SUMMARY OF NEWS.

Know Nothing Victories—Railroad Accidents—Agricultural Fairs—Steamboat Burning—Boiler Explosion, &c.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 4.
An old man whose land was crossed by the Providence and Worcester railway, being discontented with the price allowed him by the Commissioners, yesterday erected a frame shanty, completely covering both tracks of the road, placed a keg of powder inside, and nailed himself within, swore that if the trains attempted to run through the building, he would blow all to atoms. The passage of the trains being thus obstructed for two hours a mob of a thousand persons gathered, tore down the house, and dragged the man to jail. Know Nothing victories have occurred in local elections held in Portsmouth, Va., for a magistrate, and in Wilmington, Del., for election officers.

THURSDAY, Oct. 5.
On Friday last, near Michigan city, a collision occurred on the Michigan Central Railroad, between a passenger train and a wood train, in which the baggage-master was dangerously injured and four others badly bruised, the engine and cars being considerably shattered. We have further and far worse accounts of the effects of the recent dreadful tornado on the coast of Texas. Many vessels have been beached or wrecked, and, in not a few instances, all on board perished, and on shore several lives were lost. At Matagorda the destruction was terrific, most of the buildings in the town being either prostrated or unroofed. A Know Nothing convention, composed of 700 delegates, met in New York yesterday, and will probably continue in session several days. The steamship Arctic now fifteen days out from Liverpool, has not yet arrived, and fears are excited that some accident has happened to her.

FRIDAY, Oct. 6.
Judge Pollock, the Whig candidate for Governor, arrived in Philadelphia on Wednesday, and delivered a speech last evening at a meeting in Spring Garden. The number of emigrants who arrived at New York from foreign countries during the month of September was 28,356. County Agricultural Fairs took place yesterday at Reading and Allentown, each of which drew immense crowds. The yellow fever cases in Savannah and Charleston have now got down two and three a day. A dreadful accident occurred on the railroad near Lynchburg, Va., yesterday. Just as the train was approaching the bridge, it was discovered that the draw was up, and the locomotive dashed over. There were three men killed, all of whom were hands connected with the train. The passengers suffered no injury.

SATURDAY, Oct. 7.
A dispatch from Danville, Pa., says that about eight o'clock yesterday morning, one of the boilers of the Montour Iron Works, at that place, exploded with tremendous force, doing great damage, and causing the death of several persons. The fragments of the boiler were blown to a distance of nearly one hundred feet, destroying, in its course, a frame dwelling and a stable in the rear of the mill house, in the ruins of which several persons were buried. The family of John Farley lived up stairs, and one of his two children was instantly killed, and the other, a little girl, was dangerously if not fatally wounded. In the lower story three children of Barney McGuire were hurt. McGuire and Peter Monaghan, who were also in the house, were somewhat injured. A boy named Cha's Search has died of injuries received, and John Priest, John Dessinger, John Adams, Alexander Wands, Michael Levy, Isaac Hines, William Butler, and Joseph Shuggart are badly wounded and scalded, some seriously. Robert Woods, Bryan Dennis, John Miller, and Samuel Deity are slightly hurt. It is apprehended that others may be buried beneath the ruins, and persons are actively engaged in searching. The boiler, it is stated, was empty of water, which fact, if correct, explains the accident. On Thursday night, about 7 o'clock, a man named William Casey, a resident of Millville, N. J., whilst returning to his home, from Philadelphia, on foot, and within one mile of Millville, was attacked by two men, shot down and robbed, and left lying on the road, where he was found some time afterwards. His wound is considered mortal. He says he thinks the persons who attacked him were Frenchmen. One, he says, had on a cap, and the other a low hat.

