JACOB BATES respectfully announces to the citizons of Carlisle that he has taken rooms in the house of Mr. Gutshall, on South Handverstreet, nearly opposite the public house of Mr. Scott, for the nurpose of delineating the "human face divine" by means of the new and beautiful art of the Daguerreotype. Having a thorough scientific and practical knowledge of this truly wonderful discovery, he feels confident of producing a style of pictures superior to any ever before offered in this place. These truly beautiful mementoes of relatives and friends can now be obtained at an expense so rilling as to place them within the reach of all. He has just received from New York and Phidelphia a large stock of the very best Daguerrebtype materials, purchased at reduced prices, and is therefore enabled to offer truthful, life like, expressive and lasting likenesses at exceedingly low prices.

37 An opportunity is now offered, such as may never again occur in this place, of obtaining likenesses of varents, children, or other dear friends, executed by nature's own pencil, and at once elegant and exact.

Pictures also 'taken for rings, breast pins, medallions, &c., equally perfect as those of a larger size.
