A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett,
OF THE New Yorks LUNG INFARMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above institution, as Claif Physician, and a tweive years' course of steady devotion to the Caro of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, tagether with my unrivalled oppytunities and adveotage of pathological research—atted not a fittle by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a docisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Ardenical cures of medicines are directly audressed to the diseased organs and the integuinest. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation, of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary, that each patient should have the benefit of both general and locks it reatment. The success of my treatment in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary, that each patient should have the benefit of both general and locks it reatment. The state of the s 'A Casket of Gems of Wit and Wisdom." A THOUSAND AND ONE STORIES, OF PACT AND PANCY, WIT AND HUMOR,

RHYME, REASON, AND ROMANCE, EDITED BY S. G. COODNICH-(PETER PARLEY.) o volume, large octave, handsomely bound in re morece, with glit side and back; containing 750 pages, and Illustrated by 800 Beautiful Engravings.

Tille design of this be-5k is-to bring whole libraries in to a single volume—to furnish a moutal meal for every day and every hour—for every taste, humor, age, caprice—a book for the grave and gag, the old and young—we have, therefore, Schence and Philosophy; flayme and Reasou. Wit and Wisdom, Fact and Fancy, which, put together as they come, produce a sort of intellectual plum pudding, inasmuch as the whole is peppered and spiced with puns, conundrums, and drolleries, to say nothing of agrarish of three hundred ougravings. In these pages are given the essences of thought and sentiment from toethus, Sydney Smith, Sam. Johnson, and many others; clorical ancodotes, Illbagnian eccentricities, Western extravaganzas, gathered from the four winds of the Pres; outlines of the tales of Ino Quixote and Gil illas; of the fables, of Havinn and Lafontains; of the epic poems of Jarussian Dalivered, Telenachus, Oriando, Furioso, and others; of the Life of Sam Houston, Gerard the lindwind in giraffechaier; of Stevens' travis in Egypt and Palestine, Paul and Virginis, Alex. Dumas, the Swiss Family Robinson, Mr. Gildon and Sam Patch; with spicy cliations of prose and postry, from the masterny of the Bluis, which is a subject of exhaustless interest; striking facts in Astronomy, Chemistry, and Natural History; remarkible Biographors, interesting fravels, and wonderful discoveries in art and sclence. Poter Parley, the editor of this balk, has a world-wide revolution, as an author—las writing having become familiar as household words wherever the English language is spoken.
