

ed upon the night wind from the latticed case- the admission of a man, was not by any means P. M. Second Preshytecian (Thurch, Oster of Sonth 1 annow and Fom retatient. Rev. Mr. Kalls, Tactor. Services commence at Hoclock, A. M., and J. o'clock P. Ma St. John's Church, (Foi. Episcopal) northeast angle of Contro Stature. Rev. Jacob B. Morss, Rector, Services at 11 o'clock A. M., and 3 o'clock, P. M. "English Lathernn' Church, Hedford between Main and Fourbactereta. Between Proc. Parton. means of the great, who were contented, in the uncalled for or over squeamish. Had he been, days of their Lion Queen, to portion out their howover, much more inclined to linger by the hours for toil or merriment, for action cr ro- way than his old fashioned courtesy permitted, pose, according to the ministration of these he would have been a bold man to delay, for great lights, which rule the heavens with an twice ere he could cross the floor, to her chamindifferent and impartial sway; and register ber did his name reach his ears in the impahis brief curver of moments, to the peer as to tient accents of Elizabeth. "Hunsdon ! I say the peasant, by one unvarying standard, A -- Huusdon ! 'sdeath, art thus orippled, whn ?' solilary lump burned dim and cheerlessly be- . There was little of the neatness or taste of fore a low browed portal in St. Stephen's; and modern days displayed in the decorations of a solitary warder, in the rich garb still pre- the royal chamber. Tapestries there were, served by the yeomen of the guard, walked to and velvet hungings, carpets from Turkey, ofeach and fro, with almost noiseless stops, his cors- and hugo mirrors of Venetian steel but a plenlet, and the broad head of his shouldered par- tiful lack of linen, and of those theusand 4.5 1072 A. M. 4.F When changes in the above are necessary the proper persons are requested to notify us. tisan, flashing momentarily out from the shad- | nameless comforts, which a poasant's dame ows of the arch, as he passed and repassed be- would miss to day, uncared for in those rude nenth the light, which indianted the royal resi times by princes. Hugo waxen torches flured DICKINSON COLLEGE. dence, distinguished by no proud r decora- in the wind, which found its way through the Rev. Charles Collius, President and Professor o tions of her, before whose wrath the mightiest ill-constructed lattice ; and a greater proporof Europe's sovereigns shuddered. A pile of tion of the smoke, from the logs smouldering the clumsey fire arms then in use, were stack- in the jaws of a chimney, wider than that of a d beneath the eye of the sentinel, and the modern kitchen, recked upwards to the blacklark outlines of several bulk, figures, out- oned rafters of the unceiled roof. Rigid and stretched in slumber upon the parement, haughty, in the midst of this strange medley Language-Samuel D. IIIIman, Principal of the Grammar School James P, Marshall, Assistant in the Grammar School scomed to prove that some occurrences of late of negligence and splandor, sat the dreaded had called for more than common vigilance in monarch, appronaled by none even of her most the guarding of the palace. The prolonged invored ministers, save with fear and tremb-BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS. cry of the warder, tolling at each successive ling. Her person, tall and slender-from-bor Andrew-Hisler-President, H.-Saxton-Pe-Quigley, Ez-Cormian, J. G. Williaus, J. Hamilton, Secretary, Jason W. Eby, Treasure, John Sphar, Messenger, Meet on the 1st Monday of each Month at 8 o'clock A. M. at Ed-ucation Hall. our that all was well, had scarcely passed his ourliest years, and now emaciated to almost lips, bofere the distant tramp of a horse, and superbuman leanness, by the workings of her the challenge of a sentry from the bridge, own restless spirit even more than by her cause heavily up the wind. For a moment the years, presented an aspect terrible, yet mag-CORPORATIONS. yeoman listened with all his senses, then, as it nificent withal. It seemed as though the Became evident that the rider was approach - dauntless firomess of a more than masculine ing, he stirred the nearest sleeper with the soul had won the power to support and anibutt of his heavy halbert. "Up, Gilbert | up mate a frame which it had recould from the man, and to your tools, ero they be wanted. grave. It seemed as though the years which Leiby. CUMBERLAND VALLEY RAIL ROAD COMPANY, --- President, Frede lek Watts: Secretary and Treasurer, Edward M. What though the earl's proud head lie low, he had blighted had failed in their offorts to deatts: Secretary and Treasurer, Edward M. Brintendent, U. N. Lull. Passenger trains Eastward leaving Carlisle at 6.39 o'clock bath triends and fautors enough in the city, 1 stroy ; it seemed as though that fuded tonetrow, to raise a doil when'er it lists them !" | mont of clay might yet endure like the blasted The slumbers of the yearen were exchanged, oak for countless years; although the summer ou the instant, for the guarded bustle of pre- foliage which rendered it so beautiful of sore, M. Bostem: Directors, F. Watts, Richard Parker, Von. B. Tode, Wm. M. Reeten, Dr. W. W. Dalo, Franklin Jardner, Henry Glass and P. W. W. Dalo, Franklin Jardner, Henry Glass and P. W. W. Dalo, Franklin paration, and before the horseman, whose ap- | had long since been southered by the wild auproach had caused so much excitement, drew tumnal hurricane or scared by the nipping el Todd, Wm. M. Hosten, Dr. W. W. Dalo, Franklin Gurdner, Huory Glass and L. M. Biddle. UDMUSTLAND VALLEY BASK --Preidont, John S. Stor-rett, Cachier, H. A. Sturgeon; Tolker, Jos. C. Holfor,--Directors, John S. Storrett, Wm. Ker, Michael Bren-man, Richard Woods, John C. Dunjap, Robt, G. Sterrett, H. A. Sturgeon, and Captain John Punjap. bridle at the palace gale, a dozen bright sparks | frosts of winter. Her eye alone, in the generglimmering under the dark portal, like glow- al decay of her person, retained its wonted worms beneath some bosky coppice, aunounce brilliancy, shining forth from her pale and ed the readiness of as many levelled match-

