To Renders and Correspondents. We have appropriated a large portion of our first page to the proceedings of the Conven tion, recently held at the Farmers' High. School, in Centre county, for the election of three Trustees.

. The remarks of Judge Watts, in reply to vote of thanks from the Convention, will be found extremely interesting and practical; and the spirit which seems to have animated the representatives of the several county societies, shows that the people are waking up to the Importance of this enterprize.

To the liberality of Gen. Irvin, Judge Watts and few other choice spirits, in Pennsylvania, this Institution owes every thing at present, It rests on the people now to second their efforts; if this is done, it will not be long until a Model Furm School will be established in our State, on a firm basis, the beneficial results of which will be felt through every grade of so-

MASS MEETING

AT CARLISLE.

On TUESDAY afternoon, the 29th inst. Owing to the inability of Judge Wil mot, from want of time, to meet all the engagements made for him, previous to the election, the State Central Committee, have found it necessary, to withdraw the appointment made for Mechanicsburg, on the 28th and have thought proper to unite the two appointments, by a general Mass Meeting, at Carlisle' on Tuesday afternoon, the 29th of this month, when Mr. Wilmot will address his follow citizens of Cumberland County.

Let every one feel that it is his duty to be present on that occasion. Let no offort be spared to secure a large atten-

The cause of Wilmot is the cause of the people. Come then and hear the truth from the man who is not afraid to define his position on the Stump.

Let his reception be worthy of the man and the cause. Come, old Line whigs, Americans, Republicans and Democrats. Come all who wish to hear a full and eloquent exposition, of the patriotic principles of the Republican party, by the

An adjourned meeting of the Wilmot' Club was hold at Glass's Hotel on Saturday evening, the 19th inst. Jacob Rheem was called to the chair, and C. P. Humrich, Esq , appointed Secretary.

George Zinn from the committee appointed at a previous meeting, reported the following gentlemen as permanent officers of the Club.

President-Jacob Rheem.
Vice Presidents - Sumuel Wetzel, Charles Flenger.
Secretaries—E. Bentty, T. D. Muhon.

Treasurer—John D. Gorgas.

Ex-Committee — Jas. S. Colwell, William
Bentz, Jos. H. Blair, A. Loudon, John R.

The report was unanimously adopted, and the meeting was addressed by C. P. Humrich, Jacob Rheem and others, after which the Club adjourned to meet at Heiser's on next Saturday evening. YORK COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR .-- The annual exhibition of the York county Agricultural Society, will commence at York, Pa., or Wednesday the 7th of October, to continue four days. The list of premiums offer rare inducements to competitors without regard to locality, and articles intended for the exhibition will be transported by the several rail coad Companies, free of expense. Our old friend Dr. Wm. S. Roland, is th Becretary of the Society, to whom we are under obligations for a complementary ticket: We hope Cumberland county will be well represented at the York County Fair, as it will enable them to extend invitations to the York County Agriculturists to visit the exhibition of the Cumberland County Society at Carlisle, on the 14th of October.

THE REPUBLICAN CREED.

The Locofoco papers, from one end of the State to the other, during the entire convass have been busy in denouncing David Wilmot and the Republican party, as abolitionists. It has formed the key note for locofoce harangues from the rostrum, and locofoco lenders from the press, as the result of a concerted effort to gull the people into the belief that Judge Wilmot, and those who sustain him, are identifled with the fanatical party known as abolitionists. To quiet these gentlemen, we give the Republican creed, as defined by David Wilmot himself, in his speech at Philadelphia. It harmonises with every sentiment uttered by the Republican press of Pennsylvania and the man who opposes it is a heretic to the political faith of his fathers.

I am a State's Right man up to the hub. I am a State's Right man up to the nuc.

From this position, neither threats, promises nor slanders, shall cause the Wilmot party to swerve an inch. However much they may differ on minor questions, while this great question of the extension of Slavery remains unsettled, they will do battle together in a common effort to vindicate TRUTH and RIGHT and FREEDOM, while there is a fee to centend against or enough of free-soil left to give them.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21, 1857. DEAR HERALD: The monetary paule ha continued during the week with increased fury

Failures, susponsions, and assignments have, occurred every day since my last letter was penned, and I regret to say that a large majority of our leading business houses have been compelled to allow their paper to go to protest. It is but necessary to mention the failures of such houses as Joseph Ripka. Hos kins, Hieskill & Co., Aaron S. Lippincott, Hacker, Lea & Co., John Farnum & Co., and Thomas P. Remington & Co., to show the extent of the present financial crisis. The knowing ones gave us to understand each day that for the purpose of running it by steam, and the panic had reached its height, but each succeeding day brought denial to these asser tions, and on Saturday more paper was pro tested than ever before in this city. We are indebted to the kindness of a friend, for the perusal of this very elaborate | we and highly instructive work, which has already gone through cleven editions." The author commences with an alphabotical enumeration and location of all the Indian tribes and Nations in North America, which, with a learned disquisition on the origin, antiquities, manners and customs of the Indians, including liberal quotations from all the writers on this subject, is comprised in Book I, Books II and III, are devoted to the history and biography of the New England Indians, Book IV to the history and biography of the Southern Indiane, and Book V to the Iroquois, or five nations. and other tribes of the west, embracing a large fund of information in regard to the various wars and treaties between the Indians and the settlers, with incidents of border life, anecdotes and personal reminicences of celebrated Indian chiefs, and English and American officers from the earliest settlement of the country, to the close of the "Black Hawk" war. The work is complete in one volume, and illustrated with numerous engravings, among which are portraits of Benjamin Church, Sir William Johnson, Pocahontas, Red Jucket, Osceola, &c., &c. It is certainly one of the most facinating books we have ever read, and should find a place in every library. Wood, the renowned discoverer of the invaluable Hair-lectorative, still continues to labor in behalf of the afflicted.

It is medicines are universally admitted by the American uress to be far superior to all others for causing His medicines are universally admitted by the American press to be fir amporor to all others for causing the hair on the aged that has been silvered for many years, to grow forth with as much rigor and luxuriance as when blessed with the advantages of youth. There can be no doubt that it is one of the greatest discoveries in the medical world. It restores permanently gray hair to its original color, and makes it assume a beautiful silky texture, which has been very desirable in all ages of the world.—St. Louis Morning Herald.
