VOICE OF CLAY AND WEBSTER!

Henry Clay on Slavery Extension. In his great speech on the Compromise measure, on the 6th of February, 1850, HENRY CLAY thus emphatically declared his opposition to all designs for the extension of Slavery: "I repeat that I never can, and never will, and no earthly power will ever make me, vote to extend Slavery over territory where it does not exist. Never while reason holds a seat in my brain, never while my heart sounds the vital fluid through my veins. NEVER—NEVER—NEVER."

Henry Clay on Buchanan. In Mr. Clay's private correspondence, published last year (p. 617), in a letter to D. Ullman, dated June 14, 1851, he says as follows: "Of the candidates spoken of on the Democratic side, I confess that I should prefer Gen. Cass. He is, I think, more to be relied on than any of his competitors. During the trials of the long sessions of the last Congress, he bore himself firmly, consistently and patriotically. He has quite as much ability, quite as much firmness, and, I think, much more honesty and sincerity than Mr. Buchanan."

Daniel Webster on Slavery Extension. As coming appropriately in this connection, we quote a brief passage from DANIEL WEBSTER'S great speech on March 7, 1850—also his last great effort in the Senate. He said: "Sir, wherever there is a substantial good to be done wherever there is a foot of land to be prevented from becoming Slave territory, I am ready to arrest the principle of the extension of Slavery. I am pledged to it from the year 1837; I have been pledged to it again and again; and I will perform those pledges."

THE HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH.—We perceive by the last number of this excellent paper that Messrs. McClure & Sellers have disposed of their interest in it to Messrs. GEO. BERGNER & Co. The new proprietors assert their intention of preserving the integrity of its political principles pure, and that they will use their utmost abilities in favor of "freedom, free speech, and free territory." We are glad to see that the services of Col. McClure are to be retained as associate Editor. We wish abundant success to the new establishment.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.—The extra session of Congress came to a close on Saturday. In the House, Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, reported a new Army appropriation bill, with a proviso restricting the appropriation so that it should not be used to enforce the Kansas laws: In this shape it passed and went to the Senate, where the proviso was stricken out. On its return the House concurred in the bill, with the proviso stricken out, by a vote of 101 to 98. This ended the struggle and both Houses immediately adjourned.

PERRY COUNTY.—The Buchanan men of Perry have nominated Gen. Henry Vetter for the Senate, C. C. Brandt, for Assembly, and James Woods for Sheriff. The nomination of Dr. Abl for Congress was also concurred in.

FOUL SLANDER AT ITS WORK.

The gallant young leader of the great host of Freedom, Col. FREMONT, is now the object of the most unmeasured vituperation. He is in turn assailed as a defaulter, a swindler, a foreigner, a Catholic, and almost every thing else that is considered bad. The most determined effort is made to show him to be a Catholic. It is of no avail that it is proved that he was brought up baptized, confirmed, and is a regular attendant of the Episcopal Church. It is of no avail that Lieutenant Governor RAYMOND, of New York, and the Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER have published letters, after a personal interview with Colonel FREMONT, denying, in the most explicit and positive terms, that he is a Catholic or has any leaning in that direction. The charge is reiterated with as much assurance and impudence as if it had not been denied. It is certainly a most extraordinary thing that he cannot be allowed to be a Protestant but must be forced to being considered a Catholic against his own will! It has been asked why does not Col. FREMONT silence all cavils, by a written denial that he is a Catholic? For the very good reason that this, in effect, has been done through his friends, and especially because no man who affects to believe that he is a Catholic, would believe it a whit the less if he should deny the charge over his own signature. Those who charge him with being a Catholic do not wish to be convinced. The charge is made for political effect, and it will be persisted in so long as any political capital can be gained by it.

Again he is violently assailed as a swindler and defaulter. His old accounts with government are again raked up and made the basis of allegations of fraud and swindling. One of these transactions is clearly explained in an article in another column. But if Col. Fremont is a defaulter why have we not heard of it before he became a candidate? And why has not the government indemnified itself for losses from a man of Col. Fremont's reputed wealth? The reason is that these charges of fraud and defalcation are entirely groundless. They are now trumped up for political capital. But the career of the glorious young Pathfinder of the Rocky Mountains is onward and the suffrages of Freemen will develop his lofty destiny!

