pression of Spirits. The proprietor in calling the attention of the public to this properation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the disease mmended.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has to so new and untried atticle, but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unrivalled by any similar preparations extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most profilment and well known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country

DERANGEMENTS OF THE LIVER AND STOMACH. Are sources of lusanity. From disorder or obstruction, a morbid action of the sympathetic and other nerves follows, and the functions of the brain are impaired and deranged; derangement there will also produce diseases of the heart, skin, lungs and kidneys. It is owing to the same cause that thousands die with Cholera, Billous or victow Fever, and that most baneful disease, Consumition.

Billous or vertow Fever, and that most baneful disease, Consumption.

The general want of success in treating diseases of the liver and something of their functions—but of a suitable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathetic afections. That has been gained in these Bilters: and they can be used by persons with the most deficate stomach with perfect safety—as they at no time dominate the patient, but give strength and increase the nervous energy. They can be taken at all times, and under all circumstances. No ordinary exposure will prevent them having a salutary effect, and no bade doct can result from an ever dose.

If patients will persevere in the use of this remedy, and use a strictly according to directions, it will cure the foregoing diseases in every instance, if not beyond the power of medicine; it has caused many to enjoy the blessing of renewed health, and in many desporate and aband and cases, a perfect and radical cure.

HUMAN LIFE SAVED!

Downgiac, Mich., Mar. 11, 1856.

A. RHODES, Esq. Doar oir, As 1 took your medicine to sell on consignment, 'no care no pay,' I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received.

W. S. Conklin told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christile, torus Brisson and continually run down cline to selective to stating as a pleasure in stating as a positive in this place, and the process of five in this place, and the process of the station of tive through another chill. The dectors too did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got khodes kever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and naussa at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

If. M. C.N. Liln says—"I had been taking medicine of as a good a dector as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good results, from 25th of August to 17th of December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of ill DES FRYER AND AUGE CURE, which effected a permanent care by using two-thirds of a bottle of the case was the same as II. M's. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity; and I might so specify. Yours, with respect.

A MUNTINGTON.

The above speaks for itself.—Good proof as it is, it is of no better tonor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater to continuit that is continuity and in the still greater to continuit that is continuity and in the still greater to the same and the still greater to the same and the still greater to continuit that is continuity and the still greater to the same and the still greater to continuity that is continuity and the still greater to continuity that is continuity and the still greater to continuity that is continuity and the still greater to the same and the still greater the still greater the same and the still greater to the same and the still greater the same and the same and the still greater the same and the same and the still greater the same and the sa

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Caution the Publish these words—
"I notice one from who has taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nestrum for my medicine, and then with brazen inpudence order their panepoles with the exclamation, Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares."
Now I take pleasure in saying that the Caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trush all that I-publish about my fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the Certificates of Cures, and of the celebrated

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES!

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES!

DB. CHIESEMAN'S PILLS.

The combination of ingredients in these Pills is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain of restering nature to its proper chanuel. In every instance have these Pills proved successful. They invariably open those obstructions to which females are liable, and being nature into its proper chanuel, whereby health is restored and the passes and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless the is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a reusedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. To ladies whose health will not remit of an increase of their finality, these pills will prove will also a increase of their finality, these pills will prove will here are the cause of the heart, longituding of one of the cause of the heart, longituding of one of the cause of the heart, longituding of one of the cause o

Boradam, Gray & Co.'s Piano Forts.—We age so well pleased with the instruments made by this firm that we have determined to be instrumental ourselves, that is, in rurnishing our subscribers and others with an article that we can recommend and warrant. There is always a difficulty attending the purchase of planos, because persons cannot rely fully upon the recommendations they receive from manufacturers, who are interested, of course, in the sale of their own manufacture. Now, we are not interested in the matter in any way, except so far as to see that those who patronize our wook, while well served with the best planes under For a list of prices see cover, at which amounts we will send Pianos, warranted for one year, the freight to be paid by the persons ordering. We annox a letter received from a gentleman in Virginia, to whom we sent one of these Pianos.—

"L. A. Goder, Esq.—Dear Sir—I have great pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of the Piano Forte which you were so good as to order for my wife from Buardman & Gray's. It was delayed for some time at Winchester; but I am happy to say, that it came in excellent condition. We are decidedly pleased with the instrument. The rosewood is of a beautiful quality: the case is plain (we like it the better for it); the touch is very easy for a new instrument, and the tone is firm, clear and sweet. All who have tried it, admire it and speak in the highest terms of its mellowness and sweetness of tone. We deeply rogret that we did not order the 'Attachment' we must have it yet.