Daugherty, Pastor. Services in conego compos, ac-o'elock A. M. and 4 o'clock, P. M. Roman Catholic Church, Pomfret near East street, Rev. James Eirrett, Pastor. Services on the 2nd Sunasy of each month. German Lutheran Church corn w of Pomfret and Bolford streets. Rev. I. P. Naschold, Pastor. Service

Moral Science. Roy Esteman M. Johnson, Professor of Philosophy and English Liferature. James W. Marshall, Professor of Avelout Languages. Roy, etts H. R.Lay, Professor of Mathematics. William C. Willion, Professor of Natural Science and Carster of the Museum. Alexander Schem, Professor of Hebrew and Moder

CARLISLE DEPOSIT BANK,-President, Richard Parker Cashler, Wm. M. Bedtam; (Jerks J. P., Hasler, N. C. Mus-solm u, C. W. Reed; Directors, Richard Parker, Wm. B., Mullid, Hugh Stuart, Thomas Paston, R. C. Woodward, John Sanderson, Moses Bricker, Abram Bosley, Jacob

twice a day. Eastward leaving Carlisle at 630 o'clock A. M. and 610 o'clock P. M. Two trains every day Westward, leaving Carlisle at 10,00 o'clock A, M., aud 2.20 P. M. Caulast Cas and Wargs Company.—President, Fred-locks.

forth with •"

-1-----

"Stand ha! the word"-

SOCIETIES. Cumberland Star Lodge No. 197, A. Y. M. meets at Marion Hall on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of every Month.

hns Lodge No 200 A. Y. M. Meets 3d Thurs Carlielo Lodgo No 01 1. O. of U. F. Meets Monday evoning, at Trouts building.

> FIRE COMPANIES. . 🏞

The Union Fire Company was organized in 1789. resident, E. Cornman; Vice President, Samuel Wet-Cornman; Vice President, Samuel Wet ary, A. B. Ewing; Treasurer, Peter Mon mosts the first Saturday in March, June A December. ul, st.; Se ompany meets er, and December. maberland Fire Company was Instituted Fabru-300. President, Robert McCartuey; Secritary, ulgley; Trefavurer, H. S. Ritter, "The company the third Saturday of January, April, July, Ary 18, Phillip

meets on the third causary of a second secon

RATES OF POSTAGE.

×.

