

WILLIAM M. PORTER, Editor. ) D. R. COOVER, Proprietor.

1000 · · · ·

he pantomime !'

dies did poundy.

heir-envehamed darts

BY ELIZABETH DAVIES.

VOL. LVIII.

TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

The Cantists HERALD is published weakly on a large sheet containing twenty eight columns and furnished to subscribers at $1.50 i paid strictly in advance is $1.76 if paid within the year; or $2 in all cases, when pyment is delayed until after the expiratio's of the' year. No subscriptions received for a lass period than six months, and none discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the publisher. Papers sort to subscriptions up of the publisher. Papers bound the subscriptions of the publisher. Papers is a source to a strange of the publisher and county must be paid for in advance or the puyment assumed by some responsible person living in Chuberhand coun-ty. These terms will be rigidly adhered to in all inset.

Advertisements will be charged $1.00 per square of subsequent insertions. All advertisements of less than welve lines considered as a square? Advertisements inserted user of source of line for first inserted and 20 cents for each atbsequent insertions. All advertisements of less than twelve lines considered as a square? Advertisements inserted user of for subsequent insertions. All advertisements of less than the winge, and thrusting their noses where they are not while it. "That is something to rejoice at indeed. I don't object to our own hallet-hallies; but to have the e extras" intruding into the green-time five lines, will be positively, quite ?" the Herald JOB PRINTING OFFICE is the ist and in st complete establishment in the count of good Presses, and a general variety of mate-of for plain and Fancy work of every kind, enable of blob Printing af the shortest notice and on t as to device Printing at the shortest notice and on the next reasonable terans. Persons in whit of Bills, Blanks or anything in the Jobbing Jue, will find it to their interest to give us a call. Every variety of Blanks constantly on hand.

JOB PRINTING.

general and Local Information.

U. S. GOVERNMENT. Picelalent-JAMES BUCHANAS. Vice President-JOHN C. BUZGENEIDER, Seoretry of Suite-JOHN C. BUZGENEIDER, Seoretry of Interior-JUCON THOMSON. Seoretry of Treasury-Hawkit COER. Sucretary of War-JOHN R. FLORD. Secretary of War-JOHN R. FLORD. Secretary to Insey-Ist Not Tolectr. Post Master Gineral-JACK BROWN. Attempt Guneral-JACKSMICH S. BLOCK. Chief Justice of the United State-14, B. TANEY.

STATE GOVERNMENT. GOVERNOR-WILLIAM F. PACKER. Secretary of State-William M. HEISTER. Surveyor General-Joins Hows. Amiltor General-Joins Hows. Treasurer-HERNY S MOREN. Judges of the Supremic Court-E. LEWIR, J. M. ANM TRONG, W. B. LOWRIE G. W. MODEWARD, W. A. PORTER.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

President Judge-Hon: James II<sup>o</sup>Graham. Associate Judges-Hon. Michael Cocklin, Yondhuce Vordiuri: District Attorney—Wm. J. Shearer. Prothonotary—fkilip Quigley. Recorder & C. Enorminger. Register—N. N. Enorminger. High Elerrill-Jacob Bowman: Deputy, J. Homming

County Treasuffer-Moses Brickere Coroner-Mitchell McClellau. County Commissioners-William M. Henderson, An aw Kerr, Samuel Mogaw. Clerk to Commissioners mex-Armstraine.

BOROUGH OFFICERS.

Chief Burgess-William Cart. Assistant Burgess-Francis Erkels. Twen Council--J. M. Parker (President) John Gut-shall, Robert Voore, James M. Allen, William Cameron, John D. Görges, Mile et Holeomo, Michael Minich, John D. torgan, steam of the second s

CHURCHES.

First Presbyterian Church. Northwest angle of Cen-s Auarof. Rev. Conway P. Wing Fastor - Services started, as the voices of the Ladies aroused her er, Sanday Morning at Divelock, M. aud 7 of otok Trom her reverie; and as she become sware of P. M. Second Presbyterian Church, corner of South , anover, the nature of the conversation that was, going and Pointrat strets, Rev. Mr Kalls, Paster, Skergless commondent if ocheck, A. M. and Forlick P. M. St. John & Church, (For Episcopa) northeast single of Contrastation. Rev. de the Mores, Rector. Services at 11 ocheck, A. M. and Socket, P. M.