GIVE HIM JESSIE.

The Detroit Daily Advertiser, under the hend of "Go it Jessie," thus alludes to an exciting incident in the life of the Pathfinder of Empire:

Col. Tom Benton is a great man, sir ! He always has been a great man since he has been any man at all. He was a great man, and a Senator from Missouri, with a house at Washington, when John C. Freemont, was a poor draughtsman and mappist. Fremont would not have dared to propose to Col. Benton to run away with him. Such a thing would not". have occurred to him, for he regarded Col. Benton with becoming awe. But Col. Benton had a daughter, a sweet and amiable girl, of whom young Fremont was not at all in awe. He had passed many an evening in her company, and the oftener he saw her the oftener he wished to see her. Love overcame timidity, until one day he found himself hat in hand, with heated breath, in the presence of ; the Great Tom Benton, asking him for his daughter. But Tom Benton would not do it. He was inexorable, and he refused to do what in a few days afterwards he was ready to do -Tom refused to "give him Jessie" He also forbade Fremont the house; but that the draughtsman cared little for, because it, was not the house he wanted. Finding all persussions useless, the young couple determined to be married clandestinely, and so they, set about the preliminaries. They found the protestant clergy over-awed by the awful digulty of Col. Benton, and afraid to act; but they found a Catholic priest, who stood in no such fear, and the knot was tied Just before the decisive step was taken, and while her last step lingered upon the paternal threshold. the sweet daughter's heart yearned for the mother, who she was thus abruptly leaving, perhaps forever, and she hung her head and sobbed; the carriage door stood open, the horses pranced, and another moment, and all might have been lost. "Go it Jessie" was the word from the bridegroom; the bound was made from Benton to Fremont, (a great leap at that time;) the horses tore the pavement in their flight; the night wore on;

"They'll have fleet steeds who follow," thought the young draughtsman, as his arm encircled Jessie, and he looked at that moon under which so many strange things have transpired. Col. Benton waked in the morning, descended to the breakfast table, but found no Jessie. Her room was explored, but no Jessie was found, and her bed had not even been occupied. There was the great Col. in a great rage, sir. He frothed and foamed and roared and ranted; perhaps be swore; Hs promised he'd give the rascal a cowhidinghe'd give him six years in the penitentiary. he'd give bim-" You had better give kim Jessie," was the quiet suggestion of the mother -perhaps she was above half right.

A CASE OF "SIGNIFICATION," OR A PRESI-DENTIAL CAND'DATE METAMORPHOSED INTO A PLATFORM.—The following which transpired a few days since at Easton, Pa., is worth imparting: The two old associates, who had in former years worked shoulder to shoulder in the phalanx of the unterrified, chancing to meet, and fegling a natural curiosity, in these changeful days, as to each other's present political whereubouts, a brief colloquy ensued: ·

"Well, Judge," says the first, interlocutor. where do you stand? You go for Buchanan, I suppose !"

"Sir," tesponds the other, " there is no man I have thought more of than Jim Buchanan. I should like to vote for Jim Buchanan, and I would go for Jim Buchanan if he was running; but as he isut a candidate, I must go for some oue else."

... Not running! not a candidate! Why Judge I am w little dull ; I shall have to ask for an explanation."

"It's plain enough. I said Jim Buchapan was not running, and I have his word for it. sir. Jim Buchanan has extinguished himself; changed, merged, transmogrified himself into a platform. Don't he say so himself in his acceptance of the Cincinnati nomination? I tell you it is not Jim Bachanan, air. but the Cincinuati Platform that is running; and as I don t like the platform, and have a fanoy for voting for a men, I shall go for Premont, sir!"

An Indulgent Mothes. -- Mr. G. W. Kendall, of the New Orleans Picayune, is answerable for the following :--

"The most indulgent mother I have heard of lately lives some two-and-a-half hours' drive from San Antonio, on the left. It was a long time before she would admit that her eldest and best beloved boy, a refractory and turbulent little fellow, richly merited a Sagellation; and when she finally gave in that he was entitled to to course of sprouts, abo contended that he should be put under the light ence of chloroform before the saplings were applied. Solomon, with all his wirdom, was behind the present fastinge in administrating to preemto detinquente Many acquirements