MONDAY, Oct. 9.
A New York Know Nothing State Convention has been held in New York city, and nominated for Governor Daniel Ullman, who is got on any other ticket. He received 257 votes, though the convention was composed of 953 members. The President refused to receive the votes cast for the Whig candidate, Myron H. Clark, in consequence of which his friends left the convention, declaring their intention not to respect the issue of the vote. The Know Nothing party have carried the charter election at La Salle, Ill. Another railroad conspiracy to rob and murder, similar to the famous case on the Michigan Central Road, has been detected on the Southern Michigan Railroad, and one of the conspirators, named McDonald, has been convicted in Lenawee county, Michigan, and sentenced to imprisonment for life. The Catwissa Railroad was opened formally to Milton, on Friday, by an excursion and celebration at the latter place. The road is now finished and in operation. A murder at Covington, Ky., of a little boy, by a German, for calling him "an old Dutchman," has caused a great excitement there, and threats were made of mobbing the jail where the German was confined.

TUESDAY, Oct. 9.
The steamer E. K. Collins, which left Detroit last night with a large number of passengers from Sault Ste Marie for Cleveland, took fire near Malden, on the Canada shore, and was soon completely enveloped in flames. Great consternation seized the passengers, most of whom were aroused from their sleep by the dreadful calamity. Many plunged into the water and were drowned, while others perished amid the flames. Twenty-three persons were either drowned or burnt. Gov. Ligon, of Maryland, has appointed the 23rd of November as a day of thanksgiving. Two weeks later news from Fort Laramie received at the War Department, states that thirty-one of the troops were killed by the Indians in the late fight. No subsequent attack had been made on the Fort. Wm. Darby, the American Statistician and Geographer, died in Washington city last night. The American party of Delaware have nominated for Governor Peter P. Cusey, and for Congress D. Callum. The trial of Dr. Graham, at New York for the murder of Col. Loring, took a singular turn yesterday. Eleven of the jurors signed and presented to the Court a petition asking to be discharged, on the ground that one of the jurors was a relative of the prisoner's wife. The Court after consultation decided that the charge against the juror had not been presented in a proper form, and therefore could not be considered as a fact, and that even if it were, it was doubtful whether the Court had the power to discharge the juror, and put Dr. Graham again on his trial. The counsel for the defence, however, said that Dr. Graham had something more at stake than his life, and that it was the request of the prisoner and his wife that the juror alluded to should be discharged, and that the trial should, by consent, proceed before the other eleven jurors. This was assented to by the District Attorney, and a formal agreement to that effect was drawn up and signed by the opposing counsel and the prisoner. The juror was then withdrawn.

PHILADELPHIA.
Pollock and Bigler on the Stump—Social Courtroom—Confusion of Tickets, &c.
Gov. Bigler and Hon. James Pollock, the rival candidates for Governor, were both in the city last week, each delivering addresses at different meetings. At the Whig mass meeting in Spring Garden, on Thursday evening, Judge Pollock spoke with great force and effect, and was immensely cheered by his delighted audience. After touching other points, he alluded briefly to the Common School Fund. He said he was an advocate of universal education, and had no faith in ignorance, as he was satisfied that none but moral, virtuous people could advocate the principles of freedom. He was in favor of educating all children alike—the high and the low, the rich and the poor, the black and white. Let all meet on the same floor, and let us educate them to be patriots and men—not as sectarians and bigots. He was in favor of the school fund remaining undivided, and was opposed to any appropriation, except such as was for elevating the character of our youth. He was in favor of every man worshipping his God in accordance with his own will; in favor of freedom of conscience, not only in this country, but everywhere under the wide canopy of the heavens. He concluded his remarks by an eloquent appeal in behalf of religious freedom, and called upon them to act freely and independently, as men who loved and revered their country. Said he, "our religion should be this—nothing above it—our country, your country—first—last—forever." [Great applause.] It is said that Messrs. Pollock and Bigler were present together at a private supper on Wednesday evening, and exchanged courtesies as gentlemen should, no matter what their differences in politics. The mixture of local tickets in this city is beyond comprehension. The lucky ones will be known in time to send you next week. The paintings known as the Peale Gallery were sold at auction on Friday. The first choice was taken by Edward Ingersoll, who bid 360 each. He selected the original portrait of Franklin, and the full length portrait of Washington, taken after the battle of Trenton, paying 360 each. The portraits of Martha Washington, Baron Cuvier, Mozart, Col. Washington, Charles Wilson Peale, Dr. John D. Godman and an Albinus, together with the stair case, the naval battle between the Bon Homme Richard and Scarpis, were taken by Mr. Lewis H. Newbold, at $175 each. The portraits of Generals La Fayette and Wayne were bought by Mr. Wayne for $165 each. The other pictures were sold to other parties at various prices, some being as low as twenty dollars. On Sunday afternoon Judge Pollock, by invitation, attended the Sabbath School of Dr. Wylie's Presbyterian church, and delivered an interesting address to the scholars. The interments in the city for the week ending Saturday were only 210—including 6 cases of cholera. This is 22 less than last week.

