STAND BY YOUR GUNS!

The Whigs have a ticket of which they may well be proud, and the success of which they should use every effort to promote. Candid men of all parties admit that it is unexceptionable and merits the support of all honest voters. Against the men who compose the ticket nothing can be said. They are without an exception men of worth and integrity—men who have ever occupied prominent positions in society, and who have always commanded the respect, esteem and confidence of their neighbors and friends. In addition to their moral and intellectual worth they are also men of enlarged experience and business qualifications. The various candidates are peculiarly qualified to fill with honor to themselves and credit to the county, the respective offices to which they have been nominated. Let every Whig, then, be active in the support of his ticket. Whether successful or not we shall have the satisfaction which follows the faithful support of right principle, and a good cause. Stand to your guns! Whigs!

THE OLD LINE.

The old line Whigs have nominated tickets in Lancaster, Dauphin, Delaware, Schuylkill, Franklin, Erie, Luzerne, Montgomery, Northumberland, Washington, Huntingdon and Blair counties. In York, Adams and Perry they have made no nominations. In Lebanon, Chester, Bucks, Berks and several other counties, where the Americans were liberal enough to enter into open delegate elections, the Whigs are acting with them.

AMERICAN NOMINATION.—Peter Martin, of Lancaster county, having received the highest number of votes, is declared to be the nominee of the American party for Canal Commissioner.

THE LIQUOR LAW.

We publish in to-day's paper a synopsis of the several Liquor Laws enacted in Pennsylvania by the last two Legislatures, and invite the attention of voters especially to the provisions of the law passed last winter, which has been stigmatized as the "jug law." The main feature of this law—the abolition of bar-rooms for the retail traffic in liquors—was suggested by Judge Watts of this borough and we understand that since his nomination for the assembly strong efforts are making to rally against him the opponents of Prohibition. We allude to the subject for the purpose of correcting misrepresentations and to deny that Judge Watts is identified with the ultra Prohibitionists or Maine Law advocates.

Judge Watts is not in favor of the Maine Liquor Law or any prohibitory law. On the contrary he is most decidedly opposed to the scheme of Prohibition. In common with leading men of the country, however he has devoted much thought to the subject of Intemperance, the deplorable and wide-spread evils of which every good man must desire to check. But Judge Watts does not believe in the efficacy of ultra Prohibition to cure the evil. The Bar-room—the popular practice of congregating at public houses where intoxicating liquors are dealt out in small quantities, he regards as the great prime cause of Intemperance. It is in the bar-room, the restaurant, the brilliant drinking saloon, with its seductive influences, where our young men are taught to drink, and where the habit is perpetuated in men of older growth. With this view he last winter framed a brief law for the abolition of all places wherein liquor is sold and drunk. This law was placed in the hands of Mr. Cummings, Representative from Philadelphia, by whom it was introduced in the House. It met with favor and was finally passed by the combined votes of Whigs, Democrats and Americans. We may also add that the first three sections of the law are all that Judge Watts had any connection with. The other sections were drawn up by a democratic Senator from Philadelphia.

This law, as every one will distinctly see who reads it, is NOT A PROHIBITORY LAW—it has none of the odious features of the Maine Law. We know the people of Cumberland county have declared their opposition to prohibition. But this law attempts no prohibition of the manufacture or sale of liquors. It simply abolishes the bar-rooms where liquor is sold by the small and drunk. That tavern-keepers should oppose this law is not surprising. But there is no reason why the Farmers, or Manufacturers of liquors should array themselves against the Law. It will not affect the Farmers interests in any way for it does not touch the manufacture of liquor. Under this law the manufacture of spirits will go on as usual. The sale by large quantities is not interfered with. No man will lose his rights or his liberties under this law. It does not break up our public houses which are really necessary for the entertainment of strangers and travelers—it only abolishes the bar-room. Those who can use liquors without running into excess will not have their habits or privileges interfered with in any degree.

This law is recklessly denounced by party leaders who misrepresent its character, but good citizens who are interested for the public welfare should carefully examine its provisions and if they approve should determine to stand by the law until it has at least had a trial.

As for Judge Watts his public spirit and devotion to the general welfare is well known. His action in this matter sprung from the highest and noblest motives, and he shrinks from no responsibility.

A meeting of the new Whig State Central Committee is called to take place at Coverly's Hotel in Harrisburg, on Thursday evening next.

President Pierce it is announced will leave Washington this morning to attend the State Fair at Harrisburg.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION

The proceedings of the Whig State Convention at Harrisburg, last week, says the Lebanon Courier, were characterized we think, by wisdom and a patriotic desire for the success of principles. Its platform laid down is such that no true Pennsylvanian can take exception to it, while its liberality in expressing a willingness to unite with all others hostile to the present corrupt National Administration, precisely meets the views expressed and the policy adopted by the Whigs and Americans of Lebanon county; and is the policy that must prevail if we expect and desire success. The folly of bickering and quarreling over matters of little or no importance was never more manifest than at the present time and we are glad to see that the Whig State Convention saw this folly and was anxious to lay the foundation of a movement to avoid it. We trust that all other organizations may be equally wise and liberal, so that all of us that have a common object in view may march shoulder to shoulder for its consummation.

