

CRIME AND THE CAUSE OF IT.

Every paper that comes to us contains a list of murders, assaults, and attempts upon life. The record is really alarming, especially as a good proportion of these offences appears to have been committed by comparatively young men.

Death of Marshal Haynan.

The Franklin brings intelligence of the death of Baron Haynan, on the 14th of March, of Baron Haynan, the notorious Austrian commander in Hungary during the recent war.

STATE OF ITALY.—A correspondent of the Boston Traveller, writing from Florence, says:

Italy is troubled to her heart's core. In Florence we cannot of course learn the true extent of the late revolutionary movement in Milan, Rimini, Mantua, and elsewhere.

WILD CAT CURRENCY.—Of this remarkable currency in Indiana, the Lafayette Journal thus speaks:

THE NEW APPOINTMENTS.

The long agony in the office, last of last week followed by President Pierce, and the following appointments are announced for Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore: Philadelphia—Charles Brown, Collector; John Miller, Post Master; N. B. Eldred, Naval Officer; Reuben C. Hale, of Millin, Deputy Surveyor of the Port; Capt. Alfred Day, Navy Agent; Col. F. N. Wynkoop, Marshal of the Eastern District; Robert Edwin, Sub-Treasurer; Thomas M. Pettit, Superintendent of the Mint.

A Washington letter-writer says, the appointment of Charles Brown as Collector at Philadelphia is likely to cause a great row in the camp. The Pennsylvania Democracy are much incensed. Every member of the State Delegation, save two, were opposed to it, and every member of the Cabinet, except a large and respectable delegation from Philadelphia formally protested to the President, on Saturday, but it was all unavailing.

Death of Mr. J. P. Ege.

Mr. MICHAEL P. EGE, late chief clerk in the office of the Surveyor of the Port of Philadelphia, died in that city on Tuesday morning the 29th ult. Mr. Ege was a native and long a resident of Cumberland county, where he was warmly and universally esteemed for his many sterling qualities.

We learn from the Philadelphia papers that on Tuesday a meeting of the officers of the Customs was held, when Mr. B. Norris was called to the Chair, and C. M. Przeworski, Deputy Collector, appointed Secretary.

WHEREAS, we have been informed of the decease, at his lodgings in this city, this morning, of Michael P. Ege, late Chief Clerk in the Surveyor's Department of this District, and whereas, we consider an expression of opinion on the part of those who were closely connected with him for nearly forty years past, as eminently proper: Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Michael P. Ege, our government has lost the services of an efficient, intelligent, and faithful officer; his friends and associates the companionship of one whose gentle, kindly and affable deportment was always a source of comfort and cheerful life to those who were ever-entirely his friends.

Resolved, That, although aware that no act of ours can assuage the grief of his widow and children, we cannot withhold from our sincere sympathy; that in condoling with them upon the occasion of their sudden and untimely decease, we rely in the future to bear testimony to the amiable and virtuous character of the deceased, and to know that his death was as serene and tranquil as his life had been cheerful and successful.

Resolved, That these proceedings be published, and that a committee, consisting of Charles M. Przeworski, Dr. J. G. Murphy, and J. McEly, be appointed to transmit a copy to the family of our deceased friend.

Business Notices.

The assertions of store keepers, lawyers, (and even editors are sometimes uncharitably included in the same category) in relation to the quality of the new Spring Goods, are so various, and so contradictory, that we have thought it expedient to publish a notice to our subscribers, in which we state that all who visit that establishment are free to acknowledge that he is selling Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, &c. at astonishingly low prices, and that he is, in fact, indisputably, for every one can readily test his truth by examining his stock and prices for themselves. Like honest politicians when their reputation is assailed, so with respect to his stock we presume he holds "courts in investigation."
