NATIONAL AMERICAN COUNCIL.

We are at length able to lay before our readers the Platform of Principles adopted by office,—so far as it may be permitted by the the National Council of Americans, that has been in session for a week past, in Philadelphia. It is as follows:

PLATFORM AND PRINCIPLES. I .- The acknowledgement of that Almighty Being, who rules over the Universe-who pre sides over the Councils of Nations-who conducts the affairs of men, and who, in every step by which we have advanced to the char acter of an independent nation, has distintinguished us by some token of Providential agency.

II.—The cultivation and developement of a sentiment of profoundly intense American, feeling; of passionate attachment to our country, its history and its institutions; of admiration for the purer days of our National existence; of veneration for the heroism that precipitated our Revolution; and of emulation of the virtues, wisdom and patriotism that framed our Constitution, and first successfully applied its provisions. III .- The maintenance of the union of these United States as the paramount political good; or, to use the language of Washington, 'the primary object of patriotic desire.'

bence: 1st. Opposition to all attempts to weaken

2d. Uncompromising antagonism to every principle of policy that endangers it.

3d. The advocacy of an equitable adjustment of all political differences which threaten its integrity or perpetuity.

4th The suppression of all tendencies to political division, founded on 'geographical discriminations, or on the belief that there is a real difference of interests and views' between the various sections of the Union.

5th. The full recognition of the rights of the several States as expressed and reserved in the Constitution; and a careful avoidance, by the General Government, of all interfer ence with their rights by legislative or executive action.

IV. Obedience to the Constitution of these

And the sys tematic agitation of the slavery question by those parties having elevated sectional hostil ity into a positive element of political power, and brought our institutions into peril, it has therefore become the imperative duty of the American party to interpose, for the purpose of giving peace to the country and perpetuity to the Union. And as experience has shown it. impossible to reconcile opinions so extreme as those which separate the disputants, and as there can be no dishonor in submitting to the laws the National Council has deemed it the best guarantee of common justice and of future peace, to abide by and maintain the existing laws upon the subject of slavery, as a final and conclusive settlement of that subject, in spirit and in substance.

The following manifesto is published as having been adonted by those who withdrew from the Council, in consequence of the adoption of Article XII.

GIRARD HOTEL, June 14.

A meeting of citizens from various States of the Union, representing the American party, was called by general consent, whereupon Hon. J. W. Foster, of Massachusetts, presented the following paper, which, after being read, was signed by citizens of the several States, as follows, viz:-

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

The undersigned, citizens of the various States assembled at Philadelphia on this fourteenth day of June, 1855, feel constrained, under the existing state of affairs, to affirm the following principles:

First. The unconditional restoration of that time-honored compromise known as the Misno lapse of time can palliate and no plea for its continuance can justify; and that we will use all constitutional means to maintain the positive guarantee of this compact until the Schraska as free States.

our National Legislature, by elevating to that Executive, wherever violated or threatened, dignified and responsible situation men of and that we cannot consistently act with those higher-qualifications, purer morals, and more who will not aid us in the correction of these national wrongs, and will not even permit their fair consideration and full discussion.

Third. We further declare our continued and unalterable determination to use all honorable efforts to secure such a modification of the naturalization laws, aided by such an ele-vation of public sentiment, as shall preserve the true interests of the nation and shall country in schools provided by the State; -- the true interests of the nation and shall which schools shall be common to all without guarantee the three vital principles of a Republican Government, spiritual freedom, a free Bible and free schools, thereby promoting the great work of Americanizing America.

Fourth. That we invoke the arm of legislation to arrest that growing evil, the deportation, by foreign authorities, of paupers and convicts to our shores; and that as our National rica, is considered an element of our political Constitution requires the Chief Executive of system; and as the Holy Bible is at once the our country to be of native birth, we deem it equally necessary and important that our difountain of all civil and religious freedom, we plomatic representatives abroad should also possess no foreign prejudices to bias their judgement, or to influence their official action.

KNOW SOMETHING CONVENTION.

