity is now offered, such as my never again occur in this place, of obtaining likenesses of warents, children, or other dear friends, executed by nature's own pencil, and at once elegant and exact.

Pictures also taken for rings, breest pins medallions, &c., equally perfect as those of larger size. Instructions given in the art on moderate terms. All are invited to call, examine specimens, test our artistical skill, and see the Day guerrootye of Jenny Lind! Bor Open from 8 o'clock, A. M., to 5 o'clock

INDIANA LAND.

TINDIANA LAND.

TOR SALE a valuable tract of land in Clinton county, Indiana, lying 15 miles from the large and flourishing city of Lafayette, and near the rail road from that city to the capital of the State, Cincinnatti and other eastern cities, containing 181 Acres. The Land is in a generally improved and healthy section, and is well accommodated with common roads, and within a few miles of two plank roads leading to important points on the Wabash and Eric Canal. Clinton county lies in the great valley of the Wabash, and is celebrated for he fortility and productiveness of its soil, it not being uncommon to produce three successive crops of wheat, of 30 to 10-bushels to the acre, from the same/field, and 50 and 100 bushels of cent to the acre, for almost an unlimited period. That section of Indiana and particularly Clinton, is mostly settled by good and substantial farmers from Cumberland and the adjoining counties in Pennsylvania. The land here offered for sale is of excellent quality and finely timbered, and lying as it does in the vicinity of extensive prairies, the timber along is very valuable.

The above described tract would be sold at a great bargian for cash—or would be exchanged for improved roal estate. A map, showing the position of the land in relation to the various public improvements, towns, &c., and the opinions and certificates of public officers of the county, of the value and location, &c., can be seen by application to MATTHEW MOORE, Papectown, Cumberland county, Pa. of whom also terms of sale can be obtained.
