PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

MONDAY EVENING, June 16.

The Flour market continues dull, there is little or no demand for export, and standard brands were freely offered at $6 per bbl, without finding buyers, except in small lots; some 400 bbls only were disposed of, mostly for home use, at $6.65 per standard and better brands; selected lots sell as wanted by the retailers and bakers at $6.50; and, extras at $6.75 & 7.50 and $8 per bbl, according to brand, the latter for fancy family flour. Rye flour is dull and nearly nominal at $3.50 per bbl. Corn Meal is steady at $2.50 per bbl or Pennsylvania Meal; some holders ask more; a sale of 200 bbls Brandywine was made at $2.87 per bbl.

GRAIN.—The receipts of Wheat continue moderate, but prime lot, which are scarce, only are saleable at previous prices; some 3000-4000 bus have been disposed of at 140 cents for good to prime red, and 150-160 cents for white, including 1800 bushels of the latter, prime Southern, at 157c, 4000 bushels Pennsylvanian do., at 185c, and some small lots inferior red at 110c. Rye is in steady request, with further sales of 3500 bus. Pennsylvania at 72-73c, the latter about, and some small lots of Southern at 70 cents. Corn is in better demand, with sales to the extent of 10,000-12,000 bushels mostly prime Southern yellow, at 61-cts, including damaged at 40-45 cents, and a lot of white at 50 cents. Oats are in steady demand, and about 3000 bushels sold at 34c for prime Jersey and Delaware.

THE CIVIL WAR IN KANSAS.

St. Louis, Thursday, June 22.—Ossawatomie, a Free-State Town, was sacked by a Georgia mob on the 9th inst. The printing office was destroyed, houses were burned, sixteen horses were stolen, and the jewels were taken from ladies' ears and fingers. Palmyra has also been sacked, and robberies occur daily.

St. Louis, Thursday, June 22.—Messrs. Howard & Sherman, of the Congressional Investigating Committee, arrived from Kansas to day. They are at Barnard's Hotel. Mr. Oliver stopped at Richmond. The Committee were at Westport, Missouri, eight days. While there, large parties of armed men from different parts of Missouri marched through in guerrilla parties into the Territory, and were engaged in robbing, killing, and driving out the settlers.

Gov. Shannon testified there before the Committee. As he entered the town from the Territory a company of 60 armed Missourians were marching into the Territory from Westport. Gov. Shannon went to Kansas city with the Committee, and while there saw without comment a party of Clay county men cross the river and proceed into the Territory, led and well armed.

The Committee have been quiet, but very searching in their investigation. They go to Detroit to remain for several days. The testimony given is said clearly to prove that of the five thousand five hundred votes given at the Legislative election in March, 1856, only eleven hundred were cast by actual residents, and of these the names of but eight hundred appear in the census report.

The Territory is now convulsed, with civil war to sustain laws based on his election.

Col. Sumner is out with United States troops to preserve order. He dispersed several hundred men under Gen. Whitehead, but they re-assembled on the 6th instant and sacked the town of Ossawatomie.

The Free-State men are organizing for self defense. Gov. Shannon has gone to Fort Leavenworth.

The Chicago Tribune has a letter from Camp Creek, Kansas, June 5, stating that two hundred Missourians crossed the river on the Sunday previous, and a battle was expected on the next day, but the report that Col. Lane, with a large force, was one day's march from Lawrence, so terrified the guerrilla party that they instantly recrossed the river to Platte county.

Democracy, as laid down by the Cincinnati Convention and indicated by the administration of President Pierce, is of a peculiar cast. But that the party with all its uniform devotion to southern interests cherishes in its ranks the most determined opponents of Slavery, is shown by the progress of events in the territory of Kansas, where all the leading men of the Free-State anti-slavery party are, or were recently Democrats, as for instance, Robinson, Doolan, Linn, Robertson, Dietzler, in fact all that we have any knowledge of. Many of the prominent men of the Republican party were, but a few years ago, of the same faith, as for instance, Fremont, Blair, Bissell, Trumbull, Chase, Walnut, Grow, Wickham, Preston, King, etc.

ATTENTION DYSPEPTICS.—Those of you who have been afflicted for years with this terrible disease, and who have been using almost any nostrum before the public without relief, we say you try "Kleffer's Anti-Dyspeptic" and you will soon be convinced of its great superiority over every other remedy. We could give you many certificates certifying the value of our assertions, but a single trial is worth more than all. This article is prepared and sold at the Drug store of B. J. KIEFFER, South Hanover street a few feet south of the Courthouse, Carlisle.

To Farmers.

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE!

THE ATKIN'S SELF-BAKING
REAPER AND MOWER will be for sale in Carlisle, by HENRY L. BURKHOLDER, at the following rates: Reaper, $165.; Reaper and Mower, cash, $190.; Reaper and Mower, credit, $195.; Reaper, $180.; $75 on delivery; 875 feet of September; and the balance first of December, with freight from the Factory at Harrisburg. The Atkin's Reaper is built of the best material that can be found, and put up in the best workmanlike manner, warranted to cut grain as well as can be done with the Chaff. Farmers getting Atkin's Reaper do not run the risk they would in buying a Reaper, because they have had grain lifted from a barn roof, and taken off the heaviest and most weighty bundles. It is of easy draught and well built, and I think it will give perfect satisfaction to every farmer that wants one. I would not have any other. W. F. BONNER.

Hanover, Pa., Sept. 29, 1856.

J. S. WRIGHT.—Dear Sir.—The Atkinson's Self-baking Reaper, a good one did its work well, cutting and raking better than I have ever had grain lifted from a barn roof, and taking off the heaviest and most weighty bundles. It is of easy draught and well built, and I think it will give perfect satisfaction to every farmer that wants one. I would not have any other.

J. S. WRIGHT.—Dear Sir.—The Atkinson's Self-baking Reaper and Mower I bought for $165. I am very satisfied with it, and it has given me perfect satisfaction to them all. I cut my harvest with the Reaper, and if I could not get another I would not take one thousand dollars for it. If this is of any use to you, you may use it as you choose.
