

The Popular Vote for President.

The following table, compiled mainly from official sources, and which we suppose to be nearly if not entirely accurate, gives the votes cast in the several States on the 4th of November last for Electors of President and Vice President of the United States:

Table with columns: State, Electors, and Votes. Lists states from Maine to California with corresponding electoral college votes and popular vote counts.

The Electoral College of the different States, with the exception of Wisconsin, met pursuant to law on the 2d ultimo, and cast their votes in accordance with the expressed will of the people of their respective States.

We learn from Harrisburg this morning that the Senate was organized yesterday by the election of Mr. Tappan, of Northampton, Republican, as Speaker, who on taking the chair made a capital speech.

The Governor's Message will be delivered to-day, at 12 o'clock. It is enclosed in an extra Herald. It is an excellent document, but we have not room this week to speak of its merits.

Mr. Buchanan's Movements.

Mr. Buchanan, it is said, has fixed his time for going to Washington about the 15th of February, which will allow him a fortnight for conference among his friends before the inauguration.

We are really quite under obligations to our neighbor of the American, for publishing so conspicuously a long paragraph from the Harrisburg Telegraph, speaking in complimentary terms of the Herald.

We see the name of WILLIAM E. FRAZER, Esq., Senator from Fayette and Westmoreland, favorably noticed for the office of Canal Commissioner.

The Philadelphia papers are very justly becoming aroused at the cheapness of human life in that city. Several murders have recently been committed in the most public streets there.

The Harrisburg papers contain a formidable list of applications for bank charters, from which we learn that there are eleven applications for banking privileges for Philadelphia, on an aggregate capital of $14,300,000.

Both branches of Congress were in session on Friday of last week, but did not do anything of importance. They adjourned over till Tuesday.

Court and County Matters.

OMITTED.—A number of new advertisements are unavoidably omitted this week.

TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.—The proceedings of this association will be found on our first page. They will be read with interest by all friends of education.

MELANCHOLY CASUALTY.—The continuation of the very reprehensible practice of firing guns and pistols, which was kept up not only through the preceding night but next day, led to a fatal disaster in our borough on New Year's Day.

NEW YEAR'S EVE.—The "noise and confusion in town, on New Year's Eve, was greater than we ever remember to have experienced on any similar occasion.
