KNOW NOTHING MOVEMENTS.

The American State Convention of Massachusetts, which met on the 2d inst. at Boston, is said to have taken decided anti-slavery ground. Resolutions of the strongest anti-slavery character were passed, and it was admitted that the order could no longer hesitate in taking such a position.

The American State Council of New Hampshire, which met at Concord on the 3d, it is said took ground similar to that of Massachusetts on the Slavery question.

A California paper states that at the recent general American Convention held in Sacramento, the religious test against Catholics was formally rejected from the platform.

Next we have from Illinois a report that the Know Nothing Convention lately held at Chicago had a stormy and exciting session, which ended in a disruption.

AGRICULTURAL ADDRESS.

The Hon Fredrick Watts, of Carlisle, we learn, has accepted the invitation to deliver the next annual address before the State Agricultural Society.

The necessary sum having been subscribed in Harrisburg, the next State Fair will be held in that borough.

The Legislature adjourned yesterday sine die. We have not heard much of its concluding proceedings, except that the price of the Main line, in the bill for the sale of the Public Works, was fixed at six millions and a half, which will probably ensure a sale.

PHILADELPHIA ELECTION.

The official returns of the Philadelphia election give the victory to the Americans by a small majority, instead of to the Fusionists, as was first reported. The vote is as follows:

CITY TREASURER. F. Knox Morton, American, 22,458; Jacob E. Hagert, Fusion, 22,036.

Morton's majority, 422; CITY COMMISSIONER. Hill, American, 22,406; Sherry, Fusion, 22,209.

Hill's majority, 197.

The Select Council consists of twenty-four members, of whom twelve hold over. These consist of nine Whigs and American, and three Democrats. Of the twelve members on Tuesday, four ran on the American ticket and eight on the Whig and Democratic Reform ticket.

Although Sam made a stout and successful fight, it is not surprising that a victory of such equivocal character should be thought to require some explanation. The North American offers the following which we copy as containing some sound advice to the American party:

The city seems as quiet after its recent desperate political struggle as though nothing of importance had happened. Almost everybody goes calmly about his business. He who having been unduly excited in the battle, has not yet recovered his equanimity, is somewhat surprised at the apparent unconcern of the great mass.

The opposition are, of course, satisfied, for they have elected a large number of the Council, and with the reform members of the American party, will have quite an efficient working majority. They have succeeded, also, in securing for themselves a smart sprinkling of all kinds of offices, and shown "Sam" that he is not invincible, and must exercise a little more care in his selection of nominees.

Next we have from Illinois a report that the Know Nothing Convention lately held at Chicago had a stormy and exciting session, which ended in a disruption.

The Councils have since organized by the election of Whig and American officers.

A NEW MOVE.—A letter from Boston to the Cincinnati Gazette says that the Free Soil secret order called, "Know Somethings," is rapidly taking possession of the original "Know Nothing" lodges in Massachusetts.

LOUIS NAPOLEON.

The English papers record, in glowing terms, the honors and ovations offered by the Queen, the nobility, and the people of Great Britain to the Emperor of the French. No sovereign has ever been welcome on a foreign soil with equal enthusiasm.

Yesterday, the visit to the city took place, and some conception of the manner in which the Emperor was received may be formed from the fact that, throughout a not very lengthened route, upwards of one million of persons were congregated.

The Emperor and Empress, in a State carriage, drawn by cream colored horses, and surrounded by an escort of the Royal Horse Guards, reached the Strand at half past one.

The address was frequently interrupted by bursts of enthusiastic cheering, and the language, the tone, the resolve and policy embraced in it appeared to recommend themselves with great force to the sympathies of those who listened to sentiments of which they cordially approved.

In the evening Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, Napoleon and Eugenie, visited the Italian Opera. 500 guineas were given as the quotations for boxes, and 30 guineas for single stalls in which the royal countenances might fall on the occupants.

On Friday the Emperor and Empress, accompanied by the Queen and Prince Albert, visited the Crystal Palace at Sydenham, where 20,000 persons were assembled to receive them.

The English papers are crowded with glowing descriptions of this ever-memorable visit. Omitting the embellishments the simple statement is that on Monday, the 16th, Napoleon III and the Empress Eugenie arrived at Dover—thence to Windsor—remained the guests of the British Sovereign five days—met with a distinguished reception from the Court and extraordinary enthusiastic greeting from the crowd—were almost overwhelmed by congratulatory addresses from corporations and institutions—and returned to France amid a tempest of hurrahs!

ELECTIONS.—At the election of School Directors in Lancaster, on Friday last the Americans were defeated by the Fusionists, by about 100 majority. At the borough election in York, on Saturday, the Americans were triumphant throughout.

The Reading Journal has discovered, after a careful comparison, that the Legislature is likely to cost the State less under the bill giving members $500 a session, than under the old system.

The Philadelphia Sun makes its appearance in a new and beautiful dress. The Sun is conducted with great spirit and ability, but its daily beams seldom shine in our sanctum. We should like to see it more regularly.

It should be universally known—for it is strictly true—that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths, are generally of indigestion alone.

NEURALGIA.—This formidable disease, which seems to baffle the skill of physicians, yields like magic to Carter's Spanish Mixture.

JOHN.—Good morning, Sir. How are you? STRANGER.—Good morning, sir; can you tell me where I can find the cheapest READY MADE CLOTHING, and the best?
