IVERY ONE knows how a tea-table or avening circle is enlivened, by the coming incof an intelligent man, who knows att. THE NEW IDEAS AFLOAT, and tells them, briefly, gayly, and, odi-hand, into way of ordinary conversation. Such a person gives you the substance of the baily papers, in three or four sentences—tells you the plan and moral of a new book in a dozen of words—gives the plan and moral of a new book in a dozen of words—gives the beginning the spirit of an article in a review, the novelty in fashion, the last turn in politics—all briefly, and all without detail or flummery—leaving it with you, as material for your own discussion and gossip. This is just what we propose to do for the Home Journal for 1858. We mean to jet down, for our readers, in the fewest words possible, every new idea that falls in our, way, As we read, as people drop in and talk, as we look about in our walks: we shall—be on-the looken't for—ideas-and-by, we used to lay such a memoranda ande, to write about if we should find time—mow; we shall give them by our readers, to begin the shall give them to our readers, to begin the way, the subscriber to the Home Journal will stand a change of the paper will be confined that popular. One of the worm in children, there is no surer, safer or speedler remedy in the world, as it never fails. There is no exaggeration in these statements; they are plain soher facts, that we can give sydence to prove, while all who use it are giving their unaulmous testimony in its favor.

We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicles as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever and all Fevers of a Billious Type. Il operates with certainty, and thousandsare willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

Among the hundreds of Liver Remedies now offered to the public there are none we can so fully recommend as Dr. Samford's Invigorator, so generally known now thoughout the Union. This preparation is truly, a Liver Invigorator, producing the most happy results on all who use it.
