The Collins steamship Pacific has arrived, th Liverpool dates to the 29th. The Arabia arrived out on the 26th ult, THE WAR.

Nothing decisive has been received from he seige of Sebastopol.

Since the terrible battle of Inkerman on a 5th of November, when the allies lost 100% and the Russians 10,000 men, neither arty have been in a condition to resume acre hostilities, consequently nothing has

The atmost activity is manifested in France ad England, in sending reinforcements, as a existence of the allied army in the Crimea pends thereon. Several thousands have ached their destination.

In England, matters are approaching a inisterial crisis.

It is probable that Parliament will be sumaned for the creation of new taxes for sup-

'rt of the war. It is reported that the Russians have cap rod two English cruisers in the Baltie. The Austrian, Prussian and Germanic di-quiatists are active, but France and Engad have notified them that they will not ow treat on the basis of the Four Powers. The Western Powers are determined to 'd the Crimea and dictate terms of peace. Prince Menschikoff informs the Emperor at the damages from the cannonading of e beseigers are speedily repaired, and the crison in good condition. He admits that great losses have occurred.

The allies continue to fortify their right The Journal of Constantinople says that 0,000 more Turks are to be shipped to the imen with all speed. The statements as to the movements of nar Pacha are contradictory.

Napoleon's letter to the troops in the imea says that a powerful diversion is to msde on the Bessarabia.

A rumor adds that two French divisions o to be added to the army on the Dunube. The Russians continue on the Pruth. The blockade of Odessa is to be removed. ie Russians are fortifying the approaches

Three ships of the line and eighteen transcts were greatly damaged on the 11th. The hurricane of the 14th which proved so sastrous did not extend beyond the Black a and the Supplies and reinforcements re constantly arriving in spite of the stormy

Advices from Constantinople to the 20th t. state that during the previous ten days, least 15,000 men, destined to reinforce the ies had sailed for the Crimea, and passed · Bosphorus, on their way thither.

A'despatch from Gen. Canrobert, dated bastopol, Nov. 13 says that the operations the seige were progressing, and that the alth and spirits of the troops were admira-

The movement upon Bessarabia has alady commenced. It is said the command the troops, has been conferred upon Gene-Baraguay d' Hilliers. Prince Menschikoff writes under date of evening of the 18th, that the seige opeions of the allies have been suspended, and cannonade gradually relapsed. On the h, it had almost entirely ceased. Jen. Osten Sacken is to take Gen. Danenrg's command in the Crimea. A prospectus for a Prussian State loan of een million thalers has been issued. Saliman Pacha, who commanded the Turkh forces in the Crimen, had been degraded the rank of a private for bad behaviour th his troops on the 6th of November.

The Czar's sons Michael and Nicholas, had rired from Sebastopol. BREADSTUFFS .- Early in the week the irket was declining; but since holders ve regained their positions. Western and Flour 42@43s 6d; Philadelphia id Baltimore 43(a)44s; Ohio, 44s.

PHILADELPHIA MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, Dec'r. 18.

The Flour market remains quiet, owing the difference in the views of buyers and Hers; there is some little inquiry for exort, and shipping brands are scarce and inted at $9; most holders refusing to expt that price for good straight brands ;ere are rumors of Sales of Baltimore Flour wing been made to some extent, at someing less than the above quotations, the articulars of which have not been allowed transpire. For home use sales are modate within the range of $9a10 per bbl for mmon retailing to good brands, and exa, the latter for fancy lots. Rye Flour re-ains dull. Corn Meal is scarce, but there little or nothing doing in the way of sales. rain—There is very little Wheat offering, d the receipts meet with ready sale at full rices; about 4000 bushels, mostly good outhern and Jersey red, brought $2,1-1 affont, eluding some small lots of choice from store, something more; a lot of inferior white at 1.90, and 4a500 bushels fair do. at $2,15; cime lots are held higher, without finding uyers. Rye is steady at $1,25. Corn is arving more freely, but with an active deand; the receipts, some 30,000 bushels, ostly Southern, were disposed of at 87c for ew, and 90c for old yellow, affont.