PASSMORE WILLIAMSON'S PARTY.—The Pittsburg Gazette, a warm advocate of the nomination of Passmore Williamson for Canal Commissioner, gives a list of twenty papers which fly the same flag in the present canvass. These papers are mostly published in the strong Free Soil sections, such as the counties of Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Mercer, Lawrence, Potter, Bradford, Tioga, Susquehanna and Crawford. The West is in fact all on fire against Slavery extension, and in some counties the Republican has entirely absorbed the American and Whig parties.

JUDGE KANE.—This individual, who is holding Passmore Williamson in prison for contempt, is the same man who in 1844 was instrumental in getting up the Kane letter swindle which represented Jas. K. Polk as a better tariff man than Henry Clay. That was one of the causes of Clay's defeat, and secured Kane a prominent place in the Locofoco ranks, and resulted in placing him on the bench.

THE STRICKEN CITIES.—The yellow fever still rages at Norfolk and Portsmouth, with almost unabated violence.—In Norfolk on Thursday last there were 40 deaths, on Friday 38, and on Saturday morning there were orders for 30 coffins. In Portsmouth on Thursday 22 deaths, on Friday 25 and on Saturday 30. This terrible mortality is truly calculated to appal the stoutest heart.

The West Chester Republican, a Democratic paper, don't like the practice of swearing Delegates and candidates for office, as adopted by its party generally. It says it has found those who have the least hesitancy to take extra-judicial oaths, the most ready to disregard their word.

JOSEPH HENDERSON.—The Reading Journal, an American paper, expresses the hope to see Mr. Henderson's nomination for Canal Commissioner endorsed by the American organization, and frankly admits that a refusal to do so will be a virtual relinquishment of all hopes of success.

NOT TRUE.—The Hollidaysburg Whig says that the story started in the Pittsburg papers, of extensive robberies of old iron on the Portage Railroad is not true—that no property was taken and no arrests made. Having copied the notice we make this correction.

Our thanks are due to Henry C. Hickock, Esq., Deputy Superintendent of Common Schools, for a pamphlet copy of the Superintendent's laws and decisions of the Superintendent, with explanatory instructions and forms.

The Chambersburg Transcript has been enlarged and improved. It is an exceedingly handsome and well conducted American paper.

THE POPE IN TROUBLE AGAIN.—The Italian Republican Committee of New York profess to have received some stirring news by the Baltic. It is to the effect that all Italy is on the verge of a grand revolution, which is to upset all its petty despotisms. The exiles in America are warned to come home at once, and several say they will sail in a few days. Some are so sanguine that they declare that the Roman Republic will be inaugurated by Christians.

PEOPLE'S TICKETS.—which we take to be nothing else than open American movements, have been formed in Berks, Montgomery and other counties, and combining, as they do, all the elements of opposition to the National Administration, will probably secure the success of the candidates in those counties.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.—The Whigs of this county have formed the following ticket:—For Assembly, James Crawford, Robert W. McAllen; for Treasurer, W. S. Hollenberger; for Commissioner, John Stouffer; for Auditor, John B. McLanahan; for Director of the Poor, William L. Smith.

Town and County Matters.

THE STATE FAIR.—Everybody appears to be going to the State Fair at Harrisburg. Extra trains, at reduced fare, commenced running yesterday, the cars crowded to overflowing with passengers.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The German Reformed Church of this borough, which during the last summer has been greatly enlarged and improved in appearance, was reopened for Divine service on Sunday last, with appropriate services. Eloquent and impressive discourses were delivered by the Rev. Dr. Schaf, of Mercersburg, in the morning, and in the afternoon by Rev. B. S. Shneck, of Chambersburg. Dr. Schaf preached again in the evening. The occasion awakened the deepest interest in our community and during each service the church was crowded to its utmost capacity.

The new church edifice, though not of the largest class, is truly elegant and imposing in appearance. The style is Gothic throughout. The front is a beautiful dark brown stone imitation, and the graceful spire with its tasteful decorations, is 130 feet high. The windows in front are glazed with stained glass of various colors, imparting a rich effect. The interior is beautifully finished, the walls and ceiling being painted in fresco, of subdued color but appropriate in design and most skilfully executed. The finish of the pulpit and general furnishing of the interior are in corresponding good taste. The gallery, which covers the vestibule, is set apart for the choir, and contains a small but finely-toned organ. The church will be heated with furnaces and lighted with gas, chandeliers and gas burners being fixed at various points, awaiting the introduction of gas, which will take place during the winter. The whole interior of the church is finished in the highest style of elegance, and vies in beauty with the more costly structures of the cities.

