MARRIAGES OF CONSANGUINITY .--During the recent session of the National Medical Association in Washington city a very able report was submitted by 'Dr. Bemis, of Kentucky, upon the effect produced by marriages of near relations upor offspring. Upon close investigation he has ascertained that over ten per cent. of the deaf and dumb, and over five per cent. of the blind, and nearly fifteen per cent. of the idiotic in the State institutions of this country, are the children of kindred parents, and from an accurate com putation he discovered that of 787 mairi ages of cousins, 249 gave issue to deaf and dumb, blind, idiotic, or insane pro-د ا geny.

In view of these astounding facts we must coincide in the opinion of a contemporary that some stringent law should be enacted to prevent this enormous and detrimental mingling of the human species, which if permitted to continue threatens to people our land with a race of afflicted and unfortunate beings, sources of misery alike to themselves and to