Postage on all letters of one-helf ounce weight or un-der, 3 conts per paid, except to Calificial er oregen. Mach is 10 contexprepaid. Postage on the "Herald"-within the founds, "frie-Within the State 10 cents per year. Toom, per of the Jinited States 20 cents. Postage on all transfer page-inder 3 ounces in weight; 1 cent pre-print or the cen-ungraid. Advertised letters to be charged with the cen-of advertising. anpaid, A.

. . .

withored features with a lustre so remarkable as to appear almost supernatural. "Sol give us the letter-there! Pause "A post to her Grass of England," was the not for thy knes, man ; give us the letter, and irregular roply, as the rider, hastily throwing tearing the frail band, by which it was secured bimself from off his jaded hackney, advanced asunder, she was in a moment entirely entowards the yeomen. grossed, as it would seem, in its contents. Her "Stand there !-- I say--- no nearer on your countenance waxed paler and paler as she life I shoot, Gilbert, shoot, an' he stir but a read, and the shadows of an adjumn morning flit not more changefully across the landsonpe, band breadth !" " Tush I friend, dolay me not," replied the as cloud after cloud is driven over the sun's atruder, halting, however, as he was required disk, than did the varying expressions, of anxo do. "My haste is urgent, and that which liety, doubt and sorrow, chuse one another I bear with me, passeth ceremony. A letter from the speaking lineaments of Elizabeth. " Hali !" she exclaimed after a long pause, to the queen 1 On your heads be it, if I meet mpediment. See that yo pass it to her Grace " This must be looked to, see that our barge be manned forthwith, and tarry naught for-. " A letter, hal-there may be some device aught of state or ceremony. Thyself wilt go in this-jet pass it hitherward." A breas with us, and stop not thou to don thy newest parchment, secured by a fold of floss silk, with fashioned doublet ; this is no matter that its deeply sealed was attached, was placed in brooks ruffling. 'Bdeath man 'tis life or death, his hand. A light, was obtained from the and now be gane, sir! We lack our tire wu

hatch of a cavalier, and the superscription, | man's service." evidently too jugeriant for delay, hurried the An hour had not elapsed before a barge, guards to netton. " The Earl of Nottingham," easily distinguished as ono belonging to it et rab, " to his most high and sovereign lady, royal household by its decorations and the ______

.

......

unbuling and anlashing beneath the durk had been particul auring the latter iws and lowered portcullis of the traitor's period of her malady, had been restored to its gate, that fatal passage through which so full vigor, on the preceding evening; but the may of the best and bravest of England's no- jouly lruit of its restoration was the utmost an bility had entered agver to return. guish of mental suffering, and conscientious Brief as was the moment of their transit in remorse. From the moment when the mesfront of that sad portal, Hungdon had yet time scoger, whose arrival we have already witto mark the terrible expression of misery, al. nessed, had been despatched on its nocturnal most of despair, that gleamed across the feat. mission, she had passed the time in fearful ures of the queen. She spoke not, but she struggles with the last foe, wresting as it were wiung he hands with a sigh that uttered vol- bodily with the dark angle now pleading with umes of repentance and regret, too late to be the Almighty, and adjuring him, by her sufavailing; and the stern old chamberlain, who ferings, and by her very sins, to spare her vet a ltttle while ; now shricking on the name of felt his heart yearn at the sorrows of a misrese whom he loved no less than he revered, Elizabeth, and calling her, as she valued her soul's sulvation, to make no Tong tarrying. Inknew that the mute gesture and the painful sigh were extorted from that masculine bosom the opinion of the leeches, who watched around only by the extremity of anguish. She had her pillow, and of the terrified preacher, who communed with his own heart and was still, not looked upon that "den of drankards with her life was kept up only by this fierce and fethe blood of princes " since it had been glutverisli excitement." ted with its last and noblest victim, the princely, the valiant, the generous, and the noble At a glance she recognized the queen, before another eye had marked her entrance. Essex, the favorite of the people, the admired 'Hab !" she groaned in a deep sepulchral of men. the idel, the cherished idel, of Elizatones, "she is come, before whose coming my beth, had gone, a few short mount before guilty soul had not the power to pass away through that, abhorged gateway-bad gone to She is come to witness the domnation of an die, had died by her unwilling mandate. Bit. immortal spirit ? To hear a, tale of sin and ter and long had been the struggle between her wounded pride and her succes affection; sorrow, that has no parallel! Hear my words, between her love for the man and the wrath O queen, hear my words now, and laughagainst the rebel ; thrice had she signed-the lough if you can, for by Him who made us utal warrast, and as often consigned it to the both and is now dealing with me according to my merits, never ! never shall you laugh lames; and when, at length, her indignation pravailed, she affixed her unme-to-the-fell again ! Heroafter you shall groan, and weep, and tremble, and curse yourself as I do ! croll, after the execution of which she never miled again. That indignation was excited Laugh, I say, Elizabeth of England, laugh now not so much by the violence of his proceedings or never longh again !

