

Little Folks.

THE CHILD AND ITS ECHO.

Little Charles knew nothing of an echo. Once while playing by himself in a field he cried out, "Ho! hop!" and immediately a voice from a little wood close by repeated, "Ho! hop!"

Being surprised at this, he called out, "who are you?" the same voice replied, "who are you?" On this he cried out you are a stupid fellow! that was of course the answer.

At this, Charles being much displeased began to call all the abusive names he could think of, and these same expressions all seemed to come back to him. "I never met with such insolence," he muttered; but I'll revenge myself; and he ran up and down among the trees, trying to find out the supposed offender, but he could see nobody. Vexed and disappointed he hastened home, and told his mother that a bad boy had hidden himself in the wood, and called him all sorts of names. His mother smiled and shook her head.

"Now you have betrayed and complained of yourself, Charles; for you must know you heard nothing but your own words repeated. As you have often seen your face reflected in the water, so have you heard your own voice echoed. Had you called kind words, kind words would have been returned to you; and I may also observe, it is generally the case that the behaviour we meet from others is but an echo to our own. If we are friendly in our manner, people are disposed to be kind to us; but if we are rude and uncivil, we cannot expect better treatment ourselves."

WHERE THERE IS A WILL THERE IS A WAY.

This proverb was forcibly illustrated a short time since, by an Irish boy about ten years old, belonging to one of the schools of Salem, Massachusetts.

The lad had the misfortune to be fatherless, and, as in many similar cases, it had been found hard work for the mother to get along with the support of her family. Yet she was enabled to allow her son to avail himself of the privileges of our school system, and to furnish him, for the most part, with the requisite books.

A little while ago, however, the boy wanted a geography, and had not the wherewith to buy it, and the deprivation troubled him sorely. He went to bed at night with a heavy heart, and lay awake a long time thinking as to what should be done.

On awakening in the morning, he found a deep snow had fallen, and the cold wind was blowing furiously. Catching the idea, "that it is an ill wind that blows nobody good," he got up, ran to a neighbor's house, and offered his services to clear a path about the premises, which offer was accepted.

When the work was completed, the employer asked the boy's price for the labor. "I don't know what it is worth," replied the boy, "but I want a geography to study in at school."

The cost of the book was ascertained, the money paid, and at the moment of commencing the exercises the boy was in his seat, industriously engaged in poring over his new geography, for the lessons of the day.

This same boy appeared the first in his class, at the recent examination, and will without doubt, be promoted to the grammar school, for which he showed himself well fitted.

In the vocabulary of this scholar, no such word as "fail" is known, and he will be sure to succeed over all hindrances. He has "the will," and he will find "the way" to learn.

"Boys do you hear that!" Take it then all of you for an example.—Salem Gazette.

Publications.

VOLUME TEN OF THE "SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN" commences on the 16th of September. It is chiefly devoted to the advancement of the interests of MECHANICS, INVENTORS, MANUFACTURERS and ENGINEERS, and is edited by men practically acquainted in the arts and sciences. Probably no other Journal of the same character is so extensively circulated, or so generally esteemed for its practical ability. Nearly all the valuable patents which issue weekly from the Patent Office are illustrated with Engravings, and the claims of all the Patents are published regularly in its columns as they are issued, thus making it a perfect SCIENTIFIC and PRACTICAL Encyclopedia of information upon the subjects of Mechanical Improvements, Chemistry, Engineering and the Sciences generally. It is published weekly in quarto form suitable for binding, and each volume contains four hundred and sixteen pages, with a full and complete Index. Its circulation on the last Volume exceeded 23,000 copies per week, and the practical receipts in one volume are worth to any family much more than the price of the volume.

The following Cash Patrons are offered by the Publishers for the fourteen largest lists of subscribers sent in by the 1st of January, 1855: $100 will be given for the first list; $75 for the second; $50 for the third; $50 for the fourth; $50 for the fifth; $45 for the sixth; $45 for the seventh; $35 for the eighth; $30 for the ninth; $25 for the tenth; $20 for the eleventh; $15 for the twelfth; $10 for the thirteenth; $10 for the fourteenth. IMPORTANT WORK ON PENNSYLVANIA. No Pennsylvanian should be without it. Eight thousand copies sold. Every Farmer and every citizen should have a copy. Bovey's Pennsylvanian, or the Farmer's and Citizen's Guide, containing the most complete and accurate information upon the improvements, Resources and Agriculture, popularly described. Illustrated with over 200 beautiful Engravings, and accompanied by Barnes' Large Map of the State, carefully colored. Eighth Edition, Revised, Corrected and Improved. One Volume, 8vo., with over 500 pages and handsomely bound. Sent by mail, $1.00 free of expense.

