

CARLISLE, PA.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1865.

THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER IN PENNSYLVANIA.

TERMS—Two Dollars a Year, or One Dollar and Fifty Cents, if paid quarterly in Advance.

Democratic Whig Nominations.

Supreme Judges: THOMAS A. BUDD, of Philadelphia.

Assembly: ALEXANDER GATHAWAY, of Lower Allen, PHILIP KOONS, of Shippenburg.

County Officers: JOHN D. GORGAS, of Carlisle.

MOSER'S POSITION. Mr. Moser seems to bear very meekly the statements made by Messrs. Hyer, Meek and Rheem, respecting his double-dealing with the Prohibition men.

OUR CANDIDATES AND OUR DUTY. There has been much said within the last two months, says the Daily News, by our political opponents, about the Whig party being dead.

MAINE ELECTION.—The returns we receive by mail of the election in the State of Maine, do not in any respect agree with the accounts daily received by telegraph.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. The Washington Union of this morning, publishes Senator Dickinson's letter, and soft soap him considerably.

DAVENEY COUNTY.—The anti-Buchananites are again in the ascendancy in this county.—Simon Cameron presided at the recent county Convention, which nominated O. Barrett, and Simon Salts as Assembly. Mr. Barrett, its editor of the Keystone, a Journal well known as bitterly hostile to Buchanan.

SUBURBAN RAILROAD.—The work on the entire line of the road, between Bridgeport and Sunbury, Pa., is said to be progressing steadily, and, as rapidly as possible during the summer months, when hands are subject to chills and fever.

THE YELLOW FEVER AT THE SOUTH.—The epidemic which has created such frightful mortality at New Orleans and Mobile, is rapidly extending into the interior of Louisiana and Mississippi.

THE TURKS.—The Whigs of this county have for the first time for some years nominated a ticket of their own. They have taken John Eichelberger, F. Sulzbach and John Bluff for Assembly, Thomas E. Cochran for Assembly, and G. E. Heron for Treasurer.

THE VOLUNTEER AND PROHIBITION.

The Volunteer is still in a stew about the question of Prohibition, and makes another and more pretentiously lame attempt last week to show that the Prohibition law movement is a "Whig movement."

LOCOFOCUS SPLIT IN NEW YORK. The New York Barnburners and Hunkers have split in two under the distinctive names of "Hards" and "Softs."

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE. New York, Sept. 18.—The steamer Arctic arrived at an early hour this morning, bringing 200 passengers and Liverpool dates of the 17th instant.

MEXICO.—Santa Anna's fortunes appear to be already waning again in Mexico; and his magnificent promises and efforts, his Spanish alliance, his anti-Americanism, his assaults upon the press, his decesses and grand airs in Louisiana, have not protected him from pronouncements. According to the latest intelligence received in San Antonio, Texas, by an arrival from Zacatecas, we learn that the two important States of Guanajuato and Guadalupe have declared against him.

WARREN COUNTY.—The Whigs of this county have for the first time for some years nominated a ticket of their own. They have taken John Eichelberger, F. Sulzbach and John Bluff for Assembly, Thomas E. Cochran for Assembly, and G. E. Heron for Treasurer.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

We had intended to say no more in relation to this office or the nominees. We were satisfied to submit the qualifications of the candidates to that inquiry which we hoped the importance of the office, not only in the administration of justice but to every citizen, would excite.

PLAINFIELD ACADEMY. The examination of the Students of this Academy will take place on Wednesday morning next, the 28th inst., Friends of education are cordially invited to be present.

OLD SOLDIERS' MEETING. A meeting of surviving soldiers of the war of 1812 in Franklin, Adams, Cumberland and Perry counties, will be held in this Borough on the 15th of October, for purposes stated in advertisement in another column.

SCHOOL TEACHER WANTED. The School Directors advertise for a teacher one of our borough schools, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Files. His school passed a very satisfactory examination last summer.

FATAL DISASTERS. We regret to learn that on Saturday last, a little boy about seven years of age, son of Mr. J. Murray, one of the locomotive engineers on the Cumberland Valley railroad, had been run over by the wheels of a truck car upon which he was attempting to climb.

RESIGNATION OF MR. OGILBY. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Carlisle Deposit Bank, on the 14th inst., a motion was received from Mr. Ogilby, resigning his appointment as President of the Bank, when on motion of Mr. Saxton, it was resolved, that the same be accepted, and was directed to be entered on the minutes of the Board, and is as follows, viz:

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE CARLISLE DEPOSIT BANK. Gentlemen—Owing to a series of misfortunes it becomes necessary that my connection with your Institution should terminate—whereby through my resignation as President of your Board.

MILITARY MEETING. At a meeting of the Carlisle Light Infantry Company held in their Armory on Saturday evening, the 16th inst., with Major S. Crop acting as Chairman, and Sergeant Deemer, Secretary, the following resolutions were unanimously agreed to.

FOR THE "HERALD." Mr. Editor: With your permission I propose making, through the columns of the Herald, a few remarks touching an article headed "DISTRICT ATTORNEY," which appeared in the last number of the American Volunteer.

WARREN COUNTY.—The Whigs of this county have for the first time for some years nominated a ticket of their own. They have taken John Eichelberger, F. Sulzbach and John Bluff for Assembly, Thomas E. Cochran for Assembly, and G. E. Heron for Treasurer.

ing such loud and panegyric notes of his own trumpet. True, the instrument, at best, is but a penny one; but intelligent individuals, as is shown by the following, are thinking that person very silly who is detected and exposed, whilst playing the most exalted tunes in his own favor.

him outside of the tent, and it was with great difficulty his life was saved from the vengeance of his assailants; this proved a signal for a general attack. The mob proceeded to the Armory, which contained 200 land of arms, ammunition, and a six pound cannon, of which they possessed themselves and removed the attack, firing at every one they thought was connected with the exhibition.
