to this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommonded.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a ton years, trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is univaried by any similar preparations extruit. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense.

DERANGEMENTS OF THE LIVER AND STOMACH. DERANGEMENTS OF THE TIVER AND SIGNACH Are sources of insanity. From disorder or obstruction, a mirbid action of the sympathetic and other increase follows; and the functions of the brain archapared and deranged; derangement there will also produce disease of the heart, skin, lungs and kidneys. It is owing to the same cause that thousands the with Cholera, to the same cause that thousands are with chosens. Billous or Yellow Fever, and that most baneful disease.

billous or Yellow Fever, and that most baneful disease, Consumption.

The general want of success in treating diseases of the liver and stemach; has not been a deficiency of pathological knowledge of their functions—but of a surable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathetic affections. That has been gained in these litters: and they can be used by porsons with the most delicate stomach with perfect safety—as they at no time debilitate the patient, but give strength and increase the nervous energy. They can be then at all thous, and under all circumstances. No ordinary exposure will prevent them having a salutary effect, and no bad effect can result from an over dose.

If patients will persevere in the use of this remody, and use it strictly according to directions, it will care the foregoing diseases in every instance, if not beyond the power of meatinne; it has caused many to enjoy the blessing of renewed neatth, and in many desporate and abandoned cases, a perfect and redical cure.

This is more than can be said of Quinine, Arsenic, or any other tonic in existence, as their usa's ruinous to the constitution and brings on DUMB AGUE, which never allows a person to feel perfectly well for a single moment. In illustration of those truths I annex some extracts from a letter just-received from a Physician: Organizows, Onto, March 17, 1550.

JAS. A. RHOADS. Esq.—Dear Sir: Yours of 24 inst., is at hand. The Cure arrived late last year, and the difficulty in getting any one to purchase it was greatly increased from the fact that a remedy had been introduced which was growing in favor with the public as being better than using Quinino—not knowing, I presume, that the remedy they used to escape taking Quinine contained the PRUG ITSELF!

Whis remedy (known as "Smith's Tonic,") would invariably BREAR an Ague, but it did not Cure it, as it would often return with remewed vigor. This one circumstance I deemed in your favor, if I could institute a test comparison between it and your CURE. The following is the result;

These pursons took your "Cure," all of which were a test comparison between it and your CURE. The lowing is the result;

Three persons took your "Cure," all of which were cases of "Quotidian Intermittant Fever," of many weeks standing. They had tried Quininb and other remedies, occasionally missing a chill, but it was (as in all such cases.) slowly wearing them out, and laying the foundatin no other and soverer maindles. I did succeed in effecting a radical cure of all three of these cases with your remedy, and they have not had a chill since. In, all three of these cases the "Smith's Tonic" had been used, and would, as before stated, break the chill, but after a period or two had elapsed it would return.

I think there will be no difficulty now in giving to your "Curo" the vantage ground of any other remedy your "Curo" the vantage ground of any other remedy now in use here, &c., &c. WM. THE SWEARER REBUKED .- Sydney Smith, the late lamented prelate and pre-eminent satirist of the follies and vices of his time-(and the present,) while travelling in a stage coach one day, was long annoyed by a young man who had acquired the polite art of swearing to such an extent, that he could not help interlarding his discourse with it as though itwere a constituted part of the language. As there happened to be a lady present, the matter was doubly annoying.

After enduring the young man's display for some time, Smith asked the company to be permitted to tell them a little anecdote, which e thus commenced:

"Once upon a time (boots, sugar-tongs and tinder boxes,) there was a king who (boots, sugar-tongs and tinder boxes,) at a grand hall (boots, sugar tongs and tinder boxes) picked up the Dutchess of (boots, sugar-tongs und-tinder-boxes, Shrewsbury's garter (boots ugar tongs and tinder boxes,) and said -Honi soit qui maly (boots, sugar tongs and inder boxes,) pense,' which means in Enlish, Evil to him who (boots, sugar-tongs nd tinder boxes,) evil thinks.' This was the rigin of (boots, sugar-tongs and tinder boxes) ie order of the garter."

When the witty clergyman had concluded, ie young gentleman said : "A very good story, sir-rather old-but hat the devil has 'boots, sugar-tongs and uder hoxes to do with it?"

"I will tell you, my young friend," anvered Sidney, "when you tell me what d-n my eyes, etc., have to do with your onversation. In the mean time, allow me to iy, that is my style of swearing." . The young blasphemer at once dried up.

How to BE MISERABLE. - Sit at the window nd look over the way at your neighbor's exellent mansion, which he has recently built nd paid for, and sigh out, "O, that I was a ich man ?"-Get angry with your neighbor, and think you have not a friend in the world. Shed a tear or two, take a walk in the burial ground, continually saying to yourself, When shall I be buried here?" Sign a note for a friend, and never forget your kindness; and every hour in the day whisper to yourself, 'I wonder if he will pay this note?". Think every body means to cheat you. Closely exmine every bill you take, and doubt its being genuine, till you have put the owner to a great deal of trouble. Believe every shilling passed to you is but a sixpence crossed, and express your doubts about getting rid of it, if you should take it. Put confidence in nobody, and believe every man you trade with to be a rogue. Never accommodate, if you can possibly help it. Never vist the sick or afflicted, and never give a farthing to the poor. Buy as cheap as ou can, and screw down to the lowest mill. drind the faces and the hearts of the unfortunate. Breed over your mistortune, your lack of talents, and believe at no distant day you will come to want. Let the work-house be in your mind, with all the horrors of distress and poverty. Then you will be miserable to your heart's content, (if we may so speak,) sick at heart, and at variance with all the world. Nothing will cheer or encourage you; nothing will throw a gleam of sunshine or a ray of

HORRIBLE SCENE AT A BROADWAY HOTEL. We learn upon pretty good authority, that a terrible scene occurred last Monday morning as one of our most respectable Broadway hoand A weathey and influential merchant of cais city, wine tood for six years lived with a lady of some beauty and accomplishments, suddenly discarded her for a new face that had caught his fancy and won his affections. This new favorite he conveyed to the hotel in question, where both remained as man and wife. The forsaken lady, learning the place and position of her successful rival, boldly took lodgings at the same hotel, and seeking her opportunity, last Monday morning, as soon as her faithless lover left the house, she entered the room where her rival lay in bed, and with a large knife out off one of her breasts! She then plunged the knife into the . wounded woman's hosom, and with such force that she could with difficulty wrench it out. The piercing screams of the assailed party, soon attracted a crowd of servants and boarders, when the would-be murderess was arrestoo and her viotim placed in the hands of a surgeon, A bank-book containing upwards, of four thousand dollars was found upon the person of the culprit. Such extraordinary efforts have been made by the police and others, to keep the whole affair from the public, on account of the respectability of the merchant alluded to, that we found it impossible ... to obtain the names of the parties implicated, and we withhold the name of the hotel for obvious reasons. warmth into your heart. All will be as dark and cheerless as the grave.

" How do you get along with your arithmetic?" asked a father of his little boy. "Tre ciphered through addition, partition, subtraction, distraction, abomination, justification, hallucination, derivation, amputation, ereation and adoption." He'd do for an engeneer. on the short line railroad.
