

Little Folks.

"We Were too Poor to Pay."

Yes, it was a lovely spot—that village church-yard! Such a one I fancy, as inspired the "Elegy in a country Church-yard."

Then that little girl! How her image comes up before me—bending over her brother's grave. I marked her when we entered the spot where she was kneeling.

"O! little Willie sleeps here. We's too poor to get a tombstone, me and the angels know where he lies, and mother says that's enough."

"Are you not afraid to be here alone?" I asked.

"O, no; mother is sick and couldn't come, so she said I must come and see if the violets were in bloom yet."

"How old was your brother?" I asked, feeling interested in the child.

"He was only seven years old; and he was so good, and had such beautiful eyes; but he couldn't see a bit."

"Indeed! Was he blind?"

"Yo see he was sick a long time; yet his eyes were blue and bright as blue skies with stars in 'em, and we did not know he was getting blind, until one day I brought him a pretty rose, and he asked:

"Is it a white rose, Dora?"

"Can't you see it, darling?" asked mother.

"No, I cannot see anything. I wish you would open up the window, it is so dark here."

"Then we knew that poor little Willie was blind; but he lived a long time after that, and used to put his dear little hand on our faces to feel if we were crying, and tell us not to cry, for he could see God, and heaven, and the angels. Then never mind, mother and Dora, he'd say, 'I'll see you too, when you go away from this dark place.'"

"So one day he closed his eyes and fell asleep, and mother said he was asleep in Jesus. Then we brought him here, and buried him; and though we're too poor to get a tombstone, yet we can plant flowers on his little grave, and nobody'll trouble them, I know, when they learn that our little Willie sleeps here."

BEGIN RIGHT.—If you are about to do a piece of work, you will be careful to begin it right; otherwise you will have to take it to pieces and do it over again.—If you are going on a journey, you will be careful at first to get in the right road; for if you start wrong you will be continually going farther and farther out of the way.

Now you are starting in life, and life is a journey. If you start wrong, you will be all the time going out of the way. You have a right to do; but if you begin it wrong, you will be worse than lost. Not all over again, done. Do you? The wisest of the Lord is to begin life right God, and make it your sness to serve him, and all else will come out right.

VOLUME TEN OF THE "SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN" commences on the 10th of September. It is chiefly devoted to the advancement of the interests of Mechanics, Inventors, Manufacturers and Farmers, and is edited by men practically skilled in the various arts and sciences.

The following Cash Prices are offered by the Publishers for the fourteen largest lists of subscribers sent in by the 1st of January, 1855: $100 for the first list; $75 for the second; $50 for the third; $35 for the fourth; $20 for the fifth; $15 for the sixth; $10 for the seventh; $5 for the eighth; $3 for the ninth; $2 for the tenth; $1 for the eleventh; $1 for the twelfth; $1 for the thirteenth; and $1 for the fourteenth.

It is impracticable in so short a space as this to give an adequate idea of the variety of subjects, and the extent of research which this volume contains. The whole field has been carefully explored, and no department however intricate has been passed over, but treated until the subject has been made perfectly clear and intelligible to the simplest mind.

IMPORTANT WORK ON PENNSYLVANIA.—No Pennsylvania should be without it. Eight thousand copies sold. Every Farmer and every citizen should have a copy.