CARLISLE, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28, 1858.

shivering with cold with terror, and with Select Cale. weakness, as every sound scared her, as every ootstep approached her-now trembling at the oneliness of the long, dismal street, that THE BALLET GIRL. eemed so interminable-now springing like a startled fawn from some intoxicated wretch reeling stupidly home-and more, ten theuand times more, affighted by the approach "Thank goodness! this is the last week of of those bonnetless lost ones who roam shamelessly through our streets, rendering night

"You don't say so ? Well, that is a comfort ateany rate ! we shall get rid of those odious hideous by their profene and bacchanalian orgies. On, ou-now stealing softly, breathlessly-now, with a quick and hasty step, that gradually increases to a flight, the New Road gained. Her home is still far distant. don't object to our own ballet-ladies ; but to Now, in a solemn square, she returns the gruff. cludes the rude grasp of a nan, who, unpercrived, had been for some time dodging on her that is said. I declare it is quite insufferable ! foot-teps. At last, in the dim distance, she descrives a shadowy figure tottering towards on was the green-room of one of the leading her. It is her mother worn with watching, metropolitan theatres. The interlocutors were lief, the girlarouses all her remaining strength principals, as the term goes, and, by virtue of principals, as the term goes, and, by virtue of drawing from the treasury -- the one, fifteen her mother's sile, all her new found courage her mother's sile, all her new found courage ounds per week for enacting walking ladies ; melts nway, hud she biake, sobbing, into the

A FAFER FOR

and the other six, for delivering messagesmaternal arms. they conceived themselves entitled to be as id solen: as they pleased to the ushappy girls, frighted parent; "what new trouble is there "" My child !. my child !" exclaimed the ofmany of whom possessed far superior talent, in store for us f" hut who were obliged to be content to gain this is the la " This is the last werk of the pantemime," weekly as many shillings as those clever lasaid Chara, "and I fear it will be almost impossible for me, at present, to obtain another It is true that both had somewhat suddenly situation." risen from the state they so much despised, * * * * * per favor of a friend, to the proud position Morning broke and found Clara kneeling by they at present occupied, and, though dramaa dead father's side !. The vow she registered tic critics might demur to their claims, they there was heard in heaven, and chronicled by the errors infert the "re ward of merit." Time angels in the Baok of Life. had somewhat defaced their charms, and the "Nothing can tempt me now," she exclaimremembrance of their early struggles, yet it od, "for the succifice that might have been an had left them the knowledge of the vulnerable act of jiety, wou'd henceforth be a sin." points at which their young, a-gacintrs might ... Think ever-thus, my child," said the weep be most easily wounded, and never had the ing mother, as she fondly embraced her, "and axiom that "knowledge is power" been more I shall have no fears for the future "

aptly illustrated, than in the dealing out of " Have none, mother! We can work, can e not ?? One of those pariahs of the dramatic tribe " Hand in hand, my child, to death." -a ballet-girl-was at the same moment lean-" And win, mother-or die and be like him ing her head upon her clasped hands, which at peaco." rested on the mantlepiece. She had sought * he apartment to be alone with her thoughts, There was a great attraction at Dary Line, and as she stood there alone-she forgot the for a new tragedy had been announced-au scene around her, and saw, in her mental vis thors name unknown; but, by the interest ion, the and and desolate home, where she that had been evinged in high quarters, it was knew that the announcement of the withdrawconjectured that it come from a noble source. al of the piece would bring tears and consternation. She knew that upon her rested a vast mount of responsibility, for she had at have wus a mystery about both her and the piece, the lady who was to play the heroine. There parents yick and almost distitute. Sie was that neither critics nor actors could solve. a fingile girl, and she hated the protession to She came plainly dressed in deep mourning, which poverty, but not her, will, consented. clo-ely veiled She was also accompanied by There was a look of deep anxiety in her eyes a widow lady, supposed to be heremother ; -and her face, but for the rouge whet wore, but as peither seemed to hage any acquainwould have been pale as marble ; even through tance in the establishment, and never arrived that, there was an expression of deep anxie y until the last moment at the rehearsals, departthat suited ill with her girlish wears. She ing the instant the business of the stage was over, it was not possible to glean any in eligence concerning them. All that was known was, that they arrived in a plain brougham, which drove off the moment they alighted, and returned exactly at the time the rehearent,

Have been marked by the fiend and in ruin "But what brings her on the stage ?" laid low "Oh! that's another part of the story ! I And the priest and the statesman together have seems that her father fell into poverty through kneeler some bank breaking, or something, and then To the wine God-obscene till in madness they his fand'y behaved very ill to him-and then reeled."

Others have sought their fortunes in strange he changed his name-and then he died-no. lands, some in the sunny south ; some in ree wrote a play, and he couldn't get it acted gions of polar cold, and some in the land of -and then he died !" "Well-and so the tragedy is her father's gold, but there are others gentle reader, that passed away in the early bloom of womanhood, suppose ?" "Yes, it is-youv've hit it! And so it ap and some sunk quietly to rest in the morning ears that this Miss Lovelace - Lovelace is her of life, and now they He beneath the churchcal name, it seems ; the other was an assumed yard green. We have visited their quiet reste-took it juto her head that it was a re- ing places; we have planted the rose to bloom pect to-her dend-father to produce the play o'er their heads, we have mourned and shed hat he, poor man, had so much set his beart | cur tears over their cold homes. Alas! we on - for it seems he wrote the character for may go to their graves on a bright summer's her when she was quite a little child-and so day, we may go when the sun sheds his last she determined to uct the part before ever she lingering ray, we may go when the busy world got married, because, I suppose she didn't is sinking to rest, we may go in onlin, we may magine her husband would let her doso after. go in storm, we may go at the return of birds wards, for a grandmother, or an aunt, or an and flowers, and bow low over them, and call uncle, or some one, has dioil, and left them long and loud, but " they hear not, they heed some money, and so you see, she sports her not, they are free from all care,")-their spirits have flown to a more genial clime, where . * · * they are undisturbed by sorrow, and forever ·* *