WHITE AND BLACK LABOR.

The great object in opposing the extension of Slavery to new territory is to keep free white workingmen from being forced into degrading competition with Slaves. It is not sympathy for negroes, but for white men. Every laboring man who ever hopes to be able to settle on a farm of his own in the rich soil of the far south-west should therefore aim to make Kansas and the other new territories free. The relation of free and slave labor is well illustrated in a little story told by Col. Lane, a western orator:

He says he was going down the Ohio once on a flat boat in company with a carpenter. The latter wished to get work in Kentucky, and going on shore they stopped at the door of a planter and asked for work. "My dear fellow," said the planter to Col. Lane's companion, drawing himself up with his fingers in the arm holes of his waistcoat, "I would like to hire you, but the truth is, I bought two carpenters yesterday."

LANCASTER.—A union ticket was nominated in Lancaster county on Thursday last. Hon. A. E. Roberts was nominated for Congress, and Messrs. William Hamilton, John A. Hiestand, P. W. Housekeeper, C. S. Kauffman and J. D. Pownall for Assembly. It is a good ticket and will be elected by the old fashioned majority.

A TELLING SPEECH.—The Volunteer devotes nearly a column to an abusive notice of Gov. Ford's recent speech in the Court House. We need no better evidence of the fact that it was a telling speech, pleasing many of our democratic friends and rousing the friends of Fremont to renewed energy.

A MANLY REBUKE!

The stale cry that the election of Fremont would lead to a dissolution of the Union never received a more withering rebuke than in the manly and noble speech of the Hon. Henry Winter Davis, a member of Congress from Maryland, in the House a few days since. Coming from a representative of a slave-holding State his eloquent language is pre-eminently worthy the attention of Northern men. We quote a brief extract from his speech:

"There are men who go about the country declaiming about the inevitable consequences of the election of Fremont; and the question is asked whether that simple fact is not sufficient, not merely to justify, but to require a dissolution of the Union. The question has been asked me to-day. That is a question which I do not regard as even a subject of discussion. It never will be done while men have their reason. It never will be done until some party, bent upon acquiring party power, shall again and again exasperate, beyond the reach of reason, the Northern and Southern minds, as my Southern friends have now exasperated the Northern mind. It would be an act of suicide, and sane men do not commit suicide. The act itself is insanity. It will be done, if ever, in a tempest of fury and madness which cannot stop to reason."

"Gentleman ask, if Mr. Fremont be elected, how will Maryland go? What will Maryland do? I do not allow that question to be asked. She knows but one country and but one Union. Her glory is in it. Her rights are bound up in it. Her children shed their blood for it, and they will do it again. Beyond it she knows nothing. She does not reckon whether there is more advantage in the Union to the North or the South—she does not calculate its value—nor does she cast up an account of profit and loss on the blood of her children. That is my answer to that question."

"But, sir, is it not portentous to hear the members of a party contesting for the Presidency, menace dissolution and revolution as the penalty they will inflict on the victors for defeating them. People who do not hold the Union worth four years' deprivation of office, are scarcely safe depositaries of its powers!"

There is no doubt but thousands in other Southern States besides Maryland will regard the election of Fremont with as little fear as does Mr. Davis.

EXTREMES MEETING.—Buchanan's friend, Toombs, of Georgia, says that "the election of Fremont would be the end of the Union, and ought to be." Wendell Phillips, the great abolitionist, is opposed to Fremont because, he says, his election would "retard the dissolution of the Union." These two extremes are both really hostile to the Union's existence, and would sooner see it destroyed than have it administered on a broad National basis, doing justice to all sections, as Fremont promises to do.

YORK.—A Union County ticket we are glad to see has been put in the field by the friends of Fillmore and Fremont in York county. The candidates for Assembly are, B. H. Mosser, Nicholas Seitz, and J. W. Johnston. For Prosecuting Attorney, Henry Clay Alleman.

BURLINGAME!—I don't neglect to read Burlingame's thrilling speech on the second page of to-day's paper, and after you have done hand it to your neighbor. We hope to have the pleasure of hearing this stirring orator in Cumberland county before the election.

