HERALD AND EXPOSITOR

WEST PENNSBORO' TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Pursuant to a notice given, the Teachers of West Pennsboro township met, in special meeting, in the Plainfield School House, on Saturday the — inst., and were called to order by the nomination of Ex-Governor Joseph Ritner, President, and Jas. McKechnan, Secretary.

The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Mr. Thos. W. Maurice, Chairman of the Select Committee to prepare a Constitution reported. The report after some discussion was adopted. The "Institute" then proceeded to elect permanent officers.

After balloting, the following officers were declared unanimously elected.

President—JOSEPH RITNER. Vice President—Philip Zeigler. Secretary—James McKechnan. Treasurer—Henry Bear.

By a constitutional provision, the following persons constitute an Executive Committee, viz: Philip Zeigler, Jas. McKechnan, and Henry Bear.

Upon taking the chair, the President briefly but ably addressed the meeting. He strongly urged the importance of Teachers' organizations, and the necessity of punctual attendance to secure any benefit. He tho't it incumbent upon each teacher present, to manifest an interest by giving his experience and opinion on educational subjects, at each meeting, &c., &c.

Mr. Edwin James read an interesting and instructive Essay on "Teaching the Alphabet."

Mr. Thos. W. Maurice followed by reading a very able and useful Essay on "School Discipline," which was prefaced by some very handsome introductory remarks, stating that he merely gave his own method and experience. He strongly urged the abolition of the "Rod Discipline," and the adoption of the "Monitor's System" by book. This Essay was well received.

Mr. James McKechnan addressed the meeting on the advantages arising from Teachers' Institutes, showing the relative benefits to teachers and parents; calling upon the public for their approbation and generous co-operation.

On motion of Mr. James— Resolved. That every teacher in the township read an Essay on some Educational subject at next meeting. Adopted.

On motion Resolved. That a subject be selected for discussion at next meeting. Whereupon the following was unanimously adopted. "Should the 'rod discipline' be abolished from our schools?"

The Executive Committee then announced that Mr. F. M. L. Gillean was selected to deliver a Lecture at the next meeting.

On motion by Mr. Maurice, Resolved. That the minutes of this meeting be published by request in the "Carlisle Herald" and "American Democrat." The Institute then adjourned to meet at Palmstown School House, on Saturday-Nov. 18, at 1 P. M. (Signed by the officers.)

THE QUITMAN GUARDS.

We were not a little amused a few days ago in reading an article in a certain paper published in Mechanicsburg, whose head is "engraved with a hoe," headed "Military," in which the Editor gives vent to his mortified sensibilities in reference to the Quitman Guards, by saying they did not leave town in a very military style, &c.

Now we do think that talking of style comes with most decided poor grace from an Editor, who prints his news on paper made of ropes and straw, and so completely daubed with ink, that nine-tenths of the articles cannot be read at all. It was with the greatest difficulty that we read the one to which we refer. But taking advantage of a clear day, we were successful.

He says a "little more drill gentlemen."— We say a little more good sense, and we are sure the Editor will quit a business, the duties of which he is no more qualified to discharge than the braying urchin on the public squares of Philadelphia, who cry out Leggo! Leggo!!

A SERGEANT.

Churchtown, Nov., 1854.

BARNUM OUTDONE.—The Cardinal-Vicar of Rome has issued an edict in which, after attributing the Cholera to the sins of the Romans, he directs that the finger of St. Peter, the arm of St. Roc, the heart of St. Charles, and other relics, shall be exposed to the adoration of the faithful, in order to advert the wrath of the Almighty.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

Another Terrible Rail Road Accident—Destructive Fires—Illness of Mrs. Hamilton.

FRIDAY, Nov. 3. A large fire broke out at Lockport, N. Y., yesterday. A despatch from New Orleans says the fever still exists there, and advises strangers to stay away from the city until the disease is dispelled. The Coroner is investigating into the circumstances connected with the late terrible accident on the Great Western Railway in Canada. The evidence is very contradictory as to the causes. The citizens of Washington have subscribed a handsome amount for the erection of a monument to Stewart Holland, who died so bravely while firing the signal gun on board the last Arctic.

SATURDAY, Nov. 4. The steamship Arabia arrived at New York yesterday, with Liverpool advices to the 21st ult. the details of which are given in another column. Another vessel has returned to New Foundland from an unsuccessful search of the boats containing survivors of the Arctic. A despatch from Chicago says, the passenger train for Rock Island, which left Chicago at 11 o'clock, on Wednesday night, met with a most frightful accident from the breaking of an axle of an engine, the result of running over a horse upon the track. The engine and a portion of all the cars were thrown with great violence from the track, breaking the ribs of the engine, and killing or wounding and scalding some thirty to forty passengers. It appears that when the engine was thrown off the track the two forward passenger cars were hurled on top of it, and the steam escaping was driving with tremendous force through the dense mass of human beings packed closely amongst the wrecks of the cars. The citizens of Joliet, the nearest town, rendered all the assistance in their power to the wounded. A great fire broke out on the evening of the 2d at Lockport, N. Y. in the Jennings Hotel, and consumed property to the amount of $200,000. Among the buildings burned were the Methodist and Congregational churches.