The morning was clear and bright, and the unhurt by time." With all the changes that time has made, rees were putting forth their first spring buds when a marriage party issued from the porwe love 10 revisit our dear old home. It was als of St. Pancras. Several carriages atten- the home of our father, the home where our led, still there was an air of quietude about infancy was cradied, and contentment dwelt. the affair Soon the bride appeared, led .by . The winds of adversity may sweep over thee, her husband, whose nuble countenance bore and the rude hand of death tear away-thy the impress of service done in sunny India, he loved ones, still I love thes thou land of my noked proud of his choice; and she -- ns, in birth, thou home of my youth. - her simple white dress, sho-leaned confidently, "Home! there is a magical spell in thy name upon his arm-wore on her face the honert [Wherever I wander thy scenes, refain ; glow of an approving a neience, and as Sir O ne'er may the bliss that twines around thee depart Thou home heart !" Arthor and Ludy Leslie stepped into their me of my father-thou joy of my carriage, few could have guessed that the had once figured on the stage, or shivered at mid-COTTAGE GREEN, PA. light through the henely streets, a poor, un-April 17, 1858. protected ballet-girl. Yes, there was one cir-

THE NEW LIQUOR BILL.

CIRCLE.

inges drove uwny, a groupe of young girls ap-A Supplement to an Act to Regulate the Sale of Intersecting Lequers, Approved 31st day of March, A. D., 1850. ented at the door of the sacred edifice, and hough some titlered-as girls will, whenever wedding is in question -- more were in tents. The following is a copy of the Liquor Bill, and very proud were those who had succeeded as it passed both Houses of the Pennsylvania in gaining a passing notice from Lady Leslie, ind many a one, in after years, was, by her means, rescued from a life of privation, and placed in circumstances where, by industry and virtue, they were enabled to earn a com-perent income, while she, moving in the sphere-to which by birth she had a claim, and line which her, clucation and talents qualified her to shine, became a blessing to those around her, and the light of her nusband's home, and the ine way need of his heart. Legislature: So, 1 Too it enacted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General-Assembly met, and we it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That applicants for brewery or distil-lery lieguse shall hereafter pay therefor the several amounts fixed by the third section of anot to regulate the sale of intoxicenting li-quors, approved M rch thirty-first, Aono D minione thousand eight hundred and fify six : Provided, That the same shall in no care n gaining a passing notice from Ludy Leslie, Legislature : he joy and pride of his heart. less than twenty-five dollars, except in case be less than twenty-five dollars, except in case of persons whose annual sales are less than one thousand dollars, who shalk puy, fifteen dollars, and the proviso in the section afore-said, so far as it fixes the minimum rate of li-cense at fitty dollars, is hereby repealed : See. 2 That applicants for license to vend any intoxicating liquors, by the quart or prenter quantity, with or without other goods, wates ar merchanise shall hereofter now [Written for the Herald.] MY CHILDHOOD HOME.

My childhood home! how endcaring are My childhood home! how endearing are bese words; but no one can so fully feel their arce, as he who has sailed out upon the stormy force, as he who has sailed out upon the stormy beens of life, leaving behind all the associa- to regulate the sale of intexicating liquors, sons selling vinous, spirituous or malt liquors, after the expirition of the fifteen days, as aforenid, shall be liable to prosecution and conviction in the proper Court, as fully and effectually as if no license had been grafted to such person or persons.

( $1 50 per annum in advance.

$2 00 if not paid in advance.

NO. 33.

effectually as if no license had been grafted to such person or persons. Sec. 7. That no license to vend the liquors aforesaid, granted under this or any other have of this Commonwealth, shall be transferable, or conter any right to sell the same in any other house than is mentioned therein, nor shall any bar, or place where such liquor is sold by less measures than one quart, be un-derlet by the person licensed to sell thereat; but if the party ligensed shall die, remove or cense to keep such house, his, her, or their li-cense to keep such house, his, her, or their li-cense moy be transferred by the authority denote the sell thore of the sell of the sell thereat; but if the party ligensed shall die, remove or cense moy be transferred by the nuthority denote the sell thereat; but if the party ligensed shall die, remove or cense moy be transferred by the nuthority denote the sell thereat; but if the sell thouse, his, her, or their li-cense moy be transferred by the nuthority denote the sell the sell thereat; but if the party ligensed the the thereat; but if the party ligensed the the the thereat; but if the party ligensed to the thereat; but if the party ligensed the thereat; but if the party ligensed the the thereat; but if the party ligensed thereat; but if the party ligensed the thereat; but if the party ligensed the thereat; but if the party ligensed the the thereat; but if the party ligensed the thereat; but if the party ligensed thereat; but if the party ligensed the thereat; but if the party ligensed the thereat; but if the party ligensed the party ligensed thereat; but if the party ligens derlet by the person licensel to well therent; but if the party licensed shall die, remove or cense to keep such house, his, her, or their li cense may be transferred by the authority gransing the same, or a license bo grafted the successor of such party for the remainder of the year, by the proper authority, on compli-ance with the, requisitions of the laws in all respects except publication, which shall not no payment, other than fees, shall be required. That where a license is granted inder this sec tion, for a portion of a year, the party licensed shall any publication of an act to regulate the sole of intoxicating liquors, nor in keeping any tavern, oyster house of cellar, restaurant or place of anusement, en-tertainment or refreshment, shall be allowed to sell the same by the bottle, or domestio mines and cider by the gallon, without taking out license: Provided, That such liquor is not drank upon the premises, where soid, nor at any place provided by such seller for that purpose. Sec. 9. That license to sell domestic wines, mult or brewed liquors, may bereafter the granified to receive the same : Provided, That the use of a room or nome is na - hotel, as convert room or theatre, shall not envised.

