RAKES! RAKES! RAKES! FARMERS, ATTENTION! SANDERS' IMPROVED HORSE-RAKE.

Patented June 7, 1852.—The subscriber, having purchased the interest of his partner, Moses C. Eberly, is prepared to manufacture the above Rake on reasonable terms, at the old stand, opposite the Steam Sawmill. This Rake is simple in construction and not liable to get out of order; it is well adapted, to the raking of hay or This kake is simple in construction and not liable to get out of order; it is well adapted to the raking of hay or grain, and works well in rough or stony ground, having netallic spring teeth. Its operation is most easy and simple—the operator, instead of operating the rake with his hands, rides, and controls it with his feet. Even a lame or laxy person can earn good wages with one of these rakes without much exertion; or a gentleman wishing to amuse himself, can get on his rake, ride about his fields as in his gig, do as much work as any of his hands, and ride back to tea. Persons who have tried this, consider it the cheapest, simplest, and best Horse Rake now in use, and all sold last season gave general satisfaction. It was exhibited at various County Fairs, and at the State Fairs of Pennsylvania and Michigan, and drew the First Premium at each.

Having met with reasonable encouragement last season, the subscriber would return thanks for past favors and solicit all persons in want of a good Rake to give him a call at the Park Foundry, Mechanicsburg, Pa., at the manufactory.

In the evening the Convention reas-sembled at 7 o'clock, when Judge Jessup, of Susquehanna, and John Williamson, of Huntingdon, delivered addresses, urging union and harmony. Judge Wilmot was called up, and, though expressing a desire not to speak, addressed the Convention briefly. He spoke of slavery and its aggressions. He had no desire to interfere with slavery where it existed, but was opposed to its extension. He hoped the Convention would harmonize every interest, and the candidates nominated should have its bearty support.

On motion, the Convention took a recess until 81 o'olock.

CONVENTION RE-ASSEMBLED.

At 81 o'clock, the Convention re assembled, when the names of Dr. Gazzam, John Adams Fisher, Wm. F. Small, O. H. Wheeler and A. W. Benedict were withdrawn as candidates for Canal Commissioner; of Peter Martin and Nathaniel B. Hobart for Auditor General, and William Evans for Surveyor General

RESOLUTIONS Mr. McCalmont from the Committee on Resolutions, reported the action of the Committee. The report was read; and each resolution acted upon separately. As finally adopted, they are as follows: WHEREAS, The freemen of Pennsylvania, opposed to the National Administration, are divided into political organizations, holding on some questions of governmental policy divers opinions; yet it is believed that a large majority of the freemen of this State are agreeed upon the momentous issues forced up on the country by the repeal of the Missouri Compromise; by the undisguised policy of the National Administration to impose by violence and fraud Slavery apon Kausas, contrary to the wishes of a large majority of the inhabitants; and by its unjust, illiberal and Auti-American preference in the appointment of men of foreign birth over those born upon the soil, to offices of trust and honor, as well as in the distribution of its patronage;

And Whereas, Agreement in principle is the only bond that can unite effectively houest men in political action: Therefore, ... Resolved, That, animated by the spirit of concession, we will cordially unite in the support of the candidates to be nominated by this Convention, upon the basis of those principles upon which we are mutually agreed.

Resolved, That the present National Administration, by the exercise of an unwarrantable influence in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, at the instance of solfish and sectional politicians; by the removal of honest and competent men from offices of honor and trust, in order that their places might be filled by inefficient and corrupt partizans; by refusing to protect the freemen of Kansas in the enjoyment of the rights designed to be secured. United States—thereby showing itself powerful for mischief, but feeble in the maintain ance of laws for the protection of the people and the honor of the country-has justly forfeited all claim to the confidence and respect of the people of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, That we will use all honorable means to check the evils inflicted upon the country by the unjust and sectional measures adopted by the present National Administration, brought about by the exercise of its patrounge; that we are utterly opposed to the dmission into the Confederacy of Slave States formed out of territory once consecrated to Freedom; and also to the extension of Slavery into any territories of the United States now

Resolved. That we cordially disapprove of the interference of foreign influence of every kind in our civil and political affairs; and are ernment or people of the United States in the affairs of other nations, regarding any such interference as unwise and in conflict with the recommendation of Washington's Farewell Address, which incalculates with emphatic earnestness, the propriety of avoiding the adoption or any policy which might involve us in unprofitable and dangerous controversies with foreign nations.

Resolved, That we regard the pandering of any purty to foreign influence as fraught with manifold evils to the country, threatening the stability of our institutions and endangering the morals of the people by a contact with the paupers and felons east upon our shores from the hospitals and prisons of Europe.

ine hospitals and prisons of Europe.

Resolved, That as American liberty depends for its preservation on the intelligence of the people, universal education is the first duty of the State, and that all attempts, by whomso-ever made, or from whatever quarter instigated, to destroy such a beneficient system by perverting it to scotarian purposes, or opposing its progress and extension, because it is not the instrument of inculcating any particular religious creed, ought to be resisted as fraught with incalculable mischief and evil. Resolved, That the respect and confidence of this Convention and the people of this Commonwealth are due to the present. Chief mend them to the support of every citizen who faithful public servants.

On motion the Convention adjourned until 9 o'clook to morrow morning.

A resolution was then offered that the ticket be recomended to the support of all persons opposed to the present National administration, which was adopted without dissent, elected H. Jones Brooke of Delaware county

Great outbursts of feeling followed, and enthusiastic congratulatory speeches were made by Messrs Small, of Philadelphia; Howard of Allegheny; Covode, of Westmoreland; Gazzam, of Allegheny, and others. The ticket gives great satisfaction. Mr. Pholps is from the West, and an American; Mr. Laported equally hostile to the interference of the gov- rom the North, and a Republican; Mr. Cochan from the East, and an Old line whig.

The thanks of the Convention were tendered to the President and other officers of the Convention, and the members of the House for the use of the Hall, and to the officers of the House for polite attention.

The Convention then adjourned sine die, with three hearty cheers for the ticket.

In the House, the supplement to the act to incorporate the Germantown Savings Fund passed finally, as did also the bill to incorporate the Pittsburg and Youghiogeny Coal Company. A debate took place on the question of making bank bills a special order, which resolution was negatived.

INTERESTING PAINTING. -The Ship Frigate Rird just arrived at Philadelphia from London, has brought hither a fine original portrait of the famous British patriot and statesman, John Hampden, sont home by the Hon. James Buchanan. It belonged to the Hou. John Mo-Gregor, member of the British Parliment for Clasgow, and is to be presented by him, through Mr Buchanan, to the Congress of the United States. It is one of the only two original portraits of that true patriot, and brave man now in existence, and is said to be of great value.

RAILROAD DAMAGES .- George Never, of Harrisburg, recovered $4000 damages for personal injuries from the Peunsylvania Railroad Company. It appears Never was crossing the track of the road in a covered wagon, when a lecomotive, without warning, came along, shivering his vehicle to pieces and dangerously wounding him.

New Horze. - A palatial hotel is about to be erected in Philadelphia, at the corner of Chestnut and Eighth streets. It is to be six stories high, fronting 174 feet on Chestnut street, and running much further back on highth. It is to be built of white marble. A charter has been obtained for it from the Legislature.

SLAVES FOR KANSAS.—We perceive, by the St. Louis papers, that a steamer arrived there from Louisville, with between fifty and sixty slaves, belonging to families who are on their way from Kentucky to Kansas. The slaves were persons of all ages, sexes and shades of color. The Evening News states that, since Gu opening of the river, full five hundred slaves have arrived from the Ohio river, on Cicir way to Kansas.
