umph of the People 1 It is their testimony, whose candidate he was without party distinction, to his eminent character as a citizen and and a Judge. It is the triumph of the Judiciary over party polities. . It is a precedent for after times in favor of an Independent Judiciary. In this view it is a most important result. In Mr. Graham Judge Watts had a competitor capable of polling his whole party vote in a mere party contest. In his failure to do so we see how careful has been the discrimination of and it may be hereafter that many in-this voters. triumph they have achieved. Our Whig County Ticket, or a large portion of it, we have reason to believe is elected .---Our opponents concede the election of Messrs. Cobean, Sponsler and Zinn, (Whigs) for county offices, and R. M: Henderson to the Lewis-lature. Mr. Bonham is possibly elected also by a very small majority, but this is by no means certain. The official returns we have will show the election of both Messrs. Henderson and Catheart, Whigs. The election of Mr. Martin, loco, as Clerk of the Courts, is claimed by his friends. We were not able to collect reliable returns of the candidates or the county ticket before going to press, and therefore give the opinions of our opponents as we have heard them expressed.

We have the following returns from the dif lerent districts of the county on the Governor and Indicial candidates :
