Little Folks. A CHILD'S PRAYER.

Sweeter than the songs of thrushes, When the winds are low; Brighter than the spring-time blushes, Reddening out of snow. Were the voice and check so fair Of the little child at prayer.

Like a white lamb of the meadow, Climbing through the light; Like a priestess in the shadow Of the temple bright, Seemid she, saying, "Holy One, Thine, and not my will be done."

IT IS ONLY A CENT.

"Now, my little lad, don't spend that cent for candy.

"Why didn't my father give it to me?" "Certainly he did, but that is no reason why you should spend it. If you run over to the candy shop and buy a roll, in five minntes you will be no better off for having the money. Now save your money (and your health) Rand put it in a box."

"But it is only a cent."

"A hundred of them make a dollar, and if you never save the cents you will never be worth a dollar."

"But papa gave me this to enjoy it. I do not want to lay it up."

"Well, I will tell you how to enjoy it. Not by throwing it away for unwholesome sweetmeats; but keep it until you have six, and then go to the baker's and buy a nice loaf of bread-

"Why, what do I want with bread ? Mothcr gives me all I need."

Stop a moment, and I will tell you. A poor old widow lives down the alley below your house, and all she has to live upon is what kind neighbors bring in."

"Oh, I know who you mean. Old Widow Brown. Mother has sent me there a great many times."

"Well do you take your loaf of bread and get your mother to put a white napkin round it, and then carry it round to her house and say-"Here, Mrs. Brown; is a present from a little boy, will you please accept it."

"Well, I'll do it ! I know just what she will say. Shé will cry, and put her hands upon my head, say-"God bless you my little boy !" And I shall feel so happy! I wish I had the money now! But I won't spend a cent until I get it.

"Then you will, indeed, enjoy your money. It is more blessed," Jesus says, "to give than receive.'

ONLY ONE BRICK UPON ANOTHER.

Edwin was looking at a large building which they were putting up just opposite his father's house. He watched the workmen from day to day, as they carried up the bricks and mortar, and then placed them in their proper order.

His father said to him, "my son, you seem to be very much taken up with the bricklayers; pray what might you be thinking about? Have you any notion of learning the trade?"
