"What are you going to do with it? What are you going to do with it?" exclaimed half a dozen rang larrebins, to a bright eyed, thinly clad news you, who was holding a splendid purse in one of his purple, cold hands, that he had taken but a few moments previous from the si lowark

"Return it to the owner," answered the honest fellow, in a firm tone.

"A fool!" shouted the boys "You would not catch as returning a purse that looked as though it halfots of money in it, as that does, let's see how much there is," spoke the el·lest of the group, and made an attempt to wrest it from the boy's hand.

"It shan't be opened. It is none of your business what it contains, it is none of ours, and if you don't loose your grasp upon it I will call the police." returned honest Johnny in a commanding tone.

The boys knew that Johny would do as he said: hence, they only ceased tormenting him but stole away as if the police were already upon their tracks.

When alone, Johnny began to consider what it was best to do. There was no way, that he saw, by which the owner could be ilentified by him A thought struck him -he would deliver it to the office of the chief police But he should lose the sale of his papers if he attended to it then, and if he did his mother and little sister must go without bread that night; for they had nothing to eat save that which the daily sale of the newspapers brought. What should be do? He paused awhile and then said: " Mother, you had rather go hungry, to night, I am sure, I ald rather, too, than keep the purse until to morrow morning. Let's see! he put his hand into his pocket, and after fumbling a short time, drew forth three cents; I've got money enough to buy a loaf for little sister's supper and breakfast and I will go without; so I will go at once and carry the purse where the owner can obtain it." Thus saying he trugged off, with the purse in one hand and a large bundle of newspapers in the other. He whistled as he went; for although pinched with cold and hunger, he felt happy because he was doing good.

After disposing of the purse, and being call ed an "honest little fellow," by the police he returned home, and related to his mother how he had acted. She praised him for so doing, and said he must do right if he perished in the attempt.

The next morning, Johnny went from his home a little bluer and colder than usual, for he had no supper or breakfast to fill up his stomach, thereby keeping the cold out.

heart, for he had sold papers enough to buy bread to last his mother, sister and himself one day! when he was met by the gentleman to whom he had delivered the purse on the previous day.

Mr. Z. LAKE—Sir: Please send me another bottle of Fit Medicine, as I do not like to be without it on hand. When I commenced giving the medicine to my son Edgar, he had from one to three fits per day. He has now taken the medicine over five months, and has had, I think, but two fits in that time, and those very light.—His body and mind are very much improved; and by the blessing of God, I feel that the medicine will restore his body and mind to their wonted activity. He is 28 years old, and has had fits over 12 years, which have been very frequent, and very destructive to his constitution and mind. Hundreds of dollars have been expended for medicine to "Cons Firs," but nothing has relieved him until he used your medicine. Respectfully yours,

Mr. Z. Lake—Sir: Please send a few more bettles of your "Fit Medicine;" I may not need it, but think safer to keep it on hand. Your medicine has done wonders, I gave it to Miss Jane Delano; she has had fits for 20 years, brought on by having the measels when but four years old, which could not be brought out to the surface. After taking the medicine a few days, she had a first or gone or Nelsels, and has had no fits since. She had fits or symptoms almost daily. She and her father concur with me in saying that we believe the medicine has or will work a perfect cure. I also gave the medicine to Miss Jane Henderson and Aris Carby, who have had fits almost daily, for a number of years. Their fits have ceased, and I believe the medicine will have the desired effect. Much money has been expended by the friends of the above patients for doctoring, all to no purpose.—The cure was left for your medicine to perform, and I can cheerfully recommend it as a valuable discovery.—Respectfully yours,

TESTIMONY FROM PENNSYLVANIA

TESTIMONY FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

J. D. Spring, Laccyville, Pa., April 6, 1854, says, a can get you some good certificates for your German Bit ters in this vicinity if you wish them. A lady prechaing some of it this week, says that it is by far the best medicine she ever knew, having done her and he daughter much good, &c.

S. B. Lawson, Penfard's Store, Somerset co, Fa., Aug 15, 1853, says, "Tam much attached to your tierman litters, having used two bottles of it, which I precure from S. Kurtz, your agent at Somerset, and found greatellef from it in disease of the Liver. I find it he great effect on my lungs, strengthening and invigeratin them, which, as I am a public speaker, is a great help i me."

Br. Giles, Newton Hamilton, Pa., May, 1951, said: a have used mysolf half a dozon bottles of your Genna littere for Liver Complaint and diseases of a nervot character, resulting from the attess of mercury. I we poisoned and afficied with spesms from the use of the latter article. The German Bitters is the first article from which I obtained any relief. I have also given it article to many dyspeptles, with the most salutary results. I think as many mere bottles will cure me."

J. C. Young, Esq., of Dauphin, Pa., writes May 5, '5 "I was afflicted with General hebility, intestinal West ness-and Costiveness, for which I used many differer remedies without relief. I at last used your Hot fand German litters. I took a few bettles according to different militers, which is about one year ago."

These Bitters are father vegetable, always strengthening the system and never prestraing it.
Sold by dealers in medicine and storekeepers every where, and by Samuel Elie tt, S. W. Haverstek and I W. Caufiman, Carlisle, Fininger & Co. Med anies urs snyder & Blobl, Newburg, and by Dealers in Medicine generally.