For a moment the spirit of the queen, managainst her crown, as by his obstiunte delay in claiming pity and pardon from an offended ly strung as it was, beyond perhaps all preceout indulgent mistress. Onward, onward they don't, was fairly overpowered, and cowed, by vent, the light boat dancing over the waves the intensity of the dying woman's manner. that added to its speed, the onnwass fluttering Not long, however, could that proud soul quail merrily, and the swell which their own velocity at any created thing.

excited, laughing in their wake. It was a "'Fore God, woman," she cried, " thou art ime and a scene to enliven any botom, to bewitched, or desperately wicked! What in nake every English heart bound happily and the fiend's name mean ye ?"--proudly. Vessels of war and traders, galliot " In the fiend's name truly, for he alone inspired me! Look here, and then-pardon me, and caraval, and barque and ship, lay moored in the centre of the pool and slong the wharves | Elizabeth ; in God's name, pardon me."

the thousand dwellings of a floating city. As she spoke, she held aloft, in her thin, All this Elizabeth herself had done, for the and bird-like fingers, a massive ring of gold, ummerce of Eugland was the fruit, of her from which a sapphire of rare price Fisamed fostering; the power of her courage and sa- brilliantly, casting a bright dancing speek of blue reflection upon her hollow, ghastly, feagneity, the mighty navy of her creation. They passed below the dark broadsides and | tures. " Know you," she screamed, " this assive armaments of forty ships of war, some token ?"

"Where got you it, woman ? Speak, I say, of the unwonted bulk of a thousand tons, with the victorious flags of Howard, Hawkins, Frospeak ! or I curse you ! Where got you that same token ?" The proud queen shook and bisher, and Drake, streaming from mast and shuddered as she spoke like one in an ague fit: yard, but not a smile chased the dull expres-"Essox !" sighed the dying counters through sion of fixed grief from the brow of her who her set teeth, "the murthered Essex !" and "marred the Armada's pride," nor did

"Murthered ! God's death, thou liest ! He the slightest symptom on board her three most chosen vessels, the Speedwell, the Trywas a traitor-done to death-Oh God! Oh right, or the Black Galley, the very models of God-I know not what to say !" and a big the world for naval architecture, show that the tear drop, the first in many a year, the first queen and mistress of them all, was gliding in perhaps that over had bedewed that iron check, such humble trim below their victorious bat- slid slowly down the face of Elizabeth, and fell teries. The limits of the city were already heavily on the brow of the glaring sufferer, left far beyond; green mendows and noble who still held the ring aloft, in hunds clasped trees now filled the pluce of the crowded haunts close in attitude of supplication. "Speak, of wealth and industry, while here and there Nattinghum, what of --- of Esser ?" lordly dwelling, with its trim avenues and | That ring he gave to us, to bear it to thy tornaced gardens sloping to the water's edge, | constool, and to pray a gracious mistreas' fa-

place and preach to the people; not being disobedient to the heavenly vision, I went in my One of the most curious and unecountable ream as I was directed; but when I tried to facts is the difference of taste and opinion. in peak I could not say a word. I just then dist various parts of the world, in regard to what covered that I had swallowed my big Tennes- constitutes the special and predominant elesee wagon, and the great pole stuck out of ment of human beauty. Thus, the Chinese my mouth. I now began to pray the best way admires only the form that is fattest and coarcould, and the Lord came right down before sest-the eves must be small and flat, the Il the people and took away the great stiff nose short and ears long-and the feet usepole, and put in its stead a nice limber Yankee lessly small. In Spain, some of the women longue, which was as the pen of a ready wriperfume their hair with sulphur, and soak ter, and I began to thresh the mountains fill their black curls in a strong lye to make them they all became emooth prairie. Then I awoke red. Among the Indians of South America, it and have hever once doubted my call to is beautiful to have a flat face, --- and they nearpreach.' -ly-smother-their-infants-by-sitting-on-their