PHILADELPHIA.—The Hon. C. B. Penrose has been nominated for the Senate in one of the Philadelphia districts. Mr. P. was an ornament to the Senate in its palmiest days and we should record with pleasure his return to it.

STATE ELECTIONS.—The State election in Vermont took place yesterday. The State election in Maine takes place next Monday.

DOINGS DOWN SOUTH.—It is stated in a Columbia, Miss., paper, that a man named John Dubury had been arrested in that place, charged with circulating the speeches of Messrs. Sumner and Seward, in the United States Senate, among slaves, and adds that the punishment of this crime is ten years hard labor in the penitentiary! The truth probably is, that the speeches were intended for the poor white population of the South, whom slavery keeps down on a level with the negro. There could be no motive in circulating them among the slaves, very few of whom can read, and we venture to say it was not done.

ABANDONING FILLMORE.—The Union County (Pa.) Star, one of Mr. Fillmore's organs, says it has been undecieved by the recent elections in regard to Mr. Fillmore's strength at the South, and as the contest is narrowing down to Fremont and Freedom, or Buchanan and Slavery, it will not sanction the attitude of Mr. Fillmore, in the present struggle, but go for Fremont.

Town and County Matters.

AMONG HIS CONSTITUENTS.—The Hon. Lemuel Todd, our Representative in Congress, returned to town on Monday afternoon last. Mr. Todd's course in Congress has been distinguished by great faithfulness to principle and attention to the wants of his constituents. A man of his ability does honor to his district, and large as was his majority when elected, the signs of the times indicate that he will be again returned by an equally handsome majority.

FREMONT CLUB.—A meeting was held at the public house of Wm. Winboltz, on Saturday Evening last, for the purpose of organizing a Fremont Club. Maj. JACOB RHEEM was called to the chair, and J. M. Allen, appointed Secretary. Mr. Thomas Richards, from a committee appointed for the purpose, reported a constitution and by-laws, which were unanimously adopted. The following persons were then chosen officers of the Club, viz:

- President—J. S. COLWELL, Esq. Vice Presidents—George Ege, Samuel Wetzel, Henry Myers, Jacob Duey, D. R. Keller, Peter Weibly. Recording Secretary—James W. Piper. Corresponding Secretary—Wm. C. Rheem. Treasurer—John D. Gargas. Executive Committee—William Bents, Joseph D. Halbert, Henry Glass, E. Beatty, S. Caldwell, Henry A. Sturgeon, Dr. J. K. Smith, George Berg, Jacob Rheem.

The preamble to the constitution declares the club to be pledged to the support of the Union State and County Tickets which have been nominated, and to be in favor of the nomination of a Union Electoral ticket which shall unite all the opponents of James Buchanan and the Cincinnati Platform. The Club then adjourned to meet on the following Saturday night at Glass's Hotel.

ANOTHER SUICIDE IN PRISON.—Abraham Miller, the white man, arrested for the murder of John Kissel, of East Pennsboro township, under the circumstances detailed in our last paper, committed suicide in prison on Monday night, by hanging himself. The difficulty with which the terrible deed of self-slaughter was accomplished shows plainly the harrowing agony of remorse which must have goaded the wretched man to the act. Not having any rope he used his handkerchief, which he made fast to a bar above the door of his cell. The height at which it was fastened did not admit of his suspension without touching the floor, and we learn that when found his head and shoulders were resting against the door, with a sloping inclination of his body forward, which threw his feet a considerable distance out upon the floor. An inquest was held by the Coroner, Mr. Thompson, who found a verdict in accordance with the facts.

His taking of his own life may be regarded as a confession of guilt on the part of Miller. The negro who was arrested and is still in prison testified before a magistrate that Miller acknowledged having committed the murder, and other circumstances which would have been developed at his trial tended strongly to fasten it upon him. In committing suicide he has probably only anticipated the dread penalty of the law. The startling event affords another illustration of the fearful consequences of crime.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE.—The Democratic Standing Committee met on Thursday last and nominated Michael Cooklin, of Allen township, for Associate Judge, in place of Judge Rupp. Messrs. Clemens McFarlane and George Heudel, we understand, still remain in the field as independent candidates for the same station.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—Mr. Andrew Lehey, of this borough, was robbed of $2500 while on his way from Philadelphia to Harrisburg in the cars on Sunday night last. He had the money in a package in his pocket and fell asleep during the night. On his arrival at Harrisburg he discovered to his dismay that the money was gone.

