AND CONSULTETION. Of all the numerous medicines extant, fand some of them valuable; for the cure of pul-monary complaints, nothing has ever been found which could compare in its effects with this preparation. Others cure sometimes, but at all times and in all diseases of the lungs and throat where medicine can give relief, this will do it. It is pleasant to take, and perfactly safe in accordance with the directions. We do not advertise for the information of those who have tried it but those who have net.— Families that have known its value will not be without it, and by its timely use, they are secure from the dangerous consequences of Coughs and Colds which neglected, ripen into fatal consumption.
