THE THIRD ANNUAL FAIR

OF THE BIG SPRING LITERARY INSTITUTE Will be held in Lirauny Hat, Newville, Pa., on the 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th days of August, 1856. To this exhibition farmers, and mechanics, artists and the ladies are cordially invited to contribute the products ladles are cordially invited to contribute the products of their industry and skill.

It has been objected by some, that in the published list of premiums, too high a reward has been offered for the best Plowania, while nothing has been offered for the second bost. In order to obviate this objection, the officers have agreed to the following change, viz: For the best plowing, a two-horse Plow, worth $55; for the Second best, $5 to be paid by the person to whom the first premium shall have been awarded; for the best plowing (by boy under 16). Scientific American. For the purpose of inciting Bayes in the neighboring counties to honorable competition, a Silven E Flat Sofficiants to be best must during the Fair.

The Big Spring Saxe Horn Rand, having procured a set of new instruments, will be in attendance during the Fair to enliven the occasion with spirit-stirring music.

As quite a number of applications have been made for space in which to exhibit, it is desired that those who wish to exhibit many articles should apply for room at assearly a date as possible, 198.

For full particulars send for a copy of the Rules and List of Premiums, which we have jublished in panishlet form.

MPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.-MPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.—

For the last three years I have been engaged in a business known only to myself, and comparatively few others, whom I have instructed for the sum or $200 ench, which has averaged me at the rate of $3,000 to $5,000 per annum; and, having made arrangements to go to Europe in the Fall, to engage in the same business, I am willing to give full instructions in the art to any persons in the United States or Canadas, who will remit me the sum of $1. I am induced, from the success I have been favored with, and the imany thankful acknowledgements I have received from those whom I have instructed, and who are making from FIVE TO FIFTEEN DOLLARS PER DAY at it, to give any person an opportunity to engage in this business, which is, easy, pleasant, and very profitable, at a small cost. There is positively No Humng in the matter. References of the best class can be given as regards its character, and I can refer to persons whom I have instructed, who will testify that they are making from $5 to $15 per day at the same. It is a business in which either

which either LADIES OR GENTLEMEN can engage, and with perfect case make a very handsome income. Several Ladies in various parts of New York Skito, Pognsylvania and Maryland, whom I have instructed, are now making from $3 to $6 per day at-it.

It is a general nusiness, and but a dollar or two is required to start it. Upon receipt of $1, I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular containing full instructions in the art, which can be perfectly

In the month of May last, I sent my advertisement to the editor of the "Reading Gazette and Democrat," Reading, Pa., and also sent him one of my circulars of instructions. On its receipt, and on a caroful examination, he inserted the following editorial in his paper:

"We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. A. T. Parsons, of New York, headed "Imperant to Byay." Short us one of his circulars, alluded to in the advertisement, and on examination we find it, as he says it is, no humburg but a light, easy and honorable business, and one that may be made profitable on a very trilling capital."
