

SUIT AGAINST A NEWSPAPER FOR LIBEL.—on the 15th instant, an action was commenced in Philadelphia against the Public Ledger of that city, by one John Donnelly, a manufacturer of friction matches, for libel. It was alleged on the part of the plaintiff that his business, on account of the publication of the alleged libel, had gradually dwindled away, and that he was utterly ruined in consequence. The article complained of was headed "Wife-Whippers," and after a few general remarks on the subject went on to state that Donnelly had "laid such violent hands on his wife as to force her to flee to the police for protection, and that he had been arrested on her complaint and locked up. It is said that the plaintiff's house was surrounded for several days after by a mob of women and children crying, 'Look at the wild beast—the wife-whipper!' The law in the State of Pennsylvania in such matters is, that the greater the truth is the greater the libel. After a hearing of the testimony on both sides, the case was submitted to the Jury, who yesterday brought in a verdict for the plaintiff of one dollar and costs.

DISGRACEFUL OUTRAGE IN KENTUCKY.—The Louisville Courier, of the 14th instant, states that the citizens of Lexington have become very much incensed in consequence of reading an abolition article in the Statesman, copied from a paper in Oxford, Ohio, and purporting to have been written in Lexington, and signed J. B. Ascertaining that these initials were those of a Mr. J. Brady, who was employed as a teacher in one of the city schools, they proceeded in a body of two hundred persons to his lodgings last Friday night, and compelled him to accompany them to the Court House yard, where they stripped him and a large quantity of pitch having been prepared, they applied it to the thickness of one inch to his body. The contents of several bags of feathers were then planted over him and his head shaved close to the scalp, save two locks near the forehead. He was then set loose. The Courier adds: "More severe punishment would have been administered had it not been for the wife of Brady, a beautiful and estimable lady." Mr. Brady applied to a physician to remove the tar, but it was found utterly impossible. He then left for Covington.

EXPLOSION.—A terrific explosion occurred at Pittsburgh on Saturday morning last, about 5 o'clock. The escape of gas from a meter had filled the cellar of a colored man, named Brown, who went down to remedy the defect, and on lighting a match the explosion followed, completely gutting the lower part of the house, and injuring Brown severely. The windows of several houses were broken, and the explosion heard several squares, resembling the shock of an earthquake.

LIEUT. HARTSUFF.—The War Department have advised from Fort Myers, Tampa Bay, Florida, saying that First Lieut. George L. Hartsuff, Second Artillery, reported killed in the late engagement with the Florida Indians has come into Fort Simon Drum. His wounds which were very bad, caused his delay in getting in and the consequent belief that he had been killed. Four men were killed and three wounded in the engagement in question.

THE TRIPLE EXECUTION.—Driskill, one of the three men hung at Lafayette, Ind., last week, was born in Harrisburg, Pa., and was only 23 years of age. Stocking was a New Yorker, and 60 years of age. Rice belonged to Indiana, and was 27 years old.

GAS AND GAS METERS.—A singular fact has just been brought to light in London, in regard to gas meters. A careful examination of the gas works in London has established this fact; that the lower the quality of gas, the greater velocity with which it flows through the meter; that is the quantity registered is increased in proportion as the quality is deteriorated.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills have effected another wonderful cure of Sore Legs.—Anthony Harrison Scard, of Martinsburg, Virginia, was a sufferer for twenty-eight years from sore legs, so bad at times, that human nature could scarcely bear it, as they were covered with wounds and proud flesh. His friends had given up all hopes of his ever regaining the use of his limbs, as he was in so pitiable a state, the more especially as the doctors told him it was constitutional. Having heard from several people the good effects Holloway's Pills had produced in cases of this nature, he made up his mind to give them a trial; after using them for a few weeks, he felt much better, and by continuing them, after two months and a half he was perfectly cured, after being 28 years a cripple, and considered beyond human aid.