It is impracticable in so short a space as this to give an adequate idea of the variety of subject, and the extent of research which this Volume contains. The whole field has been carefully explored. And no department however intricate has been left out, but treated until the subject has been made perfectly clear and intelligible to the simplest mind; indeed one of the great peculiarities of the Book is its freedom from dry detail, and statistics, (so common to works of this character), which no doubt is one of the causes of its very great popularity. The Agriculture of the State is a prominent topic in the work, and all its parts receives his earnest attention, not merely pointing out the blunders in the common teaching and finding how the greatest advantage can be gained from the best sources. Every Farmer should read and study his remarks, and also those who depend on the Farmer for the necessities of life, should understand something of the means by which those necessities are produced. Cities, Towns and Villages are described and dwelt upon, and the characteristics of the people pointed out, and the various improvements in progress or projected noticed;—one of the deeply interesting sketches in the work is that on the Wyoming Valley; the vivid and stirring interest thrown around that section, and dwelt upon with beautiful pathos and feeling, and the leading events in the tragic part enacted there in revolutionary times, pointed out by a master hand. Added to this is Campbell's cure of the Cholera of Wyoming, the merit of which it is unnecessary to speak about.

A vivid and truthful description of the grand and majestic Scenery of the Old Keystone State. It is also a prominent subject in the Volume. Nothing can exceed the grandeur and beauty of Pennsylvania's Romantic Hills, and well does the author understand the subject with which he deals. The Press throughout the State have, with united voice, pronounced it the Best Popular Book ever written on the State, and without a single exception have recommended it as the highest treatise. The many flattering notices bestowed upon it, and the success which it has met with, are all attested by the fact that it has been published, and which attests its popularity, and is undoubtedly the only correct one issued.

The price of the Book is placed at the lowest rate for which it could be manufactured, and the execution of it in every respect is the highest. It is a remarkably cheap work; but that accompanying it, the publisher has no hesitation in pronouncing it the cheapest Book published. The Publisher has gone to great expense in publishing the Book in proper style. The engravings are beautifully executed; the type large and clear; and the paper of a fine texture, and of the best quality. The work is tasteful and durable, and having done his part well, he submits the work to the examination of the people, confidently recommending it to the attention of those interested in the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Reading Railroad Company, Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company, Norristown and other railroads in the State, in the Schuylkill and Lehigh Navigation Company, in the Lehigh and all other canal Companies, throughout Pennsylvania, to all engaged in mining and manufacturing Coal and Iron, to every Farmer and every citizen of the great State of Pennsylvania, he submits this splendid volume, and respectfully solicits their patronage. Agents will call upon the citizens for their subscription, and in cases where no agent is called, any person wishing it, will have it sent free of expense, by remitting the amount to the Publisher.

Medicines.

TOOTH WASH.—Beautiful White Tooth Gums and a Sweet Breath.—All who are desirous of obtaining these benefits should use ZELMAN'S CELEBRATED TOOTH WASH. This delicious article combined with many beautiful essences that it has now become a standard favorite with the citizens of New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore. Dentists prescribe it in their practice most successfully, and from every source the most flattering laudations are awarded it.

Inflamed and bleeding gums are immediately cured by its use; its action upon them is mild, soothing and refreshing. It cleanses the teeth thoroughly, that they are made to rival pearl in whiteness, and diffuses through the mouth such a delightful freshness that the breath is rendered exquisitely sweet. It dissolves those impurities which are the cause of bad breath, and in consequence, when these are removed the sweet mucus always remains sound. Read the following from Dr. J. A. Carman: "I have used your Tooth Wash for some time, and find it the most effectual Dentifrice in use, and therefore recommend it to the public."

Dr. J. A. CARMAN, Dentist, Harrisburg, Pa.

Read the following testimony: "Mr. ZELMAN.—Dear Sir: I have fully tested the merits of your valuable Tooth Wash, and can, without hesitation, recommend it to my brethren, and to the public, as a most valuable article. I have used it for more than six years. It cleanses the Teeth, soothes and hardens irritated Gums, and imparts a delicious fragrance to the Breath. For the months of those who make use of it, however, it will certainly speak for itself."

Geo. P. SCHWELZ, Surgeon Dentist, 270, South Tenth st., Philadelphia.

It is used and recommended by eminent Dentists in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and all cities where it has been introduced. All should give it a trial.