Monday, Nov. 6. Capt. Gibson, whose imprisonment in Dutch India has occasioned so much difficulty with Holland, arrived in Washington on Saturday. Eight more deaths by the shocking disaster on the Rock Island Railroad and twenty-five others dangerously wounded. Among the dead are the wife and two children of W. C. Laughlin, of Gettysburg. A horrible murder was committed in the lower section of Philadelphia yesterday, a mother having killed her two children. She was arrested and lodged in prison. Others are implicated who have not yet been arrested. In Baltimore on Saturday night, the manufacturing department Kuabe, Gachle & Co's Piano establishment in Eutaw street, was destroyed by fire with an immense stock of unfinished work estimated at $60,000. The Eutaw House was in great danger but was saved.

Tuesday, Nov. 7. A despatch from Washington yesterday says that the venerable widow of Alexandria Hamilton is seriously ill and not expected to recover. She is ninety six years old. Gov. Seymour, of N. Y. has authorized the Albany Atlas to pronounce the story that he agreed to pardon Dr. Graham, recently convicted for the murder of Col. Loring, false. Edward D. Ingraham, commissioner under the fugitive slave law, died in Philadelphia on Sunday. The offerings of Beef Cattle in the Baltimore market on Monday, was 2500 head, of which one thousand were driven north, and the balance sold from $2.75 to $4.00 on the hoof, and averaging $3.25 gross. Hogs sold at from 5.50 to 6.25. The Canadian Government has appointed a commission to inquire into the recent accident on the Great Western Railroad.

A STARTLING STATEMENT.—Last Sabbath evening the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher delivered a sermon on the recent disaster to the steamship Arctic, and in the course of his remarks he stated on the authority of individuals deeply interested, that during the past twelvemonth more than four thousand American vessels, including those on the lakes and rivers, have been lost. During the same length of time, the number of vessels lost throughout the world was ten thousand! Up to the year 1850, the average number of vessels lost all over the world, averaged 3,000 a year. The amount of insurance paid by the Marine Insurance Companies of New York, last year amounted to twelve millions. The loss on land, by railroads and otherwise, amounted to eighteen millions making the total loss by sea and land, to be thirty millions of dollars!

PHILADELPHIA.

The Beale Case—Shocking Murders—Monetary Crisis, &c.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6. The conviction of Dr. Beale was noticed last week and the main features of the trial detailed, but the end thereof is not yet. No case tried in this city for years has excited an equal degree of interest. The finding of the jury in the case has been quite freely advertised upon, and several of the newspapers have made it the subject of their "leaders," some of them approving, while the Bulletin and other papers severely denounce it. The community is warmly interested and people are taking sides for and against the accused with great earnestness. It is said that the lady friends of Miss Mudge are preparing a suitable testimonial as a demonstration of their regard for the moral courage she has displayed in the affair. The public interest in the matter has also been greatly enhanced by the rather startling facts since brought to light relating to the conduct of the jury. On Friday the hearing of the argument in favour of a new trial, when David Paul Brown, counsel of Dr. Beale, presented an array of testimony which excited no little surprise and will doubtless tend to considerable change of opinion on the part of the public. A number of the affidavits were presented by Mr. Brown making very serious allegations against the jury. Benj. H Brewster and Henry J. Horn, members of the Bar, who it appears were occupying a room adjoining the jury room while the jury were deliberating upon the verdict, testified that they heard noise and singing in the jury room, such as the Star Spangled Banner, laughing, telling of anecdotes, and a noise like that of a menagerie, something between that made by a jackass and a lion, and other conduct unbecoming a jury. The landlord of the house testified that liquors of various kinds were called for and received by the jurors. Another person testified to a conversation had with one of the jurors, since the trial, in which he said that Beale was a d-d rascal and deserved all he got, and that they would not have recommended him to mercy only that he had a large family and one of the jurors would not have agreed without it, &c. The recital of this testimony made a deep impression on the crowded audience at least if not upon the court, and Mr. Brown dwelt upon it with great force and eloquence. Mr. Reed, District Attorney, is to follow, after which the decision of the Judges will be given.

The city police are engaged in endeavoring to investigate a series of mysterious murders that have been committed in the upper section of the city. A woman has been arrested, charged with the murder of two of her own illegitimate children, and an Irishman has also been arrested, implicated in the same affair, which occurred some time since. The bodies of the victims have not yet been found. The name of the miserable woman is Pamela Myers alias Snyder. She confessed her unnatural crimes to Mayor Conrad, and said she had killed in succession five children as soon as they were born. Two were by one father and three by another. The last child was born five days since, and she made way with it like the others, by throwing it into the "sink." The first information of these most revolting crimes was communicated to the Mayor in an anonymous letter, when steps were immediately taken to bring the woman to justice. The murders were committed in Nicetown, in the upper section of the consolidated city. The woman has never been married. Saturday was an important day to the commercial and money men in this city, for the reason a large amount of eight months' paper fell due. The crisis, however was bravely and successfully met, and about $4,000,000 were paid into the banks. The money market will no doubt become much easier.

