LETTER FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF PENN'A. ON THE SUBJECT OF THE GORSUCH MURDER.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8. 1851.

We ask the attention of the public to the subjoined letter from Thomas E. Franklin, of Lancuster, Attorney General of the Common wealth, on the subject of the riot and murder in Lancaster county, and the letters of the Clergyman Gorsuch. No one who reads the communication, will hesitate to say that Mr. Gorsuch has acted in the most unchristian and uncharitable manner, and that Go. Johnston did his full duty in the case. Go. Johnston did not immediately offer a reward for the approhension of the murderers, because rewards are never offered until the ordinary means of the people is not to be uselessly thrown away by the Executive. It is to be judiciously used, and not lavished upon officers, whose duty requires them to act-without the incentive of a reward On the 2d of June, 1847, a similar slave riot occurred in Carlisle, wherein James Kennedy, of Hagerstown, Maryland, was killed. Gov. Shunk was then in office. He issued no proclamation-offered no reward for the apprehonsion of the murderers. For acting in this manner Gov. Shunk was not denounced by a single newspaper in the State. For offering a reward when the proper time arrived, Governor Johnston is now denoduced by the entire Locofoco party of the State. Mr. Gorsuch complained in this letter, that Gov. Johnston did not leave the cars to look on the dead body of his father. Gov. Johnston

he has been used by unprincipled and heartless politicians. The language of his second letter is the language of a notorious .Locofoco paper in Pennsylvania, and there is the strongest circumstantial evidence that it was concected by a portion of the Locofoco party for political purposes.

Mr. J. S. Gorsuch, in his last letter, dated Columbia, September 25, 1851, says:

"I conceive it to be an act of justice to call attention to the remark I made in my letter to Gov. Johnston, in regard to the Atterney General of Pennsylvania, Hon. Thomas E. Frankeral of Pennsylvania, Hon. Thomas E. Franklin. Contrary to the practice in Maryland, I have learned that the Attorney General of of Pennsylvania has no jurisdiction in criminal cases, and therefore the inactivity of Mr. F., in the premises, was not foonsurable. I am glad to say, to the oredit of that gantleman, that he volunteered his presence and assistance at the recent investigation at Laneaster, and thus proved his loyalty to the Constitution and laves, and zeal for the vindication of public justice.
"In regard to no other part of that letter have I one solitary retraction to make."

Mr. Gorsuch here retracts what he said against Thomas E. Franklin. He should have 1 Superintendent at $4 per day, gone further, and retracted what he said against Gov. Johnston, for the Attorney General of the Commonwealth distinctly and strongly declares, in the subjoined letter, that he acted by the advice of the Governor. He 1 Harbor-Master, at Hollidays states that at THE SUGGESTION OF GOV. JOHNSTON HE TOOK PART IN THE IN-VESTIGATION.

The letter of Mr. Franklin is contained in the Lancaster Tribune of the 30th of Septem- 2

LETTER OF ATTORNEY GENERAL FRANK-

To the Editor of the Union and Tribune: Sir:—In a letter dated the 18th inst., addressed to Governor Johnston by the Rev. J. S. Gorsuch, of Washington, which the writer thought fit to publish without waiting for any reply or explanation, he assailed the Governor in the most visidictive terms, and imputed to him and to me inactivity and gross derelictio of duty in regard to the murder of his father near Christiana. In a subsequent card, dated the 25th inst., he retracts and apologizes for his charges against me, but takes occ his offensive imputations upon the Jovernor. I cannot consent to be placed in a different position in reference to this matter from Gov. Johnston, upon consultation with whom all the steps have been taken consequent upon the la-mentable affair, and in pursuance of whose suggestion. I took part in the investigation.—

If, as the writer now acknowledges, I have proved my loyalty to the Constitution and laws, and my zeal for the vindication of public justice; the Governor is also entitled to the credit which belongs to him, of having placed it in my charge as a puriter of public duty.

In consequence of the absence of witnesses, the hearing was postponed to Tuesday, the 23d. After the postponement Ar. t. went down to Christiana where he wrotethe went down to Christiana where he wrote, a letter which has been extensively published, dated Sept. 17th, containing a pretty correct and fair statement of the facts, and giving credit to the public authorities for doing ex-crything necessary to bring the transaction to-light and the offenders to justice. He then proceeded to his residence at the city of Wash-ington and these or the next day, the 18th ington, and there, on the next day, the 18th, indited the letter which contains the injurious imputations I have alluded to. Whether the writer could in the meantime have acquired any additional information which could have induced the entire change of tone, temper and feeling, from that which characterized his letter of the provious day, or whether it, is not more probable that he was subjected to the ovil instigation of some determined and un-sorupulous political onemy of the Governor, I leave to the public to determine: His publioation induoed no change in my course on the second hearing. From a sense of personal dignity, however, I avoided as much as possi-ble, any interescips with the Reversid gentleman, who seemed so ontirely devoid of tohris

HONEST JOHN STROUM!

