DREADFUL MURDER.

for the past twenty-four hours, been in the most intense excitement, occasioned by two of the most appalling and unprovoked murders on record, the whole object being, it is sup posed, plunder. The victims are Dr. J. F. C Hudel, formerly health officer of Bultimore. but for the last three years a practising physician of this city, and a young man in his office, named Henry Graf. .It appears that on Monday evening the body of young Graf was found in the mountains, a short distance from town bearing the evidence of having been killed by a gunshot wound. The body was recognised and brought to town, and on inquiry, it was ascertained that Dr. Hadel was also missing, and inquiry was made of his friends in Baltimore without obtaining any information in relation to him. In the mean time a German pedlar was arrested on suspi-cion of murdering Mr. Graf, and on searching him the watch and chain, pocket-book, and clothing of Dr. Hadel were found in his possession, leaving no doubt as to his having met with the same fate as his unfortunate young friend. The murderer was arrested at 12 o'clock on Monday night, and the most intense excitment existed until daylight this morning, when a large number of citizens started out to search for the body of Dr. Hadel. search was continued until about 10 o'clock · this morning, when the body was found in the mountains, horribly mutilated. He had been stripped naked, his head out off from his body, and stabbed, besides the mark of having beer shot through the back of the neck.

It appears that the German pedlar who has been arrested on the charge of being the per petrator of this horible massacre is a stranger in Cumberland, and has been boarding at a furmer's house by the name of Steel, near town, for some days past. On Sunday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock this stranger and the Doctor were seen going over the bridge is the direction where the latter was murdered and Mr. and Mrs. Steel say that this man called and got his gun about that hour; it is him some one was very ill, and shot him through the back of his neck, as his coat, found in possession of the supposed murderer. had the mark of a builet through the collar.

Miller, the feindish murderer was tried on Saturday and convicted the same day .-