TAKE THE NEWSPAPER.—No family in this free land of intelligence and progression should be without a newspaper, and no family in Cumberland county should be without the Carlisle Herald. The family that reads the newspapers, is an ago in advance of the one that does not, and its members are far better fitted for the duties of life. The excuse that is generally offered by those who have no paper, is, that it "costs too much to take one." Costs too much indeed! What other luxury and necessity can be bought so cheaply! Three cents a week will supply a family with a good paper, and what family is there that does not unnecessarily spend much more than that sum! Such an apology is a poor one, and does no credit to the one advancing it. It should never be offered by a parent, after reflecting for a moment on the immense value of a paper to a family of children. If there is a family in Cumberland who do not get a newspaper, let them immediately correct the mistaken policy.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Bombardment of Sebastopol Opened! IMPREGNABLE POSITION OF THE ALLIES.

GREAT NEWS EXPECTED.

LARGE ADVANCE IN BREADSTUFFS

New York, Nov. 3.—The steamer Arabia arrived at her wharf at 8 o'clock this morning, bringing dates from Liverpool to the 21st of October.

There is no news of a decisive character from the seat of war that can be relied upon, though rumors of the fall of Sebastopol were again abundant.

The advance in breadstuffs will generally astonish operators in this country who have been confidently anticipating a decline. The greatest anxiety prevails throughout England and France, especially with regard to the progress of operations at Sebastopol.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR. The bombardment of Sebastopol was commenced on the 13th ult. from two pieces of heavy artillery at long range.

Omer Pasha had gone to the Crimea to attend a council of war, and it was believed that his forces would go there also. Menschikoff had been partially reinforced, and still maintains his position to the north of the city.

In the absence of news of active operations the papers are mainly filled with accounts of the positions and projected operations of the various forces.

Odessa accounts to the 5th say that Gortschakoff was at that place, and Menschikoff, who admitted that he could not maintain his position.

Bakshigra has sent his army to Sebastopol. The Russian corps of 15,000, posted near Sebastopol, had opened fire on the besiegers, and great operations were daily expected.

General Canrobert had notified the French Government that the allies' position was impregnable, being defended by eighty thousand men and two hundred guns, and could be held against 200,000 Russian.

Constantinople letters to the 12th ult. say that 3,000 of the foreign legion and 4,000 Turks had just left for Crimea.

In consequence of the correspondence found in Menschikoff's effects, captured at Alma, several important arrests have been made at Varna.

Two British steamers have been ordered to the sea of Azof to bombard the town of Kurtch.

ENGLAND.

The British Parliament will be prorogued on the 16th of November.

The English papers publish a list of private soldiers killed and wounded at Alma. A national subscription for the sick and wounded had reached £6,000, and a regiment of women had been organized as nurses to be immediately sent to Sebastopol.

The British steamers Ganges and Persia, with troops on board, came in collision in the Sea of Mannora, and were badly damaged. An officer was crushed to death in his berth.

Accounts from the United States of a supposed short supply and the uncertain conditions of affairs in regard to the war, had conspired to produce the advance in breadstuffs. The market closed firm.

FRANCE.

There is nothing new of interest from France. The accounts of the battle of Alma had aroused the old war spirit, and further tidings from Sebastopol are watched for with an anxiety unprecedented.

THE MARKETS.

Breadstuffs have largely advanced during the week. The advance in flour is 6s. to 7s in Corn 2s. and in Wheat 2s. The quotations of Flour are: Western canal 39s.; Ohio 42s. Corn, white and yellow, 35s.; Richardson and Brothers quote Western canal at 39s. and 40s.; Baltimore and Philadelphia 41s. and 42s. Wheat, white, 11s. 6d a 12s.

PRIESTLY USURPATION.—In San Francisco

lately, an Irishman named James Mulqueen was arrested on charge of bigamy. Upon the hearing of the case a certificate was produced showing that he and Sarah U. Sumners were married in the parish church of Streatam, Surrey, England, April 10th, 1848, and the fact of the marriage, according to the common and civil laws of England, was also proved by corroborative testimony. It was also shown that the Roman Catholic Vicar General of San Francisco had assumed authority to annul this marriage on the ground that Mrs. Sarah Sumners, his pretended wife, was not baptized, and her dispensation had been given in order to contract legally before the church; and further, that she was married by any magistrate lawfully authorized, therefore the Vicar General declared in the certificate, which is published in the San Francisco papers, that the marriage "has never existed, and is null and void." He followed this up by marrying Mulqueen to a Miss Mary Jane McBride. This is rather a novel mode of granting divorce.

Gov. Bigler visited Washington week before last, and is represented as having delivered an "affecting obituary" address upon himself before a company of serenaders, after which, it is stated, he addressed the President and respectfully applied for the place of Hon. JAS. BUCHANAN, which is to be vacated next July. The specific answer of the Executive has not been promulgated but a prominent Nebraska member from the same State remarked as his Chief turned pensively from the doors of the White House "Ah! I now see the difference between an army before a battle and after a defeat. Pennsylvania is no what!"
