DISTINGUISHED VISITERS .--- A military Court of Inquiry is now in session at the Carlisle Barrucks, composed of several distinguistied officers of the U.-S.-Army The veteran Gen. Chunchill, Inspector General, is President of the Court. The other members nre Col. TAYLOB, Assistant Commissary General, and Col. J. L. GARDNER, of the first Regiment of Artillery, Col. THE COUNTY FAIR. - It is certainly very-gullant-in our neighbor of the Volunteer to give the ladies such high praise as he does for their contributions to the recent Fair, but in his impulsive gallautry he should be careful while culogizing the beautiful not to do injustice to the practical. We think if he gives the following extract, which we take from his notice of the fair, a second reading, he will acknowledge that it is a rather too sweeping condemnation of the agricultural department :

department : And now, a few words in reference to the agricultural department of this agricultural Fair. The exhibition of horses was large but so far, as we could judge, poor. With the ex-coption of a c-uple pairs draft horses, two or three tolerable suddle horses, and two or three stallions, it was nothing to brag of. There was a number of very good milds on exhibi-tion, nid one pair, owned by Messrs Ahl's, of Newville, attracted much attention, and! were the best on the ground. Of eattle it is scarce of the Kentneky heifeff exhibited by Mr. Dan-id Abl of Newville, there were none on the ground worthy of note. The same may be sail of swine: sheep there were name. It is a fact, and it is, with reluctance that we pairs the heat on whedment, that the farmers, of this county, generally speaking, appier to take no the neknowledgment, that the farmers, of his county, generally speaking, appear to take no pains whatever to improve their stook, and hence it is that this feature of the Fait amoun-ted almost to a failure. We shall not do our neighbor the injustice, while taking exceptions to a portion of his remarks, to suppose that he has any other than a friendly feeling toward the society. But it must be remembered that our County Society is in but the third year of its organization, and that it is manifestly the duty of the press to extend to it a fostering handper bbl. while not afraid to blame, to be vet- more under the spur of competition, to rapidly adyance to superiority If there is no improvement in five or ten years later then we may question the utility of the Agricultural Associsation. The officers of the society have thus far shown themselves truly working men. The President, Col. Paxton, is a most energeticand efficient officer. The Treasurer and Sec retary, Messrs. Sheaffer and Watts, and the Executive Committee, are untiring in their exertions, giving valuable time to promote the success of the annual exhibitions. The report of premiums for this year will be found in full on the last page of to-day's paper.