"This is told in much better language than Mr. Adger is given to using when addressing his style of oratory and illustration, as reported to me by one who heard it:

the Lord said to me I must go to a certain grace, allers in grace; an my tex you mought their eye teeth for the purpose of insorting ind, of you had Bibles and knowed how to ond, somewhar in the second part uv Samwel the Marianness Islands, it is superb to have which reads a follers: "He maketh my feet, black teeth and white hair. Certain Tarter as hene, feets" which you all know has got three tribes, embroider their visages, as French olaws before, an' ony one behind; so it is unpossible to slide backwards as it would be for coon to come down a tree head first; unless e slipped and fell down. Speakin' uv coons uts me in mind uv somethin' to tell. Last ummer I killed a coon in my corn field an' saved the skin. This winter I brought the faces representations of flowers-ornamental skin to town; but all the storekeepers said it was uv no account, cause it was kotched in the judged by some one or other of the world's sadu't much fur on'to it but it was a big skin ful-different persons fixing their admiration an' I tue great pains in skinnin' on it; an' I on very different forms of beauty. For one an' I tue great pains in eannin on it, and on very different forms of boundy. I have a solution on very different forms of boundy. I have a solution on very different forms of boundy. I have a solution of the system of the sys couldn't get a pic for ii, an' at last I gav it to of forchend is the only charm. One looks for wouldn't havd it after I guy it to him. couldn't think uv throwin it away--that would s wicked; an' I was awfully bothered till I bit on a plun which I thought was just the thing I put it loose in my outside pocket an' started for hum : but I hadn't gone fur before I felt i working out. . I didn't look around when it droped for the idee was to lose it; but I was tickled enough when I found it was clean gone at last. But who can describe my feelinks when a boy came runin' an' hollerin', " Mr Adger! Mr. Adger! here, a your coon-skin!" "Just so, my brethering, with religion. When a man has wunst got it, he can't sell it; e can't give it away; he can't lose it! Wunst in grace, allers in grace. He maketh our feet is hens' feet.".

2007 Mister, will you lend on your news-paper ? he only wants it to send to his uncle the country.' 'O certainly-and ask your' hard it is to find true-ympathy-how few will father if he'll just loan me the roof of his befriend us in misfortune ? Then it is that house ; I only want the shingles, to make the we think of the mother we have lost. tea kettle boil.' · hen_ An Irich sailor once visited a city there, he said, they coppor bottumed the tops of their houses wit sheet-lead !'

1959. Ain'tthisalunnyline.

faces when they are first borne. to flatten his people. The following is a specimen of in another tribe on that same continent, it is their features before they lose their softness; beauty to have the leanest of lanthorn jaws "My brethering, I am gwin to preach you. Macasser pulut their teeth black, green, and sermon on the glorious dootrin us wunst in red, and the exqusites of that country extract false ones of gold, silver, or pinchbeck .- In women stitch their boots, and Arab beauties prick their lips till they bleed, and then insert black powder in the wounds. In Greenland the youthful misses tattoo their chins with colored radii. spreading from the under lip coars. There is no women therefore, who. many and diverse standard, who is not beauti-beauty in a nose, a second for beauty of hands a third for beauty of feet.

THE MOTHER.

Despise not thy mother when she is old. Age may wear and waste a mother's beauty, strength, limbs, senses, and estate ; but "her relation as a mother is as the sup when it goes forth in his might, for it is always in the meridian, and knowth no evening. The person may be gray headed, but her motherly relation is ever in its flourish. It may be autumb, yen, winter, with a woman, but with the mother, as mother, it is always spring. Alas, how little do we appreciate a mother's tenderness while living ! How heedless are we in youth of all the anxieties and kindness But when she is dead and gone-when the cares and coldness of the world come withering to our hearts-when we experience how

259_ BACT, FUN, AND FANOY .--- A country girl, writing to her friends, says, of a polks, "that the daucin' does not amount to much, but the huggin is heavenly."

103 Industry will over croate and make more lasting fomale beauty. Same half a stand and a stand of the stand and a stand and a stand at the stand at the stand at the stand at the