TO FARMERS & HORSE DEALERS

OCTOR J. S. SEIBERT, Veterinary Surgeon, has returned to Carlisle; and located himself permanently for the purpose of operating upon diseased horses, and pledges himself to cure the most of diseases to which this noble animal is subject. He is able to cure Ring Bone, Tooth Bone and Bog Spavin, and all weak eyes which are supposed to be affected by Rooks, without cutting the gland of the eye, and all eyes supposed to be affected with Woif Teeth, without extracting the teeth. He can courte a fresh foundered horse in forty-eight hours as sound as ever. He also cures all distance in the purpose of jams, string halt, fistulas and pole evil. He can remove all callous culargments, and perform all su gical operations that may be required of him. Persons having diseased horses who cannot loave them with him, can be supplied with alt the me licines and directions for use. He charges nothing for examining a horse and locating their diseases. So, bring on your cripples.

He may be found at Henry Glass's Cumberland and Perry Hotel, Carlisle, where those wishing to engage his services are requested to call.
