Testimony of A. McMakin, Esq.

Testimony of A. McMakin, Esq. To Cossementies.—Without solicitation or hint on the subject, we, the Editor of the Contier, chierfully, confirm Dr. Scheock's statement, made in his advertisement in this paper, headed "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup" from actual knowledge of the facts, as regards his own case.

PRILADELPHIA, December 1, 1848.

Mr. Schenck — Dear Sir—In justice to your self and the cause of humanit, 1 gm induced to bear testimony to the good effects of your Pulmonic Syrap in the case of my daughter—a very severe and obstinate case of Scrotcha.

About five years ago, I first noticed a swelling about the neck and glands, which finally hooke out in a running sore. I called in some And or three physicians and they pronounced it Scrotchula, but all their efforts to cure or check it, proved nefficials. It comined getting worse until the spring of 1847, at which time she had been confined to her bed quout three months. We gave her up as incurable, and looked for her death every day—their seemed to be no help for her—her breath, &&, became so offen sive that it was impossible to semain in her I made known her case to a friend of mine who made some inquiry about her disease, and was through him induced to try your Pulmonic Syrup, which, after taking 2 bottler. I began to see a great change, for the better. Her breath became better, and improved in health and strongth every way; the Syrup seemed to take hold of the disease in such a way as to cause a general breaking out in a rash which I considered a good sympton. I continued the use of the Syrup; the breaking out ceased, her wounds nealed up, and I now consider her entirely cured, well and hearty as any of my family. I sincarely believe that your Pulmonic Syrup is an invaluable remody in Scrothleus Sienses, and no person affected with a liked sense should be without it. By taking about six bottles of the Syrup, I attribute her cure entirely to the and no person affected with a like d sense should be without it. By taking about six buttles of the Syrup, I ntribute her cure entirely to the goo ness of God, in blessing the menns used or the restoration of her health by the use of rour invaluable Syrup.

I am yours, very respectfully.