to in order process in an agent of the structure of a room or rooms in a hotel, as a concert room or theatre, shall not peclude the proprietor thereof from receiving a hotel license if he shall have and keep the accom-modation for a hattel, required by the act of Murch 31, 1856: And provided further, Thay, the preceding provise shall not apply to the cities of Philadelphia or Pit(sburgh. Sec. 10 That the petition of an applicant for eating house or rotail browner, license or eating house or retail brewery license need not bereafter embrace the certificate of citi-zens, required by the eighth section of an act occan of file, levelog behind all the association approved Match thirty-first. Anno Domino one thousand eight hundred and filty-six: Provi-battle of life, there are moments when the did. That the same shall in no case be less asure than one quart.

espective sales of liquors and refresh edge and belief ; and said Con.missioners are tereby authorized to administer such onlys a flirmations, and required to file the same i hall make out a correct list of all such appli-render d in ang one year, as a member thereof. Src. 21. That the mayor's court of the City of of Carbon hule, shall have power to grant lique censes under the provisions of this act, addr-shall have the same further powers in relation-thereto, as are by this act or a thermal court thereto, as are by this act or otherwise con-terred upon the courts of quarter sessions of the several counties of this Comm and in onses of enting houses in said city of Carbondale, applications shall be filed with the clerk of said mayor's court, and the li-

The set of the sale of intoxicating liquors, applications shall be filed with the other constraints, and the other of said mayor's ourt; and the li-to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors, ap-proved Narch thirty-first, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fity-six, and shall be filed with the olerk of the court of quarter sessions of the proper county; except if the courty of Allegheny, and the licenses prayed for, grant required in such cases shall be filed with the olerk of the court of quarter sessions of the proper county; except if the county of an act to regulate the sale of intuxicating li-dures, upproved May thirty-first, Anno Domi-required in such cases shall be filed with the olerk of the court of quarter sessions of the proper county; except if the county of an act to regulate the sale of intuxicating li-dures, upproved May thirty-first, Anno Domi-required in such cases shall be filed with the olerk of the court of quarter sessions of the proper county; except if the county of an act to regulate the sale of intuxicating li-dures, upproved May thirty-first, Anno Domi-ni ope thousand eight hundred and fity six, together with duy acts or parts of acts con-by the district attorney and county treasurer and their approval endowed thereon. Six 11. That any unlawful sale of vinous, there f, or any sale thereof in an impure, vi tiated, or adult rated shall be deemed a offender shall pay, a fine of not less than the offender shall pay. a fine of not less than ter-nor more than one hundred dollars, with the other shall apply as fully to license granted under this act as under the at foresaid; and the proper distribution of anil act as linke the twe ty-peaked thereon of a sid act shall in provisions of sub-fact, shall apply as fully to license granted under this act as under the at foresaid; that the penalty fangosed under the tweaty-

This there shall be deemed to be shall be in any way invalidated by the sheared, and the provisions that be deemed a first set in a state of the shall be in any way invalidated by the sheared, and upon on averaging of this act; and all provisions of shall be deemed a first act in a under that act is under the income shall be deemed a first act is under the income shall be deemed a first act is under the income shall be deemed a first act is under the income shall be deemed a first act is under the income shall be deemed a first act is under the income shall be deemed a first act is under the income shall be deemed a first act is under the income shall be deemed a first act is under the income shall be deemed a first act is under the income shall be deemed a under this act is under the income shall be deemed a under this act is under the income shall be deemed a under this act is under the income shall be deemed a under this act is under the income shall be deemed a under this act is under the income shall be deemed a under this act is under the income shall be prosecution, and upon a second or inthe section of shall apply as fully to licensee granted under the shall be prosecution; sentencer the offender to imprisonment not exceeding the same. Sec. 23 Thet licenses may be granted under this act is the prosecution of the shall be deemed forfetted and you, such is under the act is under the prosecution of adjourned court after its passage, or at any special or indjourned court after its passage, or at any special or adjourned court after the publication here for the section of the act is and any special or adjourned by the indice the prosecution of the act is any special or adjourned court after the section of the act is any special or adjourned the publication here for the section of the act is any special or adjourned the publication here for the section of the act is any special or adjourned the publication here for the section of the act is any special or adjourned there the section of the act is any special no person convicted of a second and subset quent offency shall be again licensed for two apprived March 31st, 1856, shall not be held perry thereafter; Provided, That this section or construct to authorize judgment to be en-shall not be construct to "repeal any not or trend against the obligor in the bond therein unlawful sale, provided, for a greater amount than the fine part of an act punishing such art of an act punishing such uniaviti sale, provided to a ground and the any of, Xeepi the twenty eighth section of an act to and ossis prescribed and imposed for any of, égu ate the sale of intoxienting liquore, ap-Sec. 12. That no prosecutor or informer in they are hereby released from the payment of any prosecution for the sale of intrining li-quots, shall receive any portion of the fine imjudgment, whenever the fine and costs ed and imposed for such offence shall osed on the detendant in any case where such prescribe prosecutor or informer is a witness for the bave been paid. mmonwealth ; and in every case of the conviction of a person returned by a constable, such constable shall receive two dollars, to be The Wire's Commandments. taxed instite costs.

