Scieverta, Without being disposed or deeming it necessary to go into the particulars of the case, I can say that the as-tonishing results that have been produced by the use of that medicine on a member of my own family, and under my own observation and superintendence, after the skill of the best physicians had been exhausted and all the usual acmedies had failed, fully justify me in re-commending its use to all who may be suffering from that dreadful malady. I do not mean to say that it is adapted to all consti-tutions, or that it will afford the same relief in all casese; for, of course, I can know nothing about that— but from what 1 have seen of the effects.
