ANOTHER PROCLAMATION.

President FILLMORE, having received intelligence on Monday from United States Consul at Matamoras, that a company of Texans had been organized and marched into Mexico, and that new enlistments were progressing for the purpose of aiding the insurrectionary movement in the northern part of that Republic, has issued a Proclamation warning all persons who shall connect themselves with any such enterprise, in violation of the laws and national ob ligations of the United States, that they will thereby subject themselves to heavy penalties denounced against such offenders; and that, it they should be captured within the jurisdiction of the Mexican authorities, they must expect to be tried and punished according to the laws of Mexico, and will have no right to claim the interposition of this Government in their behalf,

The Proclamation further calls upon all well-disposed citizens, who have at heart the reputation of their country, and are animated with a just regard for its laws, its peace and its welfare, to discountenance and, by all lawful means, prevent any such enterprise and upon every officer of the Government civil or military, to be vigilant in arresting for trial and punishment, every such offender.

NOTICES.

THE INTERNATIONAL MAGAZINE.--- Each sucessive issue of this valuable publication, exhibits decided marks of improvement. The October number, for example, will fully bear out our assertion. Its embellishments are nunerous and well-chosen, and the literary coutents of the very first stamp. Among the former are, a Portrait and View of the residence of the Inte Mr. Cooper, Portraits of John G. Saxe and the late Philip P. Cooke, and six fine engravings illustrative of the glass manufacure in Bohemia. The 'reading matter comprises a number of original contributions by James, Alice Carey, Thomas Ewbank, Mr.

Griswold, the editor, and others; together with admirable selections of the best articles from the leading foreign periodicals. The department devoted specially to " Authors and Books," contains a vast amount of interesting and entortaining literary intelligence. The International his become a formidable rival of Hurper's New Monthly, and manifestly disputes with it the title to superiority. New York-Stringer & Townsend, 222 Broadway. BULLETIN OF THE AMERICAN ART-UNION. The October number of this able journal of Art contains a variety of intoresting matters relative to the Fine Arts in this country and abroad, and is illustrated with several etchings nd ongravings of considerable morit. Each vbscriber to the American Art-Union, receives copy of the Bulletin gratis, every month, Natives rom the date his subscription commences,