Fight State

brougham !"

um-tauce which might have led observers to uppect concerning of the kind, for, as the car-

BY B. C. L 8 5.

Cantra Statro. Roy, J Coh B. Morss, Rottor. Services at 11 october A. M., and 3 october, P. M. English Lutherefu Church, Helford between Main and Jouther strents. Roy, Jacob Fry, Pastor. Services at 11 october A. M., and 7 october P. M. et al october A. M. and 7 october P. M. ter, shuffling past, his spectacles in one hand, at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. German ikeformed Church, Louther, between Han-over and Pitt Steedy. Roy A. H. Kremer, Pastor, " Methodist B. Church, first charge orner of Jain and Pitt Steeds. Roy R. D. Chambers, Jastor, " Methodist B. Church, Orst charge, June of Jain and Pitt Steeds. Roy R. D. Chambers, Jastor, Services at 10 o'clock A. M. and Charge, June of Jain and Nothodist B. Church, Steed Charge, Juliev, A. A. Methodist B. Church I second Charge, J. Hev, A. A. Methodist B. Church I second Charge, J. Hev, A. A. Rosse, Pastor, Services in College Chapel, at 11 o'clock A. M. and Charge, Juliev, A. A. Roman Catholic Church, Ponfret near East street. Rev. James Barrett, Pastor, Services on tie 2nd Sun-day of each month.

Revisioner annuel. Jay of each month. German Lutherin Church corner of Pomfret and Bedford streets. Rev. 1. P. Naschold, Paster. Service changes in the above are necessary the ns are requested to m tify us.

DICKINSON COLLEGE.

Rev. Charles Collins, D. D., President and Professor of Mural science. Rev. Lizman M. Johnson, D. D. Professor of Philoso-phy and English Literature. Scialances W. Marshall, A. M., Professor of Arcient Lanwith the object of this unprovoked attack. Inges. Ruy, Wm. L. Boswell, A. M., Professor of Mathematics. William C. Wilson, A. M., Professor of Natural Science were saying about a fine, sir ?" nd Cunator of the Museum. Alexander Schem, A. M., Professor of Hebrew and The promotor muttered, and howed?"

n Languages. uel D Hillman, A. M., Principal of the Grammar School. B. F. Purcell, A. B., Assistant in the Grammar School.

BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS.

Androw Blair, Presklont, H: Saxton; P. Quigley, E. runan, C. P. Humerich, J. Hamilton, Socretary Jason Eby, Tecasurfor, John Sphar, Mossenger, Meet, on a jst. Monday of each Month at 8 o'clock, A. M. at Ed-cine Tail

-- 0----CORPORATIONS.

CARLISLE DEFOSIT BANK ... President. Richard Parker, Cashier, Wu, M. Beetont (Terks, J. P. Hasler, N. C. Mus selman, C. W. Roed; Directors, Richard Parker, Thomas Parton, Morse Birker, Abraham Bealer Jacob Leiby, R. C. Woodwayd, Wm. B. Mullin, Samuel Wherry and

John Zug, Crangett, Sp VALET RUL ROAD COMPANY.--President, Preierick Watts' Scoretary and Treasurer, Edward M. Hiddle; Ymperintendont, O. N. Lull. Taxsenger trains twice a day. Eastward leaving Carlisle at 10.30 o'clock A. M. and 4.00 o'clock, P. M. Two trains every. day Westward, leaving Carlisle at 9.50 o'clock A, M., and 2.50 P. M.

SOCIETIES.

Cumberlar". Star Lodge No. 107, A. Y. M: mitets at Marion 11all on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of every Month. St. Johus Lodge No 200 A. Y. M. Meets 3d Thurs-day of each month, at Marion Hall. Carlist Lodge No 91 1. O. of O. F. Meets. Monday evening, at Trouts huilding.

FIRE COMPANIES.