NEW YORK.
Murder Trial—New Steam Frigate—State Fair—Know Nothing Doings, &c.
New York, Oct. 9.
The trial of Dr. Graham for killing Col. Loring excites much interest. The whole of Wednesday was exhausted in the effort to procure a jury. The wife of the prisoner was in court, attended by several lady acquaintances. As she passed in the spectators' nearly all rose, as a mark of respect. The lobbies and galleries were all crowded. Graham looks very pale and sickly, and exhibits ample evidence externally of the care and anxiety within. The new U. S. steam frigate, to be built at this port, and to be named "Niagara," is to be larger than the rest, and it is said, the largest ship ever built in this country. Her extreme length will be 345 feet; depth of hold 31 feet; breadth of beam 55 feet; draught when loaded 22 feet 9 inches; displacement 5,500 tons. She has been modeled by and will be built under the superintendence of Mr. George Steers, who acquired so high a reputation by building the famous yacht which took the prize at the London World's Fair. The weather was very unpropitious for the opening of the Agricultural Fair, Wednesday, in Hamilton square. The attendance of visitors was very sparse. The show of neat cattle is very creditable. Orange, Greene, Dutchess, Columbia and Rensselaer counties are the principal contributors. A herd of Ayrshire cattle from Jefferson, attract much attention. The sheep exhibition is large, but the horses do not make as good a show as was expected. Two pickpockets were arrested at the Cuttle Show on Thursday, and by the order of the Chief they were put at once on exhibition. They were each provided with a large placard, attached with a string around their neck, labelled "pickpockets." The rogues were then walked around the Fair, under an escort of policemen, in order that the people present might be gratified with the sight of live pickpockets. This novel exhibition caused considerable excitement, and hundreds of people followed after them. They were kept on exhibition, in that manner, for several hours.

The Know Nothings, who have been in State convention here for some days, have finally announced the nomination of Daniel Ullman, Esq., as their candidate for the governorship of New York. Mr. U. is an eminent "Silver Grey" whig politician. It was also resolved to support James W. Barker for mayor of this city. Mr. Ullman has accepted the nomination, and pledged himself, if elected, to carry out the principles of the order. He received 257 votes out of 482. A large number of the members left before the nomination was made. This is shown from the fact that only 482 votes were cast, while the Council opened with 953 members. The session is said to have been more bores, terms than any other that has ever been assembled in this city. These nominations make the fourth State ticket now in the field, and may lessen the chances of the Whigs carrying the State.

SHEPHERD OF THE VALLEY.—This quondam Roman Catholic journal, published at St. Louis, being defunct, the materials have been purchased by the members of the order of "Know-Nothings," who now issue therewith a paper called "the True Shepherd of the Valley, or the St. Louis Know-Nothing." It is edited by a Protestant clergyman, the Rev. Dr. J. H. High, and a Mr. J. Gilman.

BANKING CAPITAL.—The Harrisburg papers contain applications to be made to the next Legislature of that state for thirty-three new banks, covering a capital of nearly fifteen millions of dollars.

ARRIVAL OF STEAMER CANADA.

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Advance in Breadstuffs—Rumored Pacific Propositions—The Crimea Expedition—Bombardment of Odessa—Decision of the Allies regarding the attack on Sebastopol.

New York, Oct. 6.—The steamer Canada arrived at her wharf at 6 o'clock this morning, bringing dates from Liverpool to the 23rd ult. The steamer Arctic sailed on the 20th, and the Canada brings no further tidings of her.