SENTENCE OF MCCREAVY.—John McCreavy, who was last week convicted of murder in the second degree, for taking the life of James McGary, was sentenced on Wednesday, by Judge Graham, to imprisonment for five years in the Eastern Penitentiary.

DAN RICE COMING!—Dan Rice's great show will be here on Monday next. The many attractions and novelties combined in this far famed exhibition are fully detailed in the advertisement which will be found in another column. Dan Rice's show is one of the most popular in the country and will not fail to draw a crowd.

NEXT MEETING OF THE FREMONT CLUB.—The next meeting of the Fremont Club will be held at Glass' Hotel.

PRESTON S. BROOKS AGAIN.—A Washington

correspondent of the Tribune states that on Wednesday night Preston S. Brooks, with a companion, accosted several gentlemen at Willard's hotel, and inquired for Sage and Morgan, of New York, two members of the House saying that he wanted to find them, and if he did he would pull their noses and break their heads, and as he spoke he flourished his cane and displayed a bowie knife. He looked into several rooms, and left with different persons, insulting messages to be delivered to the gentlemen, who were instantly notified of the movements of Brooks, so that they would not have been taken by surprise. Both of these gentlemen have characterized the assault of Brooks upon Mr. Sumner at various times as they deemed it deserved, and hence the cause probably of Brooks' conduct. When Mr. Brooks was called upon by some of his more discreet friends next day, and arraigned for his conduct, he said he did not remember having thus conducted himself; that he was excited with wine, and expressed his deep regret if he had, under the circumstances, offended any one.

FREMONT IN WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.—A private letter, dated the 8th inst., to a gentleman of Philadelphia, from an intelligent and well-informed correspondent in Allegheny county says: "All looks bright for the Republican ticket here. Allegheny county, from present indications, will fall little, if any, below six thousand majority. Sanguine friends claim still more. Beaver, Crawford, Erie, Lawrence, Mercer, Warren, Indiana, Armstrong, Jefferson and Forest, will go very heavily for FREMONT. Washington and Fayette will also carry. Even Westmoreland is doubtful, and I feel pretty sure of all the Western counties, except Greene, and perhaps Clarion. I have not heard authentically from Venango, Elk, &c., but they are said to be doing well. Fillmore will have but a trifling vote. If the East does but half its share I do not think it possible even that Buchanan can carry the State."

THE CROPS AND WEATHER IN EUROPE.—The accounts of the crops in Europe, received by the Africa, are very favorable, not only from Prussia, but from all Germany. In some places the harvest, it is stated will be more abundant than for the last twenty years, the magnificent weather which had reigned for the first week in August rendering the satisfactory result certain. England had been visited by terrific thunder storms, but for several days previous to the sailing of the steamer the weather had become clear and hot, under the influence of which the crops were rapidly ripening. In London the weather was hotter than for ten years previous. The harvest in England, a circular says, will not be general before next month.

CONGRESS IN WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.—The people of Western Pennsylvania have displayed their good sense, as well as ardent attachment to the principles of freedom, by renominating nearly all their old members. Hon. David Ritchie, of this district; Hon. S. A. Purviance, of the Allegheny and Butler district; the Hon. Jonathan Knight, of the Washington district; Hon. John Covode, of the Westmoreland district, and Hon. John Dick, of the Erie district, have all been renominated for re-election. Hon. John Allison of the Berwick district, having declined, Mr. Stewart of Mercer has been nominated, and Mr. Myers, of Venango, has been nominated in that district in place of Mr. Barclay, and will doubtless be elected.

FREMONT IN WISCONSIN.—The Milwaukee Sentinel claims to be within bounds in saying that at least two thirds, and probably a larger portion, of the American born farmers, mechanics and laboring men in Wisconsin are heartily enlisted under the banner of Fremont and Freedom. "As to our adopted citizens we have with us the great majority of our Scotch, a good share of the English, almost all the Welsh and Hollanders, and two thirds, if not more, of the Norwegians. Of the Germans, especially in the northern section of the State, we shall get a fair share."
