THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

The accounts from Cincinnati represent the city as crowded to overflowing with delegates and visitors to the locofoco National Convention and a perfect tornado of excitement prevailing.

CINCINNATI, June 1.—The confidence of the friends of Mr. Buchanan is increasing hourly, as the time for the assembling of the Convention draws near, and appearances seem to warrant this good feeling.

Another account says the Pierce delegates are very quiet while the friends of Buchanan are confident and boasting. Should President Pierce receive the nomination it is said the Pierce and Douglas men will unite on Mason, Rusk or Hunter in order to defeat Buchanan.

SHARP TALK IN THE SENATE.

The Sumner affair was brought up in the Senate on Tuesday by Messrs. SULLIVAN and DOUGLASS, who replied to the statement of Mr. Sumner...

Mr. Butler, of S. C. who had been absent for some days, appeared in his seat, and remarked that he approved of the conduct of his gallant nephew, and assumed upon himself all the responsibility.

Mr. Toombs of Georgia, also remarked that the conduct of Brooks, met his approval.

Mr. Wade of Ohio, said that it was impossible for him to sit still and hear such principles avowed as had been on this occasion. As to the facts in reference to the assault, he knew nothing about them and had nothing to say on that point.

Mr. Wilson, of Mass. followed with some remarks designed to show that there was nothing inconsistent in the statement of Mr. Sumner with the explanations of Messrs. Douglas and Sullivan.

Town and County Matters.

DEPARTURE OF TROOPS.—Two Companies of U. S. Dragoons, under command of Lieutenants Merrill and DuBois, left the Carlisle Barracks on Monday morning last, destined for Fort Riley in Kansas.

The Hon. L. TODD our representative in Congress, is now at home among his constituents, Congress having adjourned for some days in order to have their Hall fitted up for summer and to allow the democratic members to attend the Cincinnati Convention.

MURDER!—On Saturday night, last, about half past seven o'clock, on Louthier st., a soldier named Richard McGreevy stabbed another soldier named Thomas McGary, inflicting a wound so terrible as to cause the death of McGary, on Monday morning.

REPLANTING CORN.—We learn that a great many of our farmers have been forced to replant their corn this spring. The shoot not appearing at the proper time, examination has been made and the grain found to be in process of decay.

AN EVENTFUL NIGHT.—Saturday night last will be long remembered as an eventful night in our borough. The first and great event was the introduction of the gas into dwellings and stores, which excited a lively degree of enthusiasm and throngs of spectators surrounded those houses which were most brilliantly illuminated.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—Certificate of Ralph Lute, Esq., Editor "Spirit of Times," Ironton, Ohio. Ironton, October 30, 1854.—Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir—The Bitters are in great demand here...

The attention of those are favorable to it, is invited to the call for a County Convention to send a Delegate to the People's National Convention.

INTRODUCTION OF GAS!

The Carlisle Gas works are at length completed and in practical operation. On Thursday night the public street lamps were lighted and on Saturday night the gas was introduced into the various dwellings, stores and public houses...

As many of our readers may not be acquainted with the mode of manufacturing coal gas, we will give them somewhat of an idea how the thing is done. It is much simpler than many people imagine. The gas is distilled from bituminous coal in "retorts," which are oblong cylinders of iron, kept constantly heated to a high degree...

BEAUTIFUL ENGINE.—Mr. John Hendel, of this borough, has just completed and successfully tested a small stationary engine, of about one-half horse power, with two-inch cylinder and four-inch stroke, and embracing entirely new principles in its construction.

Rawlins' Shoe Store is still increasing in popular favor. Its proprietor possesses unsurpassed facilities for supplying its customers with good and fashionable Boots and Shoes at the very low prices peculiar to his establishments both here and in Lancaster.
