No.64. April To. m. 1253.

April 12, 1853. The potition of William Trough, presented to the Court of Common Plena of Cumberland County, representing that on the 23d day of O tober, 1841 he purchased at Sheriff's Sale the property of John Trough for the sum of $1290, and that on the 15th day of November, 1841. Paul Martin, the then Shoriff, executed and delivered to said petitioner a deed for the premises sold, with a receipt for the purchase money. Said deed, for some cause unknown to said petitioner, never was acknowledged or recorded as provided for by the Act of Assembly. He therefore prays the Court to grant a linke on the said Paul Martin, Shoriff, and upon said John Trough or his heirs at Jaw, to show cause why the said deed should not now be acknowledged and recorded according to law: No.64, April To: m. 1253.

ding to law. April 12, 1853. Rule upon Paul Martin to April 12, 1853. Rule upon Paul Martin to appear at the next adjourned Court, and shew cause why the deed sould not be acknowledged, and also upon the heirs at law to show waves. If any they have, why the prayer of the potitioner chould not be granted.

Notice to be served by publication in two newspapers for four weeks previous to the Court. Cumberland County, ss.

These Springs are situated on the banks of Sherman's, and emity into Sherman's Creek; a stream associated with the thrilling scenes between the early scatters of that part of Pennsylvania and Aborigines, whose hunting ground lay on its margin. The qualities of the water of the Warm Springs are nost extraordinary, indeed, so much so, that none has ever been ascertained in the United States for the speedy and permanent cure of all eruptions of the skin, and every species of Gutaneous Diseases. Hundreds of Certificates could be produced and published, if requisite to the many cures it has performed. The Bathing Houses are so arranged as to use the water of the different springs some of which throw out ninety gollons of water to the minute.

The Springs are accessible by the Central Rullrad to Duncannon, where a time new coach is in readiness on the arrival of the cars to convey passengers who desirs to visit the Springs, fourteen miles N.
