A Story for Children.

There was once a farmer who had a large field of corn; he ploughed it and planted the corn, and harrowed it and weeded it with great care, and on his field he depended for the chief support of his family. But after he had worked hard. he saw the corn began to wither and droop for rain, and he began to have fears for his crop. He felt very sad, and went over every day to look at his corn, and see if there was any hope of rain.

One day as he stood looking at the sky and almost in despair, two little rain drops up in the clouds over his head saw him and one said to the other:

Look at that poor furmer, I feel sorry for him; he has taken so much pains with his field of corn, and now it is all drying up; I wish I could do him some good.'

'Yes, said the other, but you are only a little rain drop, what can you do? Youcan't even wet one hillock.'

'Well,' said the first, 'to be sure I can't do much, but I can cheer the far mer a little at any rate, and I am resolved to do my best. I'll try. I'll go to the field to show my good will, if I can do no more, and so here I go.' And down went the rain drop-one came pat on the

The first rain drop had no sooner started for the field than the second one said: 'Well, if you are going, I believe I will go too; here I come.' And down dropped the rain drop on another stalk.

By this time a great many rain drops had come together to hear what their companious were talking about, and when they saw them going to oheer the farmer and water the corn, one said-'If you are going on such a good errand, I'll go too;' and down ho came. 'And I,' said another 'and I,' and I,' and so on, till a whole shower of them came, and the corn was watered and it grew and ripened, all because the first little rain drop determined

Comparison of the Branch of the Service of the State of the Bradder and Kidneys, Secret Diseases, Strictures, Weaknesses, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, whother in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how Jong standing.

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, underinining the constitution and sapping the yery vital fluids of life, do not trust yoursent in the hands of Quaeks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with glaring false hoods, too well calculated to deceive the young, and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy en these cases.

The Fluid Extract Buchu has been pronounced by eminent physicians the greatest remedy ever known.—
It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste, and very innocent in its action, and yet so therough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease; and, unlike other remedies, does not dry up the disease in the blood.

Constitutional Debility, brought on by self-abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely fraves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and oblety outh, can be cured by this Infallible Remedy.