EASTERN AFFAIRS.
The Crimea expedition had landed safely, and was marching on Sebastopol. The French and English governments had announced officially that 58,000 men had landed without opposition at Enpacorio, and immediately marched upon Sebastopol. Also, that a portion of the transport ships had left and gone to Varna for 14,000 more of the French troops.

There was a rumor, however, that no attack would be made on Sebastopol this winter. The Russian fleet had again run into Sebastopol on seeing a part of the allied fleet off that port.

A report prevailed at Constantinople that the Czar had drawn up a peace proposition. Also, that the Czar had assented to the proposed terms of the four powers; that he was willing to entertain an armistice, and that a steamer had been despatched to postpone the landing of the Crimea expedition; but at last advices said steamer had not reached the fleet. There were doubts, however, of this rumor and it wanted confirmation before being entitled to much consequence.

There was a current report that the batteries of Odessa had again been bombarded. At last accounts the evacuation of Wallachia and Moldavia was complete. The Russian rear guard had crossed the Pruth.

It has been decided that neither Sweden nor Croatia shall be a third of this season. The French Baltic fleet returns to France.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.
No result to the Austro-Prussian negotiations are expected until the capture of Sebastopol. Prince Menschikoff has exhausted every means to make Sebastopol impregnable. The approaches are guarded by forts, and a portion of the roads mined. A proclamation has been issued preparing the citizens for resistance to the last extremity. If the enemy should obtain the victory, he says, "then let the whole store of powder go with him and them into the air." Other accounts say that the Russian works are to be extended, to be successfully maintained, and from the nature of the soil and entrenchments just constructed on the land side cannot but be formidable.

GEORGIA.
Schamyl has entered the northern part of Georgia with 15,000 men and advanced to the Kours. The Russians were taken completely by surprise, and retreated, after a very feeble resistance, into the mountains. Schamyl carried off a great quantity of booty and made some prisoners of high rank. These movements have had the effect to compel the Russians to relinquish the idea of the conquest of Turkish Armenia.

SPAIN.
The advices from Madrid represent Spain as quiet and progressing fairly under the new government. There had been no further outbreaks. Mr. Sola's letter is viewed with contempt. No further news from him.

ENGLAND.
The weather throughout England was very favorable and an abundant harvest gathered. The cholera was gradually subsiding. No general news of moment.

FRANCE.
Nothing of special importance. All was quiet. Abundant crops have been procured.

AUSTRIA AND PRUSSIA.
Austria and Prussia still maintain the same attitude towards Russia and the Allied Powers. The crops and harvest were abundant in Ireland.

THE MARKETS.
BREADSTUFFS.—There has been a good consumptive demand for Wheat and Flour throughout the week, and the stock here has become somewhat reduced. Wheat has advanced about 3d per lb.; Flour is 6d 1/2s per bbl., and Indian Corn is in fair request at 1s 6d per quarter advance.

MURDER IN BALTIMORE.—The Baltimore Sun notices a very shocking murder of a Mrs. Noble, residing about five and a half miles from Baltimore, near the Philadelphia road.

Since last Sunday, a Mrs. Noble, residing in the above vicinity, on a little farm with her husband and three children, was missing, and the children becoming somewhat alarmed at the absence of their mother, acquainted the neighbors of the fact, when Justice Lewis Frankinberger was informed of the case. He immediately set to work for the purpose of discovering the missing woman. The body of the woman, mutilated in a large way, when which had been placed a large stone, and across the top a plank. A large number of persons were in search of the murderer, who, it is alleged, is the husband of the unfortunate woman. His name is Frederick Noble, and when last seen was walking along the road conducting to Baltimore, having a pack bundle on his back.

PREACHING AND PRACTICE.—The citizens of Reading, Pa., are to be edified this week by a Miss Bradley, who proposes to lecture there on the elevation of woman, &c. She delivers four lectures and then, proposes to elevate herself by making a balloon ascension from the Fair Grounds.
