

The Markets.

MONDAY EVENING, Oct. 2. In Flour there is little or nothing doing, and buyers are holding off for lower prices; standard brands are nominally held at $8, but the demand is limited to a few small lots taken for home use within the range of $8a 8 50 for good retailing brands and extra— RYE Flour is also quiet but scarce, with a further small sale at $6 75 per bbl. CORN MEAL is stationary, and about 1000 bbls. old stock Penna. Meal sold, part at $3 75 and part on terms not public. GRAIN comes in slowly, and WHEAT meets with a limited demand for milling at above previous rates; some 5000a6000 bushels, mostly Southern, found buyers at 150a160 for fair to prime reds, and 135a142c for white. RYE is scarce at 115a118c. CORN is in moderate request, with further sales of 3000a4000 bu southern yellow, mostly at 82c for prime lots. OATS are lower, and about 4000 bushels southern old at 52c. WHISKEY—There is a steady demand for bbls. at 42c, and drudge at 40c; hds are scarce and are held at our highest prices.

BALTIMORE, Monday, Oct. 2. FLOUR AND MEAL.—We note a slightly improved feeling in the Flour market to-day.— Sales on late change of 600 bbls Howard Street brand at $7 25, and 1000 bbls do. at 7 37 1/2 bbl. The market close with holders generally asking the last named price.— City Mills held higher, but we are not aware of any sales. Rye Flour $7, and Corn Meal 37a45 1/2 bbl.

GRAIN AND SEEDS.—Grain in fair supply, but receipts not large. Wheat.—We note an advance of about 5 cents. About 13,000 bushels offered, and sales of good to prime white at 150a160c; choice do. 165c; good to prime red at 135a150c bushel. Inferior lots 2 to 15 cents less. Corn firm.—About 12,000 bushels offered; sales of white at 71a72 cents, yellow 73a75 cents, and mixed 69a70 cents bushel. Rye.—About 150 bushels offered, but no sales. We quote Maryland Rye at 112a115c, and Pennsylvania 125c bushel. Oats.—About 9000 bus offered; sales of Maryland at 48a51 cents, Virginia 52a53 cents, and Pennsylvania Oats 54 cents bushel.

WHISKEY.—We quote hds at 40 cents, and bbls at 41 cents per gallon.

Real Estate Sales.

FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.—The subscriber offers his FARM for sale, situated in Hampton township, Cumberland county, on the turnpike leading from Harrisburg to Carlisle, 4 miles from the former and 12 from the latter place. CONTAINING 128 ACRES and 96 PERCHES, strict measure, of first-rate limestone and black slate land, inferior to none in the county. Adjoining the Cumberland creek and lands of Dr. R. C. Young, John Sherrill, John Sherrill & Co. There are about 12 acres of Woodland and the remainder cleared and under good fence and in a high state of cultivation. There are a great many locust trees on the farm ready to be cut into posts. Also, a young orchard with different kinds of fruit. The improvements are a TWO STORY LOG HOUSE, weatherboarded with a Kitchen attached and cellar under them; a first rate BARN with other out buildings, a well with a never failing well with pump near the kitchen door. A further description is deemed unnecessary, as those who are desirous to purchase will view the property. Terms will be made known by the subscriber living on the premises. Aug. 23. DAVID MARTIN.

ASSIGNEE SALE.—ON FRIDAY, the 11th of October, 1864, by virtue of a voluntary deed of assignment by John Harshbarger and his wife Eliza, the subscriber will sell, on the above named day, on the premises, the following described tract of land and improvements, viz: A Tract of first rate LIME STONE LAND, containing 25 acres and 25 perches, more or less, situated in Silver Spring township, Cumberland county, about one mile and a half north of Kingsdown and the turnpike. The improvements are a first rate BARN, a DWELLING HOUSE, with a well, and a well of water near the house. The above described property is a very desirable one, and capitalists would do well to attend the sale to call upon the subscriber, who lives near Mechanicsburg, or on Mr. Waggoner, the miller, who has it rented. Either will show the property or describe particulars relating to the same, before the day of sale. Further description is deemed unnecessary, as the property and its advantages and location, will recommend itself to all who fall to see it. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock A. M. on said day, when the terms will be made known by the subscriber. Aug. 23, 1864. Assistance of John Harshbarger.

The election in the election district composed of the borough of Newville, and townships of Millin, Upper Frankford, and that part of New in township, not included in the Leesburg election district herein mentioned, and part of Upper Allen township, will be held at the Brick School House, in the borough of Newville.

The election in the election district composed of Hope township will be held at the New Brick School House in Newburg, in said township.