We congratulate the members of the congregation upon the completion of this beautiful edifice, which is truly one of the most striking ornaments of our town. The several contractors also—Messrs. Natcher & Black, Builders and Carpenters; Mr. Sieling of Reading, who executed the fresco painting, and Mr. Rosensteel, of Carlisle, who did the other painting, are entitled to special mention for the skill and taste which they have shown in the execution of their work.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Democratic County Convention reassembled yesterday in this borough to fill the vacancy in their ticket caused by the death of William Gleim, their candidate for County Commissioner, who died at his residence in South Middleton township on Wednesday last. We learn that twenty three members of the Convention were present, who after some discussion resolved that it was inexpedient to nominate any new man for that office. The vote it is said stood 16 to 7. We know nothing of their reasons for this unless they thought they could not put a name before the people of the County more acceptable than that of Col. WILLIAM M. HENDERSON, the Whig candidate for Commissioner, than whom there is not a citizen of the county more thoroughly qualified for the duties.

BEGINNING OF AUTUMN.—Sunday morning, September 23d, at fifteen minutes after ten the sun's longitude was exactly 108 degrees, and consequently the sun's centre had no declinations, or 'crossed the line'—an epoch considered by astronomers and meteorologists as the beginning of autumn.

PREMIUM FOR CORN.—We are authorized to say that the Cumberland County Agricultural Society will pay a premium of three dollars for the three best ears of Corn, of Cumberland county growth, which shall be exhibited at their Annual Exhibition on the 17th of October.

CLOSING OF STORES.—We are requested to state that the various Grocers in town have entered into an arrangement to close their stores at 8 o'clock, P. M. on and after the 1st of October.

GOOD FOR ALLEN.—The sum of $103 has been subscribed by the citizens of Sheperdstown and vicinity in aid of the sufferers at Norfolk. We are sorry that the movement has not been more generally entered into by our country friends.

The September number of Graham's Monthly Magazine, is without any doubt, a very superior number. The Engravings are such as to command the admiration of the lovers of the beautiful. That of the "Preaching of John Knox," is not only a fine specimen of the skill of the engraver, but creditable to the liberality of the enterprising publisher. The colored Plate of Paris Fashions is all the ladies can desire. The literary contents of the Magazine are diversified and interesting as usual. Its excellencies must make it a universal favorite and welcome visitant in every reading family. The terms are $3 for one copy per year, or 2 copies for $5. Send in your orders to ABRAHAM H. SEE, 106 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

Query.—Do not regular bred physicians prescribe calomel inwardly for sores of different diseases! Dr. ISAAC THOMPSON'S much celebrated EYE WATER. "Its merits stand unrivalled." This old, tried and invaluable remedy for all diseases of the eyes, after having stood the test of over Fifty Years, and the demand for it is still increasing, is now, and has been for the past two years, offered for sale in an entire new dress. Thompson, No. 161 and 163 River Street, Troy, New York, and none other can be genuine. The proprietor has been compelled to make this change in the style of the wrapper owing to the large quantity of counterfeit which for the past few years has been palmed upon the community, and especially at the west. Purchasers are particularly requested to buy none but the above described, and as the reading about the use used has been called in, any found in that form the proprietor does not hesitate to pronounce counterfeit. [Letter from Hon. J. Minor Botts, of Virginia.] RICHMOND, July 9th, 1855.—Messrs. Wm. S. BEERS & Co., GENTS.—Considerations of duty to the afflicted alone prompt me to send you this voluntary testimonial to the great value of "DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR," for that almost incurable disease, SCORFUA. Without being disposed or deeming it necessary to go into the particulars of the case, I can say that the astonishing results that have been produced by the use of that medicine on a member of my own family, and under my own observation and superintendence, after the skill of the best physicians had been exhausted and all the usual remedies had failed, fully justify me in recommending its use to all who may be suffering from that dreadful malady. I do not mean to say that it is adapted to all constitutions, or that it will afford the same relief in all cases; for, of course, I can know nothing about the use of it, but from what I have seen of the effects, I would not hesitate to use it, in any and every case of Scorfua, persons for whom I feel an interest, or over whom I could exercise influence or control. Respectfully yours, JULY 25, '55. JNO. M. BOTTS.

RONN DRESS!—This is a military word of command which never fails to improve the appearance of a company. But it may be applied to civil ranks also; and the citizens of Carlisle we say that the best place to get the right dress to suit the figure, the season, and the purse, is at Rockhill & Wilsons celebrated cheap store, No. 111 Chestnut street, corner of Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

FRESH SHAD.—A few barrels of prime No. 1 SHAD, just received at April 11. WILLIAMS' 77 MILY GROCERY.
