TO FARMERS & HORSE DEALERS

OCTOR J. S. SEIBERT, Veterinary Surgeon, has returned to Carlisle, and located himself permanently for the purpose of operating upon diseased horses, and pledges himself, to cure the most of diseases to which this noble animal is subject. He is able to cure ring-bone, tooth-bone and bog-spavin—all weak eyes which are supposed to be affected by hooks without cutting the gland of the eye, and all eyes supposed to be affected with wolf teeth without extracting the teeth. He can cure a fresh foundered horse in forty-eight hours as sound as ever. He also cures all distempers, hoof bound, sprung knees, shoulder hours as sound as evor. He also cures all distempers, hoof bound, sprung knees, shoulder jarns, string halt, fistulas and pole ovil. He can remove all callous enlargements, and perform all surgical operations that may be reduced of him. Persons flaving diseased horses who cannot leave them with him, can be supplied with medicine and directions for use. He charges nothing for examining a horse and locating their diseases. So bring on your cripples.

He may be found at Henry Glass's Cumberland and Perry Hotel, Carlisle; where those wishing to ongage his services are requested to call.
