BEAUTIFUL IMPROVEMENT.—The Carlisle Deposit Bank commenced the New Year in its new banking room, for although the locality is not changed the room has undergone such entire change in internal arrangements as to be seemingly new. The new arangements are in perfect taste and exceedingly beautiful in finish, reflecting high credit upon the various artists engaged in the work: newly and elegantly papered. The floor is laid with English Encaustic Flooring, from the establishment of S. A. Harrison, Philadelphia, an advertiser in our paper, which is à handsome improvement. A private office with glass partition is provided for the Cashier, and the new counters, desks, &c., are beautifully grained in oak. The new arrangements and embellishments give the room a strikingly elegant appearance, while they are admirably designed to promote the convenience of the officers of the Bank. In such a palace it is really quite a treat to pay a note even in these tight times!

The Carlisle Deposit Bank is a well managed and consequently flourishing institution. We trust the incoming State administration will give it the additional privilege of issuing notes and thus make it a complete institution, such as our borough and county need.

A strong outside influence, we are told, was Riley, but which the better judgment of the resentatives, for the manly course they bave Commissioners resisted, at least in part, for taken for the interests, of the old and sur it is said that the re-appointment is for six months only. Mr. Riley is a political opponent, but we have always regarded him as an officer of excellent qualifications and obliging disposition. The office of clerk should not be made subject to yearly changes and after the present excitement passes over the Commissioners will doubtless find that they have pursued the wisest course for their own convenience and the interests of the coun-

BARNUM ON ADVERTISING .- To business men, mechanics and others, who are forming plans for the new year, we commend the following bit of advice from Barnum-a man who within a few years has made a princely fortune by means of printer's ink. He says:

"Advertise your business. Do not hide your light under a bushel. Whatever your occupation or calling may be, if it needs sup-LITERARY EXHIBITION .- The Big port from the public, advertise it freely and cess I have had in my life may fairly be atnearly all other causes combined. There may possibly be occupations that do not renot pay perhaps—it is like half a portion of vened also by music from the Big Spring physic making the patient sick, but effecting they cannot afford not to advertise. In this country, where everybody reads the newspaper, the man must have a thick skull who does not see that these are the cheapest and to the public where he is to find his custoing his corn and potatoes are growing. So with advertising.—While you are sleeping, or eating, or conversing with one set of customers, your advertisement is being read by hundreds and thousands of persons who never saw you or heard of your business and never would, had it not been for your advertise ment appearing in the newspapers."

Several disgraceful licenna's riots occurred n Philadelphia last evening, in "which pistols, spanners and brickbats were freely used. A number of persons were seriously hurt but none killed. A great degree of rowdy-ism prevailed throughout the city. In New York it is reported there was less dissipation than ever before known on New Year's day. The custome of New Years calls on the ladies was carried out as usual. A report from Texas states that Gen. Samuel Houston has announced his intention to resign his seat in the U.S. Senate at the End of the present session. The Government Stock Bank of Michigan has made a bad failure. ATTACK ON LIQUOR SHOPS BY WOMEN .he Kalamazoo (Mich.) Telegraph-furnisheshe particulars of a descent made on the groggeries of Otsego, by the women of that place, in consequence of an insult offered by a dealer to a female whose drunken husband visited his house. The Telegraph says:

The women of the village, to the number of 38, armed with axes and hatchets, formed a procession and marched upon the destroyers of their domestic pence. Proceeding to the hotel; they commenced a general demolution of decanters, jugs, tumblers and barrels. when the proprietor, beseeching them to desist, came to terms, and gave bonds not to sell any more liquor for six months, after which they quietly withdrew. They then proceeded to several groceries where liquors were sold. One of the keepers, after a por tion of his stock had been destroyed, signed the required bond. Another refused, whom they poured out his stock of liquors, amidst the greatest excitement. During the opera-tion the proprietor rudely grasped one of the females and hurled her back, whereupon he-was seized and most thoroughly drenched in liquor. He received several very severe injuries in the melce. After having accomplished this, the women quietly dispersed.

SHOCKING DISTRESS FROM POVERTY .- The New York papers record the suicide of John Murphy, an Englishman, recently arrived in this country, who had become deranged by the want of employment and the consequent suffering of his family. His family had been without food for two days, when the wife yielded to her necessities and went to the Committee of Relief for the Poor, to obtain some assistance. In her absence the husband cut his throat, and during the inquest upon the father, the mother received news of the death of her child from want of food:

LAWYER TURNED CARPENTER .- The lawyer who "filed a bill, shaved a note, cut an acquaintance, split a hair, made an entry, raised a nail, gov up a case, framed an indictment, sopanolled a jury, put them in a box, nail d a witness, hammered a judge, chiseled client, and bored a whole court," -all on one day-has since "laid down the law" and turned carpenter. - Springfield . TRIAL OF ARRISON.—The trial of Arrison, at Cincinnati, for the murder of Allison by an iternal machine, has elicited as might be expected, much excitement. The trial, from beginning to end, adduced nothing else but convicting proofs of the man's guilt. It was proven that he had a box made, that he had got a man to direct the card which was placed on the box, and that he had employed two boys to convey the hox to the Hospital where Allison lived. With such testimony the people were ready for a conviction; and nothing else. The case was concluded on the 20th inst., and submitted to the jury, who, after three hours deliberation, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree.