The Union Fire Company was organized in 1/80. President, E., Corumany, Vice President, William M., Portor; Secretary, A. B., Kwing: Trouwar, Peter Man-er, Computy meters the Ewing: Trouwar, Peter Man-feyteniter, and discussion of the State of the Com-The Cambridge and Fire Company was instituted February 18, 1800 President Robert McCarthoy; Secretary, Philip Quickey; Treasurer, H. S. Hitter, The company meter and the Inici Saturday of January, April, July, and Orkober, uil Hase Company was instituted March etober. Good Will Hose Company was lustituted in Mareb President, H. A. Suurgcon: Vien Predicat Jame Jartney; Secretary, Samuel H. Gould; Treasurer 1855. Prosident, H. A. Sungcon: Vice Programs James B. McCartney; Norrotary, Samuel III. Gould: Treasurer, Joneph D. Ralhert. The compañy mosts the second Saturday of January, April, July, and October.

. . . . . RATES OF POSTAGE.

Postage on all letternof one-half ouure, weight or un-der, 3 cents pro paid. except to California or Oregon; which is 10 cen a propaid: Postage on the "Hernid"--within the County, free, Within the State 13 cents per year. To any part of the United States 20 conts ' Postage on all transfert propers under 3 ouriers in weight. L cent propabil or two remas unpuid. Advertised lellers, to be shared with the cost, and advertised. e ce.

PRINTING "OFFICE.

concluded The servant who attended them appeared to be as taciturn as them-elves, for by no capilery could he be induced to answer any questions, probably because there was nothing to tell beyond the simple fact of their resultace in Harley street, and that his fine you for taking at the wing-. Here, in: young mistresse's name appeared in the bills as Miss Levelace. The manager, of course solved the whole protlem if there was one; but those gentlemen commonly understand the day night will be'your last night, and y u'll art of keeping their own counsel. find your treasury pretty small on Saturday.

ady with your impertinence."

At last the eventful evening arrived. The I have you all down for a fine-your whole iouse was crammed in every part, for rumor weeks salary !- every one a set of----- " What and spoken well of the poetic heauty of the elegant appellation he was about to apply was piece, and it was known that many fashionasuspended by the approach of an exqusite of bles had secured private boxes. There was rank, who fancied himself desperately in love great excitement at the opening of the first scene, Which scon subsided into silence. In The peer eyed him, for a moment, contempt the mond the heroine was to make her ap-pearance. , fler, character was simple and ously through his glass, "What's that you touching, and suited well the style of her face nd figure. She appeared in the pure classic "Bull Buhl What's the damage ?" Then, drapery, bearing a basket of freshly gathered without waiting for a reply, daintily drawing flowers, these, it was easily seen, were choice a sovereign from his vest, "Will that pay it ? and costly, and as she moved through her part If it will, take yourself off, and don't annoy her action was praceful and dignified, and her voice was soft and pleasing. By the end of " Let me beg your lord-hip will put up your the first set she had secured the attention of purse. - I-am not in the habit? of receiving fathe audience, as she went on her powers be ors from strangers." "Stwangers! naw! naw! naw, don't be came gradually developed, and at the end of wuel, my deawest ewesture 1- Pon my life. the fifth set, not only was the success of the t's enough bweak a fellow's heart' when you tragedy complete, but the new actress, being know that I am waiting to theow my whole loudly called for, a shower of bouquets fell at fowtune at youw feet. I am weally suwpwised her feet, which she dul not leave for a servant that you pwefer to wemain in this detertable to collect, but herself bore off, amidst smiles polition, when ewewy happiness that wealth and courtsies, while the tragedy was announ nd love can e minand wait your acceptance. ced for repetition until further notice , auddet "My lord," said the girl, proudly, "tlere a storm of applause.

can be no happiness for me, except associated As she left the stage, she heard a voice close behind her exclaim. "Why, good gwa-"Now, my deaw cweatauw," began the cious ! Is it possible ! Do my eyes deceive peer ; but by this time Miss Odell was prepar- me! ow do I weally see my adowable heart-ing to take her place in the ballet. The young " Lovelace is my name, Lord Rivers, I nan still kept hovering near her, "One word, trust you will have the goodness to remember it !' " Have the goodness to make way, my lord," "A webuke-by-all that is -unconquewable !said she.

"Then house me by paying the fine out of [I'm in despaiw !" this, my deawest owenture ! You don't know - "At this moment, a distinguished looking and how happy you will make me if you will pew- very handsome man, who had sat in the stage mit me to contwibute in the smallest way to box an attentive spectator, arrived with a layouw comfowt. Do-pray do !' and, as he dy in doep mouthing, leaning upon his arm, spoke, he pressed into her hands a beavy purse. and after a tew whispored words, carefully Why was it that for a moment she tightly arranging the folds of an ample clouk around clasped it, and a sparale came into her eyes ? Mass Lovelace, he led her respectfully from

The next the light went out-her lips turned the busy crowds who everywhere greated her white, and, as a cold shudder passed through progress. her frame, she coldly put it book into the do- . The ballet room, the next evening, was in a state of great excitement, nor's band.

' Let me pass, my lord, or-or I shall think "Who," exclaimed a dozen voices, "is this ant you, too, combine with others to insult Miss Lovelace ?" " Guess !"