The election in the election district composed of the borough of Shippensburg, Shippensburg township, and that part of Southampton township not included in the Leesburg election district, will be held at the Council House, in the borough of Shippensburg.

And in and by an act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, passed the 20th day of July, 1839, it is thus provided: "That the qualified electors of parts of Newton and Southampton townships in the county of Cumberland, bordering the following lines and distances, viz: Beginning at the following corner line, thence along the line dividing the townships of Dickinson and Newton to the turnpike road, thence along said turnpike to Centre School House, on said turnpike, in Southampton township, thence to a point on the Walnut Bottom Road at Rebeck's, including Rebeck's Farm, thence in a straight direction to the Saw Mill of the heirs of George Clever, thence along Krysher's run to the Adams county line, thence along the line of Adams county to the place of beginning, be and the same is hereby declared a new and separate election district, the election to be held at the public house of W. M. Maxwell in Leesburg, So thampton township.

Notice is Hereby Given.

That every person, excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or incorporated district, whether a constitutional officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive, or judicial departments of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or of any incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the Select or Common Council of any city, or commissioner or any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector, or clerk of any elections of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of such election shall be eligible to be then voted for.

And the said act of Assembly, entitled an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth, passed July 20, 1839, further provides as follows, to wit: "That the inspectors and judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district to which they respectively belong, before 9 o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday of October, and each of said inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district. In case the voter who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector, shall not attend on the day of the election, the person who shall have received the highest number of votes shall be appointed as a substitute for the inspector who shall not attend."

Proclamation for the General Election to be held on the second Tuesday of October next.

AN ACT, For the suppression of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, as a beverage. Whereas, All laws to be efficient should have the approbation and sanction of the people: And whereas, It is represented that a large number, if not a majority of the citizens of this Commonwealth, are deeply impressed with the necessity of the passage of a Prohibitory Liquor Law:

And whereas, It is impossible to obtain a certain indication of popular sentiment relating thereto by means of petitions and remonstrances; Therefore, Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the qualified voters of this Commonwealth are hereby authorized at the places for holding the general elections in their respective wards, boroughs and townships, on the second TUESDAY of October next, to vote for and against a law which shall entirely prohibit by proper and constitutional regulations and penalties, the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, except for medical, sacramental, mechanical and artistic purposes.

Sec. 2. That the officers authorized by law to hold elections in each ward, borough and township, of this Commonwealth, are hereby directed and required at the place fixed by law, in the several districts for the holding of the general elections in said districts, on the second Tuesday of October next, when they shall be organized as an election board, to receive from each qualified voter of their said districts a ticket written or printed on the outside "Prohibitory Liquor Law," and the tickets in favor of the proposed law shall contain in the inside the words, "For a Prohibitory Liquor Law," and those opposed to the proposed law shall contain in the inside the words "Against the Prohibitory Liquor Law," which votes shall be counted and returned to the Court House of the counties or city in which the said election shall be held, on the following Friday by the return-judges, who shall count-up and certify all the votes polled in said county or city, to the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth at Harrisburg, directed and transmitted in the same manner, the votes for Governor are required to be directed and transmitted, and the said Secretary shall on the third Friday of January next ensuing, communicate the said returns to the Legislature, to be opened and counted in the same manner the votes for Governor are opened and counted, and considered as the prayer of the voters of this Commonwealth relative to a Prohibitory Liquor Law.

Sec. 3. That all the election laws of the State prescribing the hours of opening closing the polls, the reception of votes, the punishment for illegal voting, the defraying the expenses of publication, and holding of the general elections and return of the same, and all other matters incident thereto, be and the same are declared applicable to the election above authorized.

Sec. 4. That it shall be the duties of the Sheriffs of the several counties of this Commonwealth to insert a copy of this act in the proclamation for the general election to be held on the second Tuesday of October next.

E. B. CHASE, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

M. MCASLIN, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

WM. BIGLER, Sheriff of the County of Cumberland.

J. JOSEPH McDARMOND, Sheriff of the County of Carlisle.

And the Judges of the respective districts aforesaid, are by the said act required to meet at the Court House, in the borough of Carlisle, on the third day after the said day of election, being Friday the 13th day of October, thenceforward there to perform the things required of them by law.

The return judges of the Congressional district will meet in the Court House in the borough of Carlisle, on Tuesday the 17th day of October, then and there to perform the duties required of them by law.

Given under my hand, at Carlisle, this 1st day of September, A. D. 1854.

J. JOSEPH McDARMOND, Sheriff of the County of Carlisle.