The Hon. John Strohm, the Whig candidate for Canal Commissioner, says the Pennsylva-nia Inquirer, has just published a letter in relation to the unsorupulous, manner in which ome of the opposition press assert and reessort that he, while a member of Congress, voted against the granting of supplies to sustain our army in Mexico. Mr. Strohm recapitulates the whole facts of the case, and on the Public World and cating out your substance! The Canal Commissioners are all Locologo their Superintendants, Supervisors, pedient, to call for and accept the services of any number of Volunteers, not exceeding 50,-000, and appropriating $10,000,000 for the purpose of carrying the provisions of that act. into effect,—he was not prepared to vote for the aniendment introduced by Mr. Boyd, of Kentucky, which declared that war existed by the act of Mexico, and authorized the President-to prosecute it to to a speedy and successful termination. He could not, he said, sanction a bill which contained assertions so palpably false, and which was fraught with such mischievous consequences. This, however, was very different from voting against the bill

After the passage of that bill, in which the war with Mexico was recognized and sanc-tioned by the regular and properly constituted war-making power of the government, I made no further resistance to the war, but voted for People's Money from being stolen and squan-lered. Tax-payers, think of this.

But that our remarks may not be accounted to point out a single instance in which I did not, unless accidentally absent from the House. But I am accused of giving a vote to withhold supplies, and starve the volunteers in Mexico. The only vote of mine that can be tortured inspecting a mangled corpse, or going to see a raiminal hanged.

Our opinion remains unchanged, that Mr. Gorsuch is either a bad man himself, or that he has been used by unprincipled and heartless politicians. The language of his second Read, with their new ways follows:

That was before any volunteers were "ordered out. That bill, as already stated, was to authorize the President to accept the services of volunteers, and making provisions for their pay and sustenance. Both propositions went to a Whig (James M. Power) in the Canal Board, and had my tote been decisive of the fate of the bill, the volunteers could not have been accepted, would not have been ealled up-and amplification. on, and consequently would not have been starved in Mexico, even without an appropria-

I might say much more upon this subject, but I fear I have trespassed too much on your space already. What has been said, will, I trust, be sufficient for all candid and impartial men; and with those who are determined not to be convinced, it is useless to multiply words. or accumulate arguments. Yours, &c.

JOHN STROHM.

ONE VOTE.

Every Whig should remember the importance of his vote, and the vote of his neighbor. A single vote has decided many important questions, and ONE VOTE may elect or defeat Gov. Johnston or hohest John Strohm. It is true such results do not often occur, and we think there is very little danger of a very close election now; for we honestly believe that the On the first of March last, the Portage Rail Whig ticket will receive a large majority, yet Road was furnished with the following officers, this is by no means certain, and the best way to ensure success is for every one to consider the importance of every single vote.

One vote elected Marcus Morton Governor of Massachusetts, some years ago. One voto o-elected him the following term, (by the Lo-8 00 gislature;) one vote elected a State Senator in Bucks county a few years ago; a tie vote for-Prothonotary of Dauphin county gave the of-4 00 fice to a Locofoco, who was appointed by the Governor, and many other cases of this kind might be mentioned, all proving that upon a 4 00 single vote the most important questions may depend.

Therefore, we trust that every whig will bear in mind the importance of his vote and 3 00 ufluence, and be sure not to neglect his indi-3 00 vidual duty on the 2d Tuesday of October, next. The great strength of our opponents is S:60 00 not their greater number, (for they are in a decided minority in Pennsylvania,) but the grand secret is that the Locofocos never fail to vote, whilst the Whigs, on the other hand, too often neglect this imperative duty, and thus suffer themselves to be beaten by simply stayjust as well, if not better, in Mr. Power's time | ing at home when voting time comes. If evcry Whig would resolve hereafter to vote at every election we never could be beaten in Pennsylvania.

Let every friend of Johnston and Strohm re solve to leave no votes unpolled, and to se that his neighbor will come up to the goo work at the proper time and do his duty, an victory is cortain.

THE WIDOW.

A widow is a dangerous thing,
With soft, black shining curls,
And looketh more bewitching
Than a host of remping girls.
Her laugh is so delicious,
So knowing clear beside, You'd never deem her thinking

Soon to become a bride. Her dress though made of sables, Gives roundness to her form; A touch of something thoughtful; A witching, winning, charm; And when she sits down by you, With quiet, easy grace,— A tear may fall unbidden,

She sometimes sighs, "'tis dreadful
To pass through life alone!"
And then she'li tell you, you remind her
Of the loved one dead and gone; Your steps, your form, your features— Thus the widow will run on.

Be guarded, or she'll win you,
With sighs, and smiles, and tears;
I' faith she'll wear the breeches, too,
