Plainfield Classical Academy, FOUR miles west of CARLEISLE. The Eleventh Session will commence on MONDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1851.

THIS Institution has been established nearly six years, during which time such additions and improvements have been made as to render it one of the most commodious and convenient in the State. It is situated in a beautiful and healthy location, and is surrounded by a fertile soil. In regard to healthfulness it may be mentioned that no case of serious sickness has occurred in the history of the Institution. Its moral purity is attested by the fact that several associates, scenes of vice, and resorts for dissipation have no existence in the neighborhood.

The course of instruction comprises all the branches required by the State, and includes Latin or Collogian. Also, modern languages, vocal and instrumental music, &c. It is the declared policy of the Proprietor that the Institution shall sustain the reputation it has already acquired for imparting thorough instruction, and for preparing its scholars for the various professions of the youth admitted to its charge. Terms for Session (Five Months) $50 00. For catalogue containing references, &c., address D. McWILLIAMS, Principal, Plainfield, Pa. Oct. 1, 1851.
