THUE, Winter Session of this Institution will:

demmence on the first Monday in November, lessi, which, with the exception of two weeks wacation at the time of the Christmas, holydays, will cominue until the last. Thursday in June, 1352.—

After that the sessions will commence regularly on the first Mondays of February and Angust, and close on the last Thursdays of June and December. Every effort on the part of the proprietors which would tend to make the Institution worthy of the confidence of the public, will cheerfully be made; and they would hope that by a discerning people the merits of their Academy will not be overlooked. Located as it is, in the centre of the beautiful and romantic Combarand Valley, its situation is exceedingly pleasant and beautiful, while he village and surrounding country is noted for he morality and intelligence of its inh ibitrats.— very possible inducement will be held out to students of the Academy to pursue the only path to genuine usefulness.

TERMS.

For the coming term, students in the English branches will be charged $2 00 per month. In the Latin and Greck languages $2 60 per month. Af terwards the terms will be regularly as follows: Bearding and washing per session of five months,