The young nobleman stopped promptly back "I'm sure her face is familiar to mo !" said The path opened, and in a moment the ballet sprang upon the stage, and the young girl "And to me-and to me! but it's no use with her companions, cuwrenthed in smiles, guessing-tell us !'. . "Do yourremember that proud, silent girl, were dancing gaily before an applauding audiwho used to look melangholy when she was . . . . . . . . . with na, but whom all the men were wild a On-on, through the wind and rain-on. bout ?"

"Miss Odell, to be sure!" through the sleet and mud, tramped the fair

HER (bD JOB & BOOK PRINTING OFFICE, S. E. Cor. of the Square, Main St "the dangerous hunts of drukeness and vice, going to be married." 14 1

-)-

ind would return to its early home, with the i than twenty-five dollars ; and the provision it fondest affection that stirs the great deep of the soul. Offectimes does the heart pine for its native home, as the least bird cous for its its native home, as the least bird cous for its mate. The heart is a strong palace and estimated yearly sales of liquors authorized to be cat withstand the storms of life, a d be sold therein, or in the house intended to be the coldness of this world. But, then there in all cases where such estimated yearly solve are cords that are indissolubly united with all the endearagents of home, and the broaking of hotel, inu or tavern shall be rated as if the one cord ruins the strong palace of the soul, How strong we are and yet how weak. We The wold tar," can rig his vessel with a strong for the strong we have and how the strong we have and first dollars, as the base of the strong the strong to the strong the strong to the strong to the strong the strong to The "old tar," can Eig my vessel with a stong thearty and brave the storms of an oceny-life, but while far, far away on some for Eign shore. he weeps as he thinks of the land of his birth dollars; when more than five hundred dollars the home of his youth. We look upon our and less than one thousand dollars, as seventh the name of name yound, we how apon out class, and pay two ry-five dollars, when less than five hundred dollars, are explicitly five dollars, are depth class, and pay the hundred dollars, are depth class, and pay five no class. That in Phila-jayous and free. Well do we remember the depth and Pittsburgh no such hences shall place of our early juys, where we sported be granted for a less sum than fifty dollars a upon the green. Every thing around the old phorough for a less sum than twenty five dolupon the green. Every doing agoing the shorough for a less sum than twenty use do-blord scems dear to us. The old house, the lars a year; and the estimated yearly sales of listed and meadows, over which we gambeled all applicants for such iccase shall be assessed, with youthful glee, and the green hills are all as provided in the fiftherath section of an set to regulate the wale of intoxicouting Fquors,

Not far from the house, ran one of those beautiful streams, on whose bank we used to See 4. Thut licenses shall be granted for beautiful streams, on whose bank we used to wander so frequently, and watch the fany the keeping of enting houses, which shall autribe as they sported in its limpid waters. Al: the tribe as they sported in its limpid waters. Al: the tribe as they sported in its limpid waters. Al: ald stream, we love thee full well; thy hills and glades are drar, thy murmurings are low and solemn, and ever-more whisper of Obr of an act to create a sinking fund, and to proearly joys.

early joys. Towards the east where the sky is tinted with Auora of the morning, stands the "old proved April Teath, Anno Domini one, thouschool heuse," and every thing about it stems sacred. We well remember the old stat in the corner where we watched the master, and sum than twenty dollars, nor elses here, for a less made ready for mischief. Yes, he can re- less sum than ten dollars.

See 5. That sicen-ed venders of vinous member too, when we crouched beneath the spirituous malt or brewed liquors, or any of them, or any admixtures thereof, either with rod, when not sly enough with our pranks. Nothwithstanding this we still dove the place, but while we review the 'old homestead," with its broad fields, and sparking streams, the school house with its placy-ground and the school house with its placy-ground and pleasant groves, we would ask where are the may bereatter sell such liquins as they are lifriends of our youth I Where are those who general to manufacture and sell in any quantity were the companions of our bayish sparts ? Not fess than one gallon : Provided, That this Where are our young class mates? Where is that bright-eyed girl, we loved so well? Ala 1 cense, in addition to his licence as brewer, and all that's "bright must fade." Time has made | under the same provisions us in the case of its changes Let us go to the old house but enting-hou-es. S.o. 6 That licenses to vend the liquor

a very low of our early associates do we find. a very tow of our carly associates do we had be the second They are gone! Some to not their part in 11 e the requirements of the laws on the subject worklis conflict, and they seem to do well, they are complied with by any such applicant, and shall authorize the applicant to sell the liquors understand life and its relations they work for inderstand life and its relations they work for ad and truth. And again, some have grown weary of It e a stained shall prohibit the court, hourd of it. God and truth and its cares, they have tarried long at the evidence or commissioners, from hearing other wine, they seek strong drink; the vigor of the interview of the theory of the interview of the intervi nanly form now totters, and baws down to the L centers or Commissioners, shall grant or reevelry of passion. The brightness of that ye is diamed by the fumes of the intax is in int, and they tremble over a drunkard 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. and the state of a state of and Youth and beauty while yet in their strength and their glow and the second second