CLEVELAND, June 13. - The Know-Something or Republican Convention, convenes in this city to-day. Every Free State is fully represented. Among the delegates from New York State, are H. Thompson, of Staten Island; McMallen and Seymour of New York City; Stebbons and Van Voothies of Rechester, and Richardson, of Albany; Charles W. Slack, of Boston, and Ex Governor Boutwell, with thirty delegates representing Massachusetts.

The reports fr. m the several States show that this new organization is progressing with rapid strides and already has possession of about five of the Northern and two of the

The news of the adoption of the pro-slavery platform by the Know Nothing Convention of Philadelphia, was received in the Convention this afternoon with much joy. It was considered the death-knell of 'Sam' in the United States, and the beginning of Jonathan's triumph. Nearly all the States represented have a delegation equal to the number towhich they are severally entitled in the lower house of Congress. The demonstration is large and enthusinstic, and is looked upon as one that will have a most important bearing ipon the ensuing Presidential contest.

CLEVELAND, June 14 .- The Committee of the Know Something Convention appointed to draft resolutions, and which consisted of one from each State, made report this afternoon, which was revised, slightly medified, and passed. The preamble asserts that servility to the slave power is characteristic of the existing p litical parties, and at once perilous to manhood, to the best interests of the North, and the liberties of the Republic. The resolutions declare the issue before the American people to be whether freedom shall be limited to the free States, or slavery to the slave States; that the issue has been forced upon the country by the aggressions of the slave lower, and especially by the Nebraska outage, and that the assault upon the elective

They recommend the action by the several States for the promotion of Temperance, and agree to support free schools and free labor. They take ground in favor of harbor improvements, and urge upon the people to strive for the election of men of integrity and ever to resist aggression of any and every kind. For these objects they are ready to unite with all men, under any name or organization that promises to aid in carrying into operation these principles.

The Convention is in session this evening, and will probably finish its labors and adjourn

FARMERS' HIGH SCHOOL.

In pursuance of the law of the last session, incorporating the Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania, the Board of Trustees met at Harrisburg on Thursday, the 14th inst., for the purpose of organization, and selection of a site for the location of the Institution. The Board is composed of Governor Pollock and Secretary Curtain, who are ex-officio members, and Messra. Frederick Watts of Cumberland, Dr. A. L. Elwyn and Algernon S. Roberts of Philadelphia, H. N. McAllister of Centre, R. C. Walker of Allegheny, James Miles of Erie, John Strohm of Lancaster, Wm. Jessup of Susquehanna, A. O. Heister of Dauphin, and James Gowen, President of the State Agricultural Society, ex officio. The members were all present but Wm. Jessup, James Gowen, and Algernon S. Roberts.

Communications to the Board informed it that Gen James Irwin, of Centre county, offered gratuitously 260 acres of good limestone land in Harris township, upon condition that the school should be located there. Judge Miles offered 200 acres, situate on the bank of Lake Eric, upon the line of the railroad, on the lake shore, if it should be located there, and it was said the commissioners of the county of Dauphin would probably offer a farm owned by that county. Bosides these, other persons proposed to sell, upon moderate terms arms located in Delaware and Chester coundes. All these communications were referred o a Committee, composed of Gov. Pollock, Judge Watts and Dr. A. L. Elwin, with instructions to make an examination of the several properties ofered, and report their determination to the next meeting of the Board which will be held for that purpose early in July. The Committee will meet at Harrisburg on Monday, the 25th inst., and proceed by the Pennsylvania railroad to Spruce Creek, and thence to the land of Gen Irwin, and by he way of the Elmira railroad, at Williamsport, to the New York and Eric road, and hence to Erie county, and returning will exmine the other proposed sites.

The Board evinced at their meeting a determined purpose to establish this school without delay, and to prosecute it with all the means and energy at their command; and we are pleased to hear that the means are probably quite ample to make a beginning.

MARRIAGE AMONG THE NOTABLES.—Mics Susan, daughter of Col. T. H. Benton, was married in St. Matthew's Catholic Church, Washington, on Monday afternoon last, to Mr. G. DE BOILLEAU, Secretary to the French I.egation. A splendid entertainment was given the bridsl party at the residence of the bride's b other in-law, Col. FREMONT.
