Mr Shringa-1) ar Sir-1 received your communication in due time after it was mailed and now take up my pen to reply to your enquiries in regard to the effects of your "Balsamic Cough Syrup."

For filteen months previous to last March, I was troubled with an affection of the throat, andch originated from severe cold and cough, iric caused me much difficulty in specking. I died several preparations professing to be remedies, but they all failed to produce the good desired. My throat grew worse and worse, so much so that my friends became alarmed, and I became fearful list it should terminate in Bronchitis. While home last Spring in Transletions, I heard of many astonishing cures performed by heard of many astonishing cures performed by he use of your Balsamic Cough Syrup? and the use of your 'Balsamic Cough Syrup' and laving overcome my projudices against patent medicine, resolved to try it, and used two hottles; I found myself entirely corred. I feel prepared to say that I believe it to be a superior remedy to any before discovered; certain it is superior to any I have even used.

Mr Editor—The unparalleled success which has att ided the use of "Shriner's Lough Sprup" in all esses that have come index my ob. mp" in all esserthat have come inder my observation, and the very gratifying theets of its use inno, own family induces me to offer this testimony in its favor.

About three months since Mrs Evans was taken with a very severe cold, which it is short time settled on her breast, causing the mist distressing cough, pain in the breast, Se. The usual remedies were made use of, but ship constituted to grow worse, until it was deemed practically to call in the family physician, who automated her for some time without and apparent benefit. Finally through the persuasion of inends, we were induced to make a trial of "Shitmer's Cough Syrup." I procured a houte, and she commenced taking it on Sunday, and by Thursday was entirely relieved.