1. Thou shalt have no other wife but me. taxed infine costs.
Sro. 13. That no person who keeps in his story or ware room any hogsheads, stands, casks or liquor pipes, or who keeps a grocery story, shall-receive license to vend intoxicating serve her.
Thou shalt have no other wife but me.
Thou shalt not take into the house any bentiful brazen image to bow down to her and serve her.
Thou shalt not take into the house any bentiful brazen image to bow down to her and serve her.
Thou shalt not take the name of thy wife

3. Thou shalt not take the name of thy wife oustables are hereby required to make return in váin. 🦯 in values and the or prevention of an arrow of the persons engaged in the sale of spirituous, in their re-spective districts, who shall have in their able. 4. Remember thy wife to keep her respect-process of business any of the articles atore-and, baning them and the location of their respect-ve places of business; and if any such person 5 Honor thy wife's father and mother-6. Thou shalt not fret. hall have a liceuse to yead such liq ors by persons may, on complying with the laws on the subject, obtain license to sell by no less 9. Thou shalt not be behind thy neighbor.

7 Thou shalt not find fault with thy dinless measure that one quart, the court may, on investigation, revoke the same; but such ner. 8. Thou shalt not ohew tobacco.

10 Thou shalt not visit the rum tovern Sec. 14. That in Philadelphia, all applicants or licen-e to sell intextonting liquors by any thou shalt not covet the tavern keeper's rum, neasure less than one quart, shall appear benor his brandy, nor his gin, nor his whickey, tore the Commissioners of said city, between the first day of May and the first day of June in this year, and during the month of March bar.

nor his wine, nor suything that is behind, the n each subsequent year, and make and sign a oath or affirmation of the amount of their 11. Thou shalt not visit, billiard halls, neither for worshipping games of chance, nor for ents at eir respective buts, to the best of their know- henps of money that lie on the table. 12. Thou shalt not stay out after nine o'clock. at-night.

heir office, and rate and classify each appli-13. Thou shalt not grow peevish, and conmut in accordance therewith : Provided. That tort thy beautiful physiognomy because of bemy applicant for a license for a place not preing called to foot store bills, which thy dear wife hath made without thy advice or consent ; by them for the first year as they may deem wife h just, alter considering the locality of the pre-mises for which license is asked, and they hold for verily she knows the wants of the house-

14. Thou shalt not set at 'paught the commandments of thy wife.

cante, with their names, places of busines and the class in which they are respectively placed, and furnish the same to the City Treasurer, who shall advertise the same once a week to THE BOY-PHRACHER .--- The St Louis Demothree weeks in two daily papers for which ser-vices each commissioner shall receive the sum crnt says Rev. J. B. FULLER, of Mssouri, the f twenty-five cents, and the expense of adver boy-preacher, has, within the last five weeve. sing the same, provided it does not exceed delivered in Marion county fifty-four sermons. twenty-five cents in each case to be paid by and been instrumental in the conversion of ar applicant Sec. 15. That every applicant for license to been licensed to preach only about two months. been intexionting liquors in the City of Philas, been licensed to preach only about two months, lelphin, shall fire a to ad with the clerk of the during which time be has delivered upwars. court of quarter sespions of said city, in ac of fifty discourses, and two hundred and forty adance with the tenth section of an act to persons have been converted through his inregulate the sale of intexicating liquors, aphous at eight hundred and fifty six, 'which is sermons, or makes any notes, and frealluit be approved by the recorder of said city quently does not select his text until he rises a said city quently does not select his text until he rises after ju-tification of the balt before him before up in the pulpit to preach ; and yet, it is said, incuise onn in any case he granted : And pro-viaed further. That each applicant on his bond, being so approved and filed shall receive from th, clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions a speaks most eloquently, and uses the most certificate of the fact, which certificate he shall chuste and beautiful language. Calls to preach predices to the City Treasurer who shall col-lect the annount of the tax for which he ha-him been assessed by the City Commissioners, un der the provisions of this sot, and give the aptionit his receipt for the same ; and "on" the roduction of said receipt, the Clork of the Court of Quarter Sessions is hereby authorized to i-sue to such applicant a license ; and in Incense shall issue unless these provisions be on pied with.

Sec. 10. That keepers of drinking gipons shall be licensed . in shull be licensed, in the city of Philadelphia France to sell such liquors on the premises described mer. webustud mer.

strumentality. It is said that he hever studno two of his discourses are alike, e ther in point of arrangement or composition. He. bim. a general de

. tor An inveterites bachelor heing neked why he did not scoure some fair ones, com-many in his voyage in the ocean of life, re-plied : "I would if I were sure such an ocean would be pacific." Prudent old batch:

BC Married men are always less troubled with the rheumatism than are bachelors. Dr. Francis assigns as the reason-they sleep war use a lice se to such applicant in accordance with the evidence: And Provided further, that if any person or persons shall neglect of refuse to lift his, her or their license withi trieen days after the same bis heen granted.

· ; -

· • • _ _

I such neglect or refusal what he deemed a for-feiture of suid license, and such person or per-