RESOLUTION PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments are reported to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

There shall be an additional article to said Constitution to be designated as ARTICLE XII.

SECTION 1. The State may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts direct or contingent, whether contracted by virtue of contracts or otherwise, shall not exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was contracted, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 2. In addition to the above limited power the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to redeem the present outstanding bonds of the State; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 3. Except the debts above specified, in section one of this Article, no debt whatever shall be created by or on behalf of the State.

SECTION 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt, contracted as aforesaid, the Legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the State, or the proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sales of stocks owned by the State, together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the State, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, insurrection or invasion, no part of the said sinking fund shall be applied otherwise than to the discharge of the debt of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

SECTION 5. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or association; nor shall the Commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.

SECTION 6. The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township; or of any corporation or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

SECTION 7. The Legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, by virtue of a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association, or corporation; or to obtain money for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution, or party.

SECTION 8. There shall be an additional article to said Constitution, to be designated as article XII., as follows:

ARTICLE XII. OF NEW COUNTIES. No county shall be divided by a line cutting over one-tenth of its population (excluding from a new county or other) without the consent of the electors of the county, by a vote of the electors thereof; nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

SECTION 9. From section two of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words "of the city of Philadelphia, and of each county respectively;" from section three, same article, strike out the words "of the city of Philadelphia and of the several counties;" from section seven, same article, strike out the words "of the city of Philadelphia nor any;" and insert in lieu thereof the words "and no;" and strike out section four, same article, and in lieu thereof insert the following:

SECTION 4. In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred, shall be appointed and distributed equally throughout the State, by districts, in proportion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred taxable may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided, and no part of a district. Any city containing a sufficient number of taxable to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts of contiguous territory, of equal taxable population, so near as may be, each of which districts shall elect one representative.

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts, of contiguous territory as nearly equal in taxable population as possible; but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof." The Legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such districts to remain unchanged until the next session of the Legislature in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

SECTION 10. The Legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke, or amend, any charter of incorporation hereafter conferred by, or under any special or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be necessary to the citizens of the State, and to amend, alter, or repeal, any law, that no Justice shall be done to the corporations.
